

Section I: Issues

WHVO has identified the following topics as significant issues facing our community in this quarter:

1. Agriculture:
2. Education:
3. Economic Development:
4. Veteran & Military Affairs:
5. Employment Crisis:
6. Tourism:
7. Philanthropy:
8. Health/Wellness/Safety:
9. The Arts:
10. Voting/Election:

Section II: Responsive Programs

WHVO broadcast programming dealing with the various issues outlined in Section I of this list. The programming was aired on the dates and times as follows:

1. Agriculture:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-09-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Lyslee Cansler discussed the upcoming Halloween Ag Adventures by the FFA groups at CCHS and HHS on Oct. 19th. This will be at the Expo Center and is a FREE event for the family. They will have food for sale and that helps to keep the event going each year. This gives an opportunity for children to learn more about FFA while have a safe, fun evening.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-10-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Brooke Jung with Visit Hopkinsville shared about exciting events to enjoy throughout the city! The Christian County Bale Trail is up and available to tour, There is a disc golf tournament over the weekend and registration is still available, Hoptown Half & 5K are coming soon, so get registered today.

HTM- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-08-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Lauren Parent discussed upcoming MSU Racer Rodeo. The Murray State Rodeo club is the oldest and the only one in Kentucky. With over 50 students participating they continue their 48th year of competition. They will be accepting canned goods for their food drive and will help get admission in the rodeo. This is also a fundraiser for the organization.

Ag News Updates

Broadcast 65 times during the period 10-01-2023 thru 12-31-2023 at various times of the day: Duration 12:00 each. Ag prgrams run weekdays during the Noon news to educate listeners about the importance of agriculture in our region and the impact farming has on our economy.

2. Education:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-03-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Lancaster and Zirconia Vansauwa from Sanctuary, Inc. shared events and information for the Domestic Violence Awareness Month going on now. There is a proclamation declaring it DVA month at city council Oct. 3rd, they will be at the football game Friday night, Oct 6th for Chritian County, Sanctuary has shirts to raise funds and share awareness, Hoptown Half and 5K will be donating to Sanctuary as part of the Oct. 21st event and Sanctuary has infomarion and videos available on their social outlets. Domestic violence affects 1 in 4 women and 1 in 9 men.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-04-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Mari-Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville- Christian County Library shared updates and details about the latest Halloween and Big Read Events. They are also offering game day events and sewing and crochet/knitting classes.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-09-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Lyslee Cansler discussed the upcoming Halloween Ag Adventures by the FFA groups at CCHS and HHS on Oct. 19th. This will be at the Expo Center and is a FREE event for the family. They will have food for sale and that helps to keep the event going each year. This gives an opportunity for children to learn more about FFA while have a safe, fun evening.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-16-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Pat Hinton talked about the upcoming Halloween event at Hopkinsville Community College, who can participate, when it will be held, and other details. This is a chance to shine a light at several of the opportunities at HCC including the nursing and technical programs.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)2. Education (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-19-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Pastor Vice Killebrew discussed the Men2Be, Inc. Community Event for Fathers on Oct. 27th 5-8 at Clarion Pointe in Hopkinsville. Men2Be is a community group for young men to mentor and encourage them. They offer programs, tutoring, training and events to try and fill the gap for those in need.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-31-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. JoAshley Hall shared about the St Nick's Christmas Market at St Peter & Paul Church. There will be many vendors and food. Funds raise from the admission fee and booth rental will go to the Assist Program at the school.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-01-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Mari-Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville- Christian County Public Library shared updates on events and the new additions for November. They will be having a new 2 person performance of "Romeo & Juliet" and a Cookbook Sampler night featuring their large cookbook selection. A fundraiser is scheduled for a book sale to benefit the library.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-01-2023 at 6:45AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Chris Bentzel the Superintendent for The Christian Co Schools shared an update on the testing and scores results, how the scores are give, he updated on the building project and looked ahead to the holidays.

HTM- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-08-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Lauren Parent discussed upcoming MSU Racer Rodeo. The Murray State Rodeo club is the oldest and the only one in Kentucky. With over 50 students participating they continue their 48th year of competition. They will be accepting canned goods for their food drive and will help get admission in the rodeo. This is also a fundraiser for the organization.

HTM- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-08-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Terrance Davis of the Boys & Girls Club in Hopkinsville shared details about the Great Futures Raffle. This is a limited opportunity to get raffle tickets for exclusive bourbons. All proceeds benefit the club and helps with their continued expansion such as the Fab Lab, Greenhouse and more that helps them teach, train and encourage boys and girls throughout the community.

