

2024 1st Qtr. Issues (In reverse order)

March 29, 2024

John and Maria share thoughts on this most holy of weeks in the Christian faith.

March 22, 2024

John discusses this week's Light House Voices event featuring Laura Perry Smaltz

March 15, 2024

In this special edition of Breakpoint This Week, John Stonestreet sits down with Dr. Carl Trueman to discuss their difference of opinion on the definition of worldview.

March 8, 2024

John and Maria discuss a series of revelations from this past week, including a set of documents proving what pro-trans medicine practitioners knew about their medical experiments on children, David Daleiden exposes Planned Parenthood again, and a Congressional hearing featuring Jeremy Tedesco of ADF and Jordan Peterson.

March 1, 2024

John and Maria discuss two issues that dominated the news last week, the biased replies from Google Gemini and a new study that finds married couples are the happiest.

February 23, 2024

John and Maria discuss the implications for IVF of an Alabama court ruling.

February 16, 2024

John and Maria discuss the latest ads for the He Gets Us campaign.

February 9, 2024

An op-ed in The New York Times finally acknowledges a glaring problem in gender transitions.

February 2, 2024

Many use passages from the Old Testament to inform their views on immigration. John and Maria will talk about their arguments. And they'll do a deep dive on two topics at the edges of life, childbearing and the death penalty.

January 26, 2024

New study confirms that more Americans identify as religiously unaffiliated than as Roman Catholics.

January 19, 2024

John and Maria talk about the growing incidents of persecution against Christians worldwide, gender confusion, and what to make of the results of the Iowa caucus.

January 12, 2024

Trans rights are becoming the latest state-by-state issue dividing America.

January 5, 2024

Harvard president Claudine Gay steps down over charges of plagiarism.