Re: Public Awareness/Quarterly issues

In the period from April 1, 2017 through June 30, 2017, KJTH/KXTH/KZTH/KTHF/KTHL ran numerous public service announcements on behalf of various local non-profit organizations and churches. We also passed along public information on severe and inclement weather. On the attached sheets other issues may be listed which were broadcast over the program "Focus On The Family" that airs each weekday morning at 5:30. The station also hosted tours to various schools, churches, and scouting groups. On Saturday, May 6th, we aired two free showings of the movie "I'm Not Ashamed" to an audience of approximately 300 people.

Tuesday, April 18: Finding Healing from Sexual Assault – I “Focus on the Family,” discussed with two women who shared honestly about their worst nightmare — being raped — and their long recovery from fear, depression, and feeling unworthy.

Wednesday, April 19: Finding Healing from Sexual Assault - II “Focus on the Family,” examined the horrors of sexual assault — and how survivors can find new hope and healing from God. Two women will share their miraculous stories of recovery and offer practical encouragement to other survivors and their caregivers.

Thursday, April 20: Being a Champion to your Grandkids “Focus on the Family,” Mr. Carey Casey shares about the critical importance of grandfathers in the lives of their grandkids. He addresses how to bridge the relational gap between the generations and how to model integrity to your grand children and leave a lasting, godly legacy.

April 24: Handling Your Emotions - In the busyness of everyday life, it's easy to wind up yelling at the kids, snapping at our spouse and letting emotions derail us. You don't have to be a slave to raw emotions. You can choose to stop reacting and learn to handle your emotions in a way that's healthy for you and your family

Tuesday, April 25: Handling Your Emotions-II as a working woman and mother of five, Lisa TerKeurst thought she had it all together...until she came unglued. Maybe you know the feeling. Maybe you have meltdowns, freak-outs and blow-ups ... and you can't seem to stop yourself. Lisa shared how she freed herself from this kind of destructive, emotional slavery

Tuesday, May 2: Helping Hurting Kids through Foster Care – I Hurting kids need a safe place to call home! “Focus on the Family,” shared about a challenging — yet rewarding — ministry opportunity for married couples ... becoming foster parents.

Wednesday, May 3: Helping Hurting Kids through Foster Care – II On “Focus on the Family,” we heard about one courageous couple who helped transform the lives of 24 different children through foster care. But their ministry wouldn't be possible without Christians pitching in to help! Learn how you can support foster parents in your community

Wednesday, May 10: Understanding the Scope of Human Trafficking. On “Focus on the Family,” Nita Belles shines a light on human trafficking, sharing stories of people rescued from terrible situations. She provides practical ways to help trafficked victims and gives you tools to effectively protect your children.

Monday, May 29: Honoring the Fallen on Memorial Day. They sacrificed — for your freedoms. On the next “Focus on the Family,” a special Memorial Day tribute to those who have given the ultimate sacrifice on the battlefield, so that we can enjoy life in America today. Jim Daly and John Fuller weave through your stories of loved ones who served our country — and died in the process.

Thursday - Friday, June 8 - 9: Finishing Strong – I & II Stuart and Jill Briscoe are in their eighties, but that doesn't keep them from pressing on and being productive. On "Focus on the Family," they encouraged you to maximize your golden years and to make eternal investments in your children, grandchildren and others.

Tuesday, June 20: Finding an Escape from Sexual Addiction – I On "Focus on the Family," a man describes his desperate 13 - year addiction to pornography. How it ensnared his heart, and led to a double life at school, & in dating relationships.