WHVO - Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-10-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Henry Snorton with the MEDI (Minority Economic Development Initiative) discussed the Power 5, Small Business Success Training Sessions that will be held virtually. This offers a low-cost event. MEDI supports ALL minority businesses in Christian County.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-14-2023 at 8:45AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Brett Pritchett with the Historic Museums of Hopkinsville-Christian County shared an update from the 80s fundraiser. Over $16,000 was raise to help fix the clock tower. Next month will be a special Supper Club that focuses on several countries' desserts for the holidays. The museum will have special holiday hours and encourages everyone to support local.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-22-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Royale Marfil with the Hopkinsville Police Department introduced Bolo, their Paws Patrol Dogs. This is a partnership with the Shelter to get animals adopted. He will visit with students and the community each day. She also shared about the Christmas events and toy drive that they are over the next month.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-27-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Judge Executive Jerry Gilliam shared about the software update across the state at the clerks offices. The update will close the offices for a few days. There is also going to be a remodel at the old court house to make the flow of business much easier.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)2. Education (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-30-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rev. Buddy Slaughters, Bro. David Tucker and David Wimpy shared about a partnership that Means Avenue Baptist and Second Baptist has formed to change lives and help future generations. They are providing house, training and discipleship for families to help them improve their lives and futures.

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-06-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Mary- Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville- Christian County Public Library shared about the last Hometown Heroes Story Time, Holiday Epic Hours, and fun for the holidays.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-07-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Dawn Ligibel discussed the Nativity on the 9th put on by Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic Church on December 15th & 16th. This is a FREE event for the family that portrays the town of Bethlehem with over 90 parishioners and live animals.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-15-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Taylor Hayes shared an update of the Chamber Breakfast, outreach to Ft Campbell and workforce education. Looking forward to 2024 the Chamber is working toward a great year serving the community and supporting the businesses in our area.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-21-2023 at 8:45AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Kristin Lily with the YMCA Hopkinsville shared about the boards game/game drive that they are having for their youth areas, Holiday Fun Night at the YMCA, YMCA membership and gift card options and end of the year giving options.

3. Economic Development:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-12-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Carter Hendricks, Director of the South West Ky EDC shared updates on the Ignite program and what it is trying to accomplish, the recent ground breaking in South Park, continued growth for the region and discussed the challenges in our area and across the US for workforce availability.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-20-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Taylor Hayes and Michael McCoy with the Christian County Chamber shared updates about the ribbon cuttings around the city, the upcoming CEO breakfast focusing on youth leadership and the Legislative Breakfast is scheduled for December.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-20-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Richie Acevedo with Hip Hoptown USA discussed his story for starting a business in Hopkinsville, the vision they have, current artist & upcoming events.

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-23-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Judge Jerry Gilliam shared about a budget amendment that is a $7 million economic grant and also a $2.5 million for the radio infrastructure, the mayor meeting is coming up where they will address the animal control. He also gave an update on the Hoptown half and 5K and invited everyone to Pink Out 2023.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-24-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight shared an update from the Hoptown Half and 5k and look forward to events such as the Spooky Stroll and Hoptown Downtown Trick or Treating. He encouraged listeners to support events and organizations including the Salvation Army. The Mayor discussed the Homeless Issues, Planning for the Waterpark, and demolition update for downtown. He praised the dedication of the Helicopter Memorial. J.R. encouraged everyone to support and attend the Pink Out 2023 event.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)3. Economic Development (Continued):*WHVO - Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-10-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Henry Snorton with the MEDI (Minority Economic Development Initiative) discussed the Power 5, Small Business Success Training Sessions that will be held virtually. This offers a low-cost event. MEDI supports ALL minority businesses in Christian County.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-15-2023 at 8:40AM; Duration: 15 Minutes. Richie Acevedo, Tim Emery and Alex Minandy shared about the Hip Hoptown Sound Studios and Art Exhibit in downtown Hoptown. This is a great local avenue for the wonderful talent throughout Hopkinsville.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-28-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 Minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight of Hopkinsville shared an update of the "Lot Next Door" program, holiday events, and the demolition of the Walnut Street Stadium.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-05-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa shared about ways to help Sanctuary, Inc, the domestic abuse center, this holiday and into the new year. They have special ornaments available that have been made and designed by a local artist and proceeds support Sanctuary, donations for Christmas needs can be made for those in the shelter, and they have a new program launching in January that teach work skills to clients and support local small businesses.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-14-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Carter Hendricks shared an update with the South West Economic Development Council. They are excited to look back at the year and the wonderful announcements of new industries, more job and career opportunities and growth. There have been many ribbon cuttings that mark huge investments in our region. He shared that the website has hundreds of job opportunities for those that are looking.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-15-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Taylor Hayes shared an update of the Chamber Breakfast, outreach to Ft Campbell and workforce education. Looking forward to 2024 the Chamber is working toward a great year serving the community and supporting the businesses in our area.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-18-2023 at 8:45AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Jerry Gilliam, Christian County Judge Executive, shared an update on the Christmas Parade turnout. He also shared about the upcoming Community Survey that will be available soon to get citizen input on the direction for the community. Input will help with the budget for 2024.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-20-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Henry Snorton with the Minority Economic Development Initiative- MEDI Annual Holiday Mixer that is a FREE event. This is especially for those home-based and small businesses as a Christmas Celebration. They will have music, food, a pop up shop and will be sharing honors with some local business owners.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-20-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Christina & Wes from Stella's Soap Co shared a partnership for donations to the Christian County Animal Shelter. Just bring pet food by and receive a discount at Stella's for giving. The shelter is in desperate need of food donations at this time.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-26-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Hopkinsville Mayor J.R. Knight shared an overview of projects from 2023 and looking ahead to more for 2024. He did share that the contract for the Walnut Street Stadium and that demolition will take place. Also they are moving forward with focusing on the L&N Depot.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)

