Re: Public Awareness/Quarterly Issues

In the period from April 1, 2019, through June 30, 2019, KJTH/KZTH/KXTH/KTHL/KIXO/KTHM/KTHF addressed several issues of public concern. Numerous public service announcements were made on behalf of various local non-profit organizations and churches. In the month of April, our General Manager, Development Director, and a DJ participated in Career Fairs at the Oklahoma Association of Broadcasters Conference in Oklahoma City, and at Tulsa University in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The radio ministry also promoted and participated in charitable races in Tonkawa and Enid, Oklahoma; promoted the Mac Powell Concert in Oklahoma City; and announced the winner of the March Bracket Music Challenge. In May, the ministry promoted and sent DJ's to various "National Day of Prayer" events in communities across the broadcast area, and hosted a free, Listener Appreciation Concert with Building 429 in conjunction with one of our partner churches, University Heights Baptist in Stillwater, Oklahoma. We also held an on-air Mother's Day "Morning Basket" contest; hosted two blood drives on behalf of the Oklahoma Blood Institute; and cross-promoted a "Skillet" concert at Frontier City in Oklahoma City. In June, we helped promote broadcast area Vacation Bible Schools, and some of our DJ's visited four Vacation Bible Schools in the same time period. We also conducted an on-air contest for Father's Day called "Let Me See Your Grill". Kids and moms sent in pictures of the dad's grill, and the random winner received a new grill. We also participated in the 101 Ranch Rodeo Parade in Ponca City, and cross-promoted the "Casting Crowns" concert at Frontier City in Oklahoma City. The House FM network also passed along public information on severe and inclement weather. And, on the attached sheets, other issues are listed which were broadcast on the program "Focus on the Family". "Focus on the Family" airs each weekday from 5-5:30 a.m.

Title Abortion Survivors Tell Their Stories

Length 57 minutes

Those who advocate for abortion emphasize that women should be able to choose what happens to their bodies—but as abortion survivors, Melissa Ohden and Claire Culwell are standing up to be voices for babies who are unable to speak for themselves, at any time during a pregnancy, or after being born alive in a failed abortion procedure. While in the womb, Melissa, a previous broadcast guest, soaked in the toxic saline infusion abortion for five days and still survived, and was nearly left to die, until a sympathetic nurse took her to the NICU. Claire's mother was 13 years old when she got pregnant with twins. 5 months along, she was forced by a family member to have an abortion, but Claire survived. Claire's mom was coerced to have a second abortion procedure, but was declined because of the medical risk, so Claire was born. Both of these women have now reconnected with their birth moms, who have experienced healing in those reunions. In fact, Melissa and Claire are close friends with their birth moms. They discuss the politics of abortion and how they are ignored by politicians, who view them as the "dreaded complication" of abortion. The discussion includes the importance of having compassion and forgiveness for post-abortive women, through God's grace.

Title Embracing the Unique Aspects of Male and Female

Length 54 minutes

Dr. Larry Crabb talks about how we are created as relational beings, but how we too often allow fears to prevent us from being who God designed us to be. He helps men and women to embrace what he calls "authentic masculinity" and "authentic femininity" to become fully alive and fulfill God's purpose in us.

Title Secretary Pompeo: Defending Religious Freedoms
Length 25 minutes
Description Recorded in Washington, DC, Jim Daly sits down with Secretary of State Mike Pompeo to address the challenges of being a Christian in a secular society and emphasize the need for – and importance of – religious freedoms in the U.S. and around the world. Secretary Pompeo also discusses his personal faith in Christ, and his role in representing the United States in meetings with world leaders, and defending religious freedoms. Among the topics discussed are Secretary Pompeo's second Ministerial to Advance Religious Freedoms coming in July 2019, the expansion of the Mexico City policy, and prohibiting U.S. funding of abortion in other countries.

Title Embracing God's Unique Design For Autism
Length 26 minutes
Description Karla Akins is the mother of twin sons, Isaac & Isaiah, who have autism. She recounts the harrowing journey of raising these boys who cried constantly, could not be comforted, interacted only by hitting & biting people, and were easily triggered into emotional meltdowns. Karla courageously decided to teach & train her sons to live "normal lives," despite the dire predictions of medical professionals, and the criticism of friends who believed the boys were too much to handle. Today Isaac & Isaiah are not totally independent, but they can walk, run, read, have paid employment, drive a golf cart on errands, serve others, and have a vibrant relationship with the Lord.

Title How Do You Forgive Evil?
Length 25 minutes
Description On June 17, 2015, there was a shooting at the Emanuel AME Church in Charleston, SC. Polly Sheppard was in the room during the attack. She was confronted by the shooter, but spared. Rev. Anthony Thompson's wife, Myra, was killed, along with eight other close friends. In this interview, Anthony and Polly share how they coped with the aftermath of the tragedy. They talk about the history of slavery in Charleston and the racial tensions in the city, which are slowly being healed through interfaith events and cooperation between churches. They also share how God spoke to each of them, encouraging them to forgive the shooter for his crimes, and how that forgiveness helped them heal and find freedom from hatred.
