At the request of the FCC staff, KOB carefully examined preemptions of core children's programming during the second and third quarters of 2017, in order to determine if the station broadcast a sufficient number of programs during those quarters to meet its requirement of an average of three hours per week. As the following spreadsheet shows, KOB broadcast an average of 3.15 hours per week in Q2 and 3.25 hours per week in Q3 of regularly scheduled core children's programming, either in their regularly scheduled time slots, their "second home" or other time periods. KOB provided on-air announcements to viewers for every rescheduled program shown in the spreadsheet.