3. Economic Development (Continued):

Ag News Updates

Broadcast 65 times during the period 10-01-2023 thru 12-31-2023 at various times of the day: Duration 12:00 each. Ag prgrams run weekdays during the Noon news to educate listeners about the importance of agriculture in our region and the impact farming has on our economy.

4. Veteran & Military Affairs:

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-16-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Ann Jarvis with the Ft Campbell USO shared about the Novemeber 11th Eagle Run Toys drive to benefit all the military families in Ft Campbell. Even if you don't get to attend, you can make donations to the toy drive at drop off locations. The USO has many events and programs for active duty veterans throughout our area. They are also getting ready for more deployments and some that will arrive home and that means needs for their bags for each service members. Donations may be made at any time to those needs.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-24-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight shared an update from the Hoptown Half and 5k and look forward to events such as the Spooky Stroll and Hoptown Downtown Trick or Treating. He encouraged listeners to support events and organizations including the Salvation Army. The Mayor discussed the Homeless Issues, Planning for the Waterpark, and demolition update for downtown. He praised the dedication of the Helicopter Memorial. J.R. encouraged everyone to support and attend the Pink Out 2023 event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-06-2023 at 8:31AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Tody Hudson and Rachel Sanders with the Hopkinsville Parks & Rec shared an update on the Halloween Downtown Event and gave details about the upcoming Veterans Parade, Turkey Trot, Tree Lighting and Christmas Parade.

WHVO

Broadcast on 11-10-2023 at 11:00AM; Duration: 1 hour. Bill Booth shared live coverage of the Cadiz Veterans Parade to honor those that have served our country.

WHVO

Broadcast on 11-11-2023 at 10:00AM; Duration: 1 hour. Bill Booth shared live coverage of the Hopkinsville Veterans Parade and ceremony held to honor those that have served our country.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-10-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Ann Jarvis with the Ft Campbell USO shared details about the Eagle Run Toy Drive to benefit Ft Campbell and how to celebrate and thank veterans this Veterans Day

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-06-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Mary- Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville- Christian County Public Library shared about the last Hometown Heroes Story Time, Holiday Epic Hours, and fun for the holidays.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-15-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Ann Jarvis shared about their Holiday event that allows parents to get toys and clothing for their children. Any remaining items will be donated to tornado victims. They are looking for additional volunteers and can always use donations.

5. Employment Crisis:

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-12-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Carter Hendricks, Director of the South West Ky EDC shared updates on the Ignite program and what it is trying to accomplish, the recent ground breaking in South Park, continued growth for the region and discussed the challenges in our area and across the US for workforce availability.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)5. Employment Crisis (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-20-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Taylor Hayes and Michael McCoy with the Christian County Chamber shared updates about the ribbon cuttings around the city, the upcoming CEO breakfast focusing on youth leadership and the Legislative Breakfast is scheduled for December.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-27-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. John Reed with JTEKT Hopkinsville shared why they were a sponsor of Pink Out 2023 and what it means to them. He also shared available job and career opportunities at JTEKT.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-05-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa shared about ways to help Sanctuary, Inc, the domestic abuse center, this holiday and into the new year. They have special ornaments available that have been made and designed by a local artist and proceeds support Sanctuary, donations for Christmas needs can be made for those in the shelter, and they have a new program launching in January that teach work skills to clients and support local small businesses.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-14-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Carter Hendricks shared an update with the South West Economic Development Council. They are excited to look back at the year and the wonderful announcements of new industries, more job and career opportunities and growth. There have been many ribbon cuttings that mark huge investments in our region. He shared that the website has hundreds of job opportunities for those that are looking.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-15-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Taylor Hayes shared an update of the Chamber Breakfast, outreach to Ft Campbell and workforce education. Looking forward to 2024 the Chamber is working toward a great year serving the community and supporting the businesses in our area.

