REPORT

2022: Third Quarter

Special Programming:

Classical:

On the NWPB Classical Service, every Saturday at 8:00PM, we air an episode of The Sound of 13, a musical exploration of abolition.

All January 6th committee hearings and special coverage was carried on this service.

NWPB Centennial testimonials played daily on both services.

StoryCorps collab from Moses Lake aired Wednesdays during Morning Edition and All Things Considered

News:

On NWPB News, every Saturday at 6PM, Traverse Talks with Sueann Ramella explores cultural topics around the Northwest. Guests include activists, artists, authors, professors, poets, non-profits and more.

All January 6th committee hearings and special coverage of the overturning of Roe v. Wade by the supreme court were carried on this service.

“Fresh Air” items listed in “NPR” category only aired on the NWPB News Service.

On the NWPB News Service, every Sunday at 10:00AM, we air an episode of Unreserved. Host Rosanna Deerchild takes you straight into Indigenous communities across North America and offers real talk from the people behind the headlines, with a soundtrack from the best in Indigenous music.

Held special coverage for Queen Elizabeth II’s death.
