Programs/Issues Report
1st Quarter – 2018   (January – February – March)
April 10, 2018

*__Commonwealth Policy Center:__ The Commonwealth Policy Center is a relatively new program to WDFB. They are dedicated to preserve the bedrock values of life, marriage and fiscal responsibility in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. They are upholding the Kentucky Constitution that civil, political and religious liberties come from God. Topics for this quarter include: Shades Freed, Billy Graham's Legacy, Arming Ky Teachers, Without Remorse-School Shooter, Restrict Homeschoolers, Dirty Needles Litter Ashland School Playground.

*__Community Meal For Homeless & Those In Need:__ A growing need in our area are those that are homeless and without food.   We helped to advertise a free community meal and give away of toiletries and hygiene products for families in need at the Danville First Church Of God on Saturday March 24th from 11 AM to 1 PM.

*__Bad weather/electric outages:__ This winter has been a difficult one with many school, church and other closings. We signed on early to cover those and also gave announcements about tree and limb disposal for our Boyle County listeners. Along with that we also gave electric outage information and where workers would be working in our areas.

*__Boil Water Advisory__: WDFB played several announcements making our listeners aware of the Parksville Boil Water Advisory for Parksville & Mitchellsburg Area. (March 2, 2018)

*__Benefit For A Community Need:__ A Benefit was planned for a member of our community/pastor's wife battling cancer. WDFB aired special announcements to make our listeners aware of how they could help. (Food, crafts, silent auction items and attending the singing). This was a very successful event for this family and the love shared by all attending was amazing!