6. Tourism:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-02-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Toby Hudson and Rachel Sanders from the Hopkinsville Parks & Recreation shared an update from a successful Senior Games and looked ahead at the Holiday Hooplah, Hoptown 5k and Half Marathon, and Halloween downtown. The Marathon weekend is also a fundraiser for Sanctuary, Inc and Christian Co Rescue. The fall bringing a lot of great opportunities to enjoy the area.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-04-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Charles and Diane Turner discussed the Torch Light Tales event coming to the Jeffers Bend October 21st. At this family-friendly event William Turner tells the Bell Witch Story. They will have hot chocolate and goodies for attendees. $5 a car load is the only fee and all proceeds benefit the continued improvements to Jeffers Bend. Before the story telling at 545, they will dedicate the brand new outdoor grilling area that is an addition to the area.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-04-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Mari-Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville- Christian County Library shared updates and details about the latest Halloween and Big Read Events. They are also offering game day events and sewing and crochet/knitting classes.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-06-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rachel Sanders discussed events that will be coming to the Sportsplex. We discussed Jr Pro and the cheering opportunities. There is lots of indoor sports available. The Holiday Hooplah still has vendor space and will be a great event to shop local. She also reminded that the Hoptown Half and 5K are coming and a pre race event will be at the Sportsplex October 20th.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)6. Tourism (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-10-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Margaret Prim, Executive Director of the Pennyroyal Arts Council, shared about the many events for the fall season! Campaniele has moved in the Alhambra to get ready for the community production "Young Frankenstein", The Big Read events continue and they have very successful, The LIVE season opens November 11th at the Alhambra, and Hoptown Hopfest tickets are available as Lonestar will be performing this year.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-10-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Brooke Jung with Visit Hopkinsville shared about exciting events to enjoy throughout the city! The Christian County Bale Trail is up and available to tour, There is a disc golf tournament over the weekend and registration is still available, Hoptown Half & 5K are coming soon, so get registered today.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-16-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Pat Hinton talked about the upcoming Halloween event at Hopkinsville Community College, who can participate, when it will be held, and other details. This is a chance to shine a light at several of the opportunities at HCC including the nursing and technical programs.

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-23-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Judge Jerry Gilliam shared about a budget amendment that is a $7 million economic grant and also a $2.5 million for the radio infrastructure, the mayor meeting is coming up where they will address the animal control. He also gave an update on the Hoptown half and 5K and invited everyone to Pink Out 2023.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-24-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight shared an update from the Hoptown Half and 5k and look forward to events such as the Spooky Stroll and Hoptown Downtown Trick or Treating. He encouraged listeners to support events and organizations including the Salvation Army. The Mayor discussed the Homeless Issues, Planning for the Waterpark, and demolition update for downtown. He praised the dedication of the Helicopter Memorial. J.R. encouraged everyone to support and attend the Pink Out 2023 event.

WHVO

Broadcast on 10-31-2023 at 3:00AM; Duration: 2 hours. Kimberly Allen shared live reports from the Downtown Halloween event in Hopkinsville. FREE candy and more for all the community. The event is held in order to provide a safe space for children to trick or treat.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-03-2023 at 8:32AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rachel Sanders gave an update on the Holiday Hooplah and discussed the upcoming Jr Pro and indoor soccer leagues at the Planters Bank- JSH Sportsplex.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-06-2023 at 8:31AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Tody Hudson and Rachel Sanders with the Hopkinsville Parks & Rec shared an update on the Halloween Downtown Event and gave details about the upcoming Veterans Parade, Turkey Trot, Tree Lighting and Christmas Parade.

HTM- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-08-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Hoptown Hoppers New Baseball Coach Jared Brisendon shared his story of coming to the Hoppers, his goals for the season and how the community can support now.

