

WQQQ Local Programs Addressing Community Issues

October 1 to December 31, 2019

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: October 6 at 7 am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Availability of Affordable Health Care, Politics

Description: Connecticut's Junior Senator Chris Murphy and other members of Congress discussed the effects of President Trump's efforts to overturn the Affordable Care Act.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: October 13 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Safety From Terrorism, Politics

Description: Connecticut Junior Senator Chris Murphy discussed the effect of President Trump's decision to withdraw US troops from Syria.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: October 20 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Keeping Schools Safe From Shootings, Politics

Description: Fifth District Congresswoman Johann Hayes and Senator Chris Murphy discussed their opposition to the use of Federal funds to train teachers in order to carry guns in the classroom.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: October 27 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Health – The Vaping Epidemic and Resulting Deaths, Especially Among Teenagers

Description: Connecticut Senior Senator Richard Blumenthal and state officials discussed their efforts urging the FDA to ban flavored vaping devices for young people.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: November 3 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Gun Safety

Description: New York has implemented a new "Red Flag" law that will allow teachers to directly contact police officials if that hear of a student threat. State officials and teachers discussed the benefits of this law.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: November 10 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Health – The Vaping Epidemic and Resulting Deaths, Especially Among Teenagers

Description: New York state officials discussed a proposed ban of flavored Vaping products.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: November 17 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Advertising That Exploits Children

Description: Connecticut Senior Senator Richard Blumenthal discussed ways that advertisers and others exploit children in the internet.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: November 24 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: School Bullying

Description: Broadcast of John Halligan's remarks before parents in the Pine Plains School district about the tragic effects of bullying that resulted in his son's death.

Program: Tri State Sunday Prospective

Date: December 1 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Availability of Affordable Health Care, Politics (repeat)

Description: Connecticut's Junior Senator Chris Murphy and other members of Congress discussed President Trump's efforts to overturn the Affordable Care Act.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: December 8 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Dutchess County Economy and Recreational Attractions

Description: Best of 2019: Dutchess County Executive Marc Molinaro discussed the completion of the Harlem Valley Rail Trail as part of his State Of The County address.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: December 15 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Government Effectiveness in Addressing Connecticut Issues

Description: Best of 2019” Review of the changing of the guard in local politics. Connecticut's newly elected Representative Maria Horn and Governor Ned Lamont discussed taking office.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: December 22 at 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Government Effectiveness in Addressing New York State Issues

Description: New York Governor Andrew Cuomo discussed issues facing NY State in his State of the State address.

Program: Tri State Sunday Perspective

Date: December 29, 2018 7am, 29 minutes

Issues Addressed: Citizen Awareness of Governmental Actions

Description: Connecticut Gov Ned Lamont discussed what was accomplished in his first legislative session.