

WQQQ Local Programs Addressing Community Issues

3rd Quarter 2020

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: July 5 @ 7 am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Rising Health Care Costs

Description: Connecticut's senior Senator Richard Blumenthal discusses efforts in Congress to control the costs of medical prescriptions.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: July 12 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Dealing With COVID-19 When Schools Reopen

Description: Connecticut Senator Chris Murphy and Congresswoman Johanna Hayes discuss the challenges of trying to keep schools safe in this environment of Covid 19.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: July 19 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Effects of COVID-19 on Mental Health

Description: CT Senator Chris Murphy discusses a bill that improves the mental health services available for schools and communities.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: July 26 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Lyme Disease Being Exacerbated by The Hot Summer

Description: Senator Richard Blumenthal of Connecticut hosts a hearing on meeting the challenges of tick born diseases triggered by the hotter than normal summer.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: August 2 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Tick-Born Illnesses in Summer

Description: NY state Senator Sue Serino holds a hearing on tick born illnesses that are affecting the region. Experts give advice on how to limit exposure to ticks.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: August 9 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: The Opioid Crisis

Description: Dutchess County Executive Marc Molinaro discusses the county's plans to combat the opioid crisis in the county.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: Aug 16 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Recreational Opportunities During COVID-19 Pandemic

Description: Local officials discuss plans to finish the Harlem Valley Rail trail and other economic development plans.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: Aug 23 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Maintaining Health Coverage With Trump Trying To End The ACA

Description: Connecticut Junior Senator Chris Murphy discusses various details of President Trump's ongoing efforts to end the Affordable Care Act.

Program: Tri State Sunday Prospective

Date: Aug 30 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Activities of Connecticut State Government

Description: Connecticut State Rep Maria Horn discusses the latest session of the state legislature.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: Sept 6 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Fears of Attacks on Immigrants

Description: New York Governor Andrew Cuomo discussed what he terms over aggressive immigration raids.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: Sept 13 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: The Recent Increase in Drug Abuse

Description: Steven Langley, Executive Director, of MountainSide Rehabilitation Center in North Canaan, CT discusses the rampant drug abuse problem facing the Northwest corner and surrounding communities.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: Sept 27 @ 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Dealing With COVID-19 When Schools Reopen

Description: State school officials discuss the changes facing Connecticut schools as the reopen this year.