HTM- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-08-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Lauren Parent discussed upcoming MSU Racer Rodeo. The Murray State Rodeo club is the oldest and the only one in Kentucky. With over 50 students participating they continue their 48th year of competition. They will be accepting canned goods for their food drive and will help get admission in the rodeo. This is also a fundraiser for the organization.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)6. Tourism (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-14-2023 at 8:45AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Brett Pritchett with the Historic Museums of Hopkinsville-Christian County shared an update from the 80s fundraiser. Over $16,000 was raised to help fix the clock tower. Next month will be a special Supper Club that focuses on several countries' desserts for the holidays. The museum will have special holiday hours and encourages everyone to support local.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-17-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Zoe Edwards with the Pennyroyal Center shared about the Christian County Festival of Trees. This is a FREE event that features beautiful themed trees that business and organizations have decorated for raffle. All raffle proceeds go to the Pennyroyal Center that serves the 9 surrounding counties.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-23-2023 at 7:30AM; Duration: 1 Hour. Kimberly Allen shared live reports from Founder's Square and Downtown Hoptown for the 22nd Annual Turkey Trot. This is a FREE event for all. They do offer shirts for purchase that goes right back to up keep the Greenway Rail Trail. This event started with a few people to now several thousand participating.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-24-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Margaret Primn with the Pennyroyal Arts Council shared about the unique gifts that they offer this holiday season. She also talked about Jazz On Stage Series, the Live Series, Movies at the Alhambra and the upcoming fundraiser- Hoptown Holiday Fest with Lone Star.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-27-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Grey with the Joy Closet shared about the needs for the holidays and the Christmas Scavenger Hunt. She also revealed the date for the Mother/Son Nerf Wars and that tickets will be available for stocking stuffers.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-28-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 Minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight of Hopkinsville shared an update of the "Lot Next Door" program, holiday events, and the demolition of the Walnut Street Stadium.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-01-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rachel Sanders with the Planters Bank- Jennie Stuart Health Sportsplex shared about their Soccer and Basketball programs that are in full swing and the upcoming Turf Cup. She also encouraged everyone to enjoy the Holiday events with the Tree Lighting and Christmas Parade

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-04-2023 at 8:40AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Toby Hudson and Rachel Sanders with the Hopkinsville Parks and Recreation shared about the holiday events for Hopkinsville that includes the Tree Lighting on December 8th, The Christmas Parade December 9th and the Santa visiting Hoptown December 17th.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-07-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Dawn Ligibel discussed the Nativity on the 9th put on by Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic Church on December 15th & 16th. This is a FREE event for the family that portrays the town of Bethlehem with over 90 parishioners and live animals.

WHVO

Broadcast on 12-16-2023 at 5:15PM; Duration: 2 hours. Eddie and Kim Shared full coverage of the HES/Energy Hopkinsville Christmas Parade from downtown. This is a huge holiday event for the community with over 100 entries and prizes are awarded.

7. Philanthropy:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-03-2023 at 8:40AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Raychel Farmer shared details about the upcoming Human Rights Commission's 49th Annual Unity Breakfast on Oct. 26th. Tickets are still available. Nominations for the awards closed and the committee is deciding now. Proceeds benefit the Human Rights Commission that strives for equality for all in the community.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)7. Philanthropy (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-03-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Lancaster and Zirconia Vansauwa from Sanctuary, Inc. shared events and information for the Domestic Violence Awareness Month going on now. There is a proclamation declaring it DVA month at city council Oct. 3rd, they will be at the football game Friday night, Oct 6th for Christian County, Sanctuary has shirts to raise funds and share awareness, Hoptown Half and 5K will be donating to Sanctuary as part of the Oct. 21st event and Sanctuary has information and videos available on their social outlets. Domestic violence affects 1 in 4 women and 1 in 9 men.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-04-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Charles and Diane Turner discussed the Torch Light Tales event coming to the Jeffers Bend October 21st. At this family-friendly event William Turner tells the Bell Witch Story. They will have hot chocolate and goodies for attendees. $5 a car load is the only fee and all proceeds benefit the continued improvements to Jeffers Bend. Before the story telling at 545, they will dedicate the brand new outdoor grilling area that is an addition to the area.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-12-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kelly Martin discussed the Fish Fry Fundraiser to benefit The Christian County Senior Citizens Center on the 19th. Funds help to support the programs for Senior that include meals, bingo, exercise and more. Tickets can be bought at the door and carry out is available.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-17-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas with the Salvation Army in Hopkinsville shared deadlines for registering for the Angel Tree that supports 0-12 and 62 and older in need. They ask that those shopping not only provide toys, but clothing and needs for the colder months. She also shared how to adopt an Angel and how to register to ring for the kettle program. The family thrift store has adjusted hours to 11-4 weekdays and have discounts each day of the week.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-18-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Payton M. Rogers Lt. Inspector/Public Information Officer Hopkinsville Fire Department shared about their t-shirt fund raiser for the Pink Ribbon Network, Fire safety month and the upcoming Downtown Halloween in Hoptown.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-18-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Randy & Beth Morris with the Hopkinsville Lions Club discussed the upcoming Pancake Breakfast, Saturday, Oct. 28th. Funds raised stay in Christian County to help with Screening, glasses and more for those in the community. Eye glasses may also be donated at the event or around Hopkinsville.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-23-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Gray with Joy Closet shared an update about the Hoptown Ninja Warrior event and the need of volunteers and how to become a volunteer. She also discussed the holiday wish list on Amazon which is now available to help provide Christmas to the foster children.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-24-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight shared an update from the Hoptown Half and 5k and look forward to events such as the Spooky Stroll and Hoptown Downtown Trick or Treating. He encouraged listeners to support events and organizations including the Salvation Army. The Mayor discussed the Homeless Issues, Planning for the Waterpark, and demolition update for downtown. He praised the dedication of the Helicopter Memorial. J.R. encouraged everyone to support and attend the Pink Out 2023 event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-24-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Ann Isom, Kathy Anderson and Lisa Cunningham shared about the Pink Ribbon Network. They shared about their own journey with cancer, why they started Pink Ribbon Network, what the Network does and shared how people can support or reach out to them if they have a need.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)7. Philanthropy (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-25-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Cody Brown with White's Auto Mall Hopkinsville shared why they were a sponsor of Pink Out 2023 and what it means to them.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-31-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Jen Marszalek & Cody Brown shared about the Food Lion Feeds Food Drive with White's Auto Mall. November 6th will kick off a time to collect food for Aaron McNeil House, Sanctuary, Inc, Salvation Army and Micah Mission.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-31-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. JoAshley Hall shared about the St Nick's Christmas Market at St Peter & Paul Church. There will be many vendors and food. Funds raise from the admission fee and booth rental will go to the Assist Program at the school.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-01-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Linda Compton and Trey Brogan shared about the upcoming Food Lion Feeds Food Drive with White's Auto Mall. The non perishable goods will be dispersed between the Salvation Army, Micah Mission, Aaron McNeil House and Sanctuary, INC

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-01-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Mari-Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville- Christian County Public Library shared updates on events and the new additions for November. They will be having a new 2 person performance of "Romeo & Juliet" and a Cookbook Sampler night featuring their large cookbook selection. A fundraiser is scheduled for a book sale to benefit the library.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-02-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Brandon Killebrew with Pro-Lift Garage Doors shared about the KidLift program to benefit children in our community. They are doing a one day Snack Drive at the chamber's parking lot. All snacks donated will go to the Challenge Houses that are throughout the community to provide for the youth in Christian County.

WHVO

Broadcast on 10-27-2023 at 3:00AM; Duration: 2 hours. Kimberly Allen shared live reports and coverage of the Pink Out 2023. This 14th annual event takes time to encourage all to get their screening, supports those fighting cancer and remembers those that we have lost. Local Mayors and Judge Executives share proclamations and more. All proceeds benefit the Pink Ribbon Network. We raised over $6000.

HTM- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-08-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Lauren Parent discussed upcoming MSU Racer Rodeo. The Murray State Rodeo club is the oldest and the only one in Kentucky. With over 50 students participating they continue their 48th year of competition. They will be accepting canned goods for their food drive and will help get admission in the rodeo. This is also a fundraiser for the organization.

HTM- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-08-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Terrance Davis of the Boys & Girls Club in Hopkinsville shared details about the Great Futures Raffle. This is a limited opportunity to get raffle tickets for exclusive bourbons. All proceeds benefit the club and helps with their continued expansion such as the Fab Lab, Greenhouse and more that helps them teach, train and encourage boys and girls throughout the community.

HTM- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-08-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Linda Compton with Food Lion gave an update about the ongoing Food Lion Feeds Food Drive with White's Auto Mall. They have already had a pallet of food donated and more continues each day. ALL donations help the 3 organizations locally fight food insecurity.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-10-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Ann Jarvis with the Ft Campbell USO shared details about the Eagle Run Toy Drive to benefit Ft Campbell and how to celebrate and thank veterans this Veterans Day

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)7. Philanthropy (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-13-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Nikki Chambers, with the Kiwanis Club of Hopkinsville, shared about collecting donations for the "Warm The Children" project. This is when the end of November 250 children will get to shop for coats and warm clothes for the winter. Donations are taken year around for this project.

Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-13-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Anita Cummings with the Hopkinsville Art Guild discussed the up coming Holiday Pop-up Bazaar with over 20 local artisians that have unique, one-of-a-kind art, pottery, crafts and more. New members are always welcome and they work hard to promote the arts throughout out community.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-14-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Linda Compton and Trey Brogan shared updates about the Food Lion Feeds program. Over 3000 boxes have been purchased. Today will be a fill the cruiser push with the Hopkinsville Police Department. Monetary and non perishable donations can be made at Food Lion in Hopkinsville or and White's Auto Mall location.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-14-2023 at 8:45AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Brett Pritchett with the Historic Museums of Hopkinsville-Christian County shared an update from the 80s fundraiser. Over $16,000 was raise to help fix the clock tower. Next month will be a special Supper Club that focuses on several countries' desserts for the holidays. The museum will have special holiday hours and encourages everyone to support local.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-17-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Zoe Edwards with the Pennyroyal Center shared about the Christian County Festival of Trees. This is a FREE event that features beautiful themed trees that business and organizations have decorated for raffle. All raffle proceeds go to the Pennyroyal Center that serves the 9 surrounding counties.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-20-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. David Chiles with the Jeffer's Bend shared about the Christmas at the Bend. This event offers family fun for all ages, holiday fun and an opportunity to decorate cards for area nursing home residents. There will be treats, pictures with Santa, crafts and more.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-20-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Cindy Tabor, Ombudsmon, discussed the Forgotten Angels Project. This helps to provide some gifts for those that many times do not have visits, gifts or cards during the holidays.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-21-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas, with the Hopkinsville Salvation Army, shared about the Kettle Kick Off today, Angel tree locations and information and about ways to support the Salvation Army this season.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-21-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Kristin Lilly with the Hopkinsville YMCA shared about YMCA Blessing Boxes that help provide meals for the holidays to familes, Fall Sports update, new programs for 2024 and details about the "Giving Tree" to help provide for those in need.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-22-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Tony Winfield with the Western State Hospital shared about their needs for the holidays. They do not get a budget to provide any gifts and all donations are welcome. This helps the residents and nursing home facilities.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)7. Philanthropy (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-22-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Royale Marfil with the Hopkinsville Police Department introduced Bolo, their Paws Patrol Dogs. This is a partnership with the Shelter to get animals adopted. He will visit with students and the community each day. She also shared about the Christmas events and toy drive that they are over the next month.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-24-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Margaret Primn with the Pennyroyal Arts Council shared about the unique gifts that they offer this holiday season. She also talked about Jazz On Stage Series, the Live Series, Movies at the Alhambra and the upcoming fundraiser- Hoptown Holiday Fest with Lone Star.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-27-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Grey with the Joy Closet shared about the needs for the holidays and the Christmas Sacavenger Hunt. She also revealed the date for the Mother/Son Nerf Wars and that tickets will be available for stocking stuffers.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-27-2023 at 8:40AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Taylor Evans discussed upcoming Junior Auxillary Charity Ball on December 2nd. This event is at a new location at the War Memorial Building and will benefit the Hopkinsville Boxing Club. They will have music, food, bar and auction to support the community organization.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-28-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kristen Lilly with the YMCA shared an update on how the YMCA has served over the last year and how on Giving Tuesday the community can help make an even bigger impact!

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-29-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Nathan Stewart, with the Hopkinsville Fire Department, shared about how we can help with their "Christmas For Kids" program. A few more children remain. They team up with the Hopkinsville Salvation Army to make sure that children in need have a Christmas. We also discussed fire safety during the holidays and how to stay safe and plan in an emergency.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-05-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa shared about ways to help Sanctuary, Inc, the domestic abuse center, this holiday and into the new year. They have special ornaments available that have been made and designed by a local artist and proceeds support Sanctuary, donations for Christmas needs can be made for those in the shelter, and they have a new program launching in January that teach work skills to clients and support local small businesses.

WHVO- Hoptow This Morning

Broadcast on 12-13-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Royale Marfil with the Hopkinsville Police department shared about the Toy Run benefiting the Christmas Morning Miracle and Shop with A Cop programs this Saturday, she shared safety tips for the holidays and shared some details about Santa coming to Hoptown soon.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-13-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Heather Gray of Joy Closet shared an update on the Christmas Scavenger Hunt that serve 200 children and 66 families! They do have some last minute needs for Joy CLoaset and they are excited to announce the sale of their Mother/Son Nerf War tickets just in time for holiday gift giving.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-15-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Ann Jarvis shared about their Holiday event that allows parents to get toys and clothing for their children. Any remaining items will be donated to tornado victims. They are looking for additional volunteers and can always use donations.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)7. Philanthropy (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-19-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas with the Salvation Army in Hopkinsville shared an update about the Angel Tree. 312 families and over 600 individuals were served this year. She also shared about the status from the kettle ringing. They are $10,000 behind last year but they have well surpassed last year's volunteer hours. They are at 690 hours with time still to volunteer. They could always use volunteers in the new year and encourage people to remember them during their end of year giving.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-20-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Christina & Wes from Stella's Soap Co shared a partnership for donations to the Christian County Animal Shelter. Just bring pet food by and receive a discount at Stella's for giving. The shelter is in desperate need of food donations at this time.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-21-2023 at 8:45AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Kristin Lily with the YMCA Hopkinsville shared about the board game/game drive that they are having for their youth areas, Holiday Fun Night at the YMCA, YMCA membership and gift card options and end of the year giving options.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-22-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Trey Brogan with Food Lion shared an update on the Food Lion Feeds program this season. They brought more boxes in for this week since the community already purchased over 3 pallets of food. Food and donations go to Impact, Aaron McNeil House and Micah Missions.

8. Health/Wellness/Safety:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-02-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Toby Hudson and Rachel Sanders from the Hopkinsville Parks & Recreation shared an update from a successful Senior Games and looked ahead at the Holiday Hooplah, Hoptown 5k and Half Marathon, and Halloween downtown. The Marathon weekend is also a fundraiser for Sanctuary, Inc and Christian Co Rescue. The fall bringing a lot of great opportunities to enjoy the area.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-03-2023 at 8:40AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Raychel Farmer shared details about the upcoming Human Rights Commission's 49th Annual Unity Breakfast on Oct. 26th. Tickets are still available. Nominations for the awards closed and the committee is deciding now. Proceeds benefit the Human Rights Commission that strives for equality for all in the community.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-03-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Lancaster and Zirconia Vansauwa from Sanctuary, Inc. shared events and information for the Domestic Violence Awareness Month going on now. There is a proclamation declaring it DVA month at city council Oct. 3rd, they will be at the football game Friday night, Oct 6th for Christian County, Sanctuary has shirts to raise funds and share awareness, Hoptown Half and 5K will be donating to Sanctuary as part of the Oct. 21st event and Sanctuary has information and videos available on their social outlets. Domestic violence affects 1 in 4 women and 1 in 9 men.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-06-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rachel Sanders discussed events that will be coming to the Sportsplex. We discussed Jr Pro and the cheering opportunities. There is lots of indoor sports available. The Holiday Hooplah still has vendor space and will be a great event to shop local. She also reminded that the Hoptown Half and 5K are coming and a pre race event will be at the Sportsplex October 20th.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)8. Health/Wellness/Safety (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-10-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Brooke Jung with Visit Hopkinsville shared about exciting events to enjoy throughout the city! The Christian County Bale Trail is up and available to tour, There is a disc golf tournament over the weekend and registration is still available, Hoptown Half & 5K are coming soon, so get registered today.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-12-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kelly Martin discussed the Fish Fry Fundraiser to benefit The Christian County Senior Citizens Center on the 19th. Funds help to support the programs for Senior that include meals, bingo, exercise and more. Tickets can be bought at the door and carry out is available.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-17-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas with the Salvation Army in Hopkinsville shared deadlines for registering for the Angel Tree that supports 0-12 and 62 and older in need. They ask that those shopping not only provide toys, but clothing and needs for the colder months. She also shared how to adopt an Angel and how to register to ring for the kettle program. The family thrift store has adjusted hours to 11-4 weekdays and have discounts each day of the week.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-17-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kristin Lilly with the YMCA of Hopkinsville discussed details about the fall programs for youth such as archery and cheering. The tutoring and the feeding programs are going strong with continued growth and need of volunteers. They have an Election Day Mini Camp in November for youth during the days schools are out for the election. The Thankful Tree is returning this year and is a way for the community to provide for those that may not be able to participate in programs due to cost. They are once again offering the HO-HO- Hold Down Your Weight program to assist during the holidays. New members are always welcomed to the YMCA.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-18-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Payton M. Rogers Lt. Inspector/Public Information Officer Hopkinsville Fire Department shared about their t-shirt fund raiser for the Pink Ribbon Network, Fire safety month and the upcoming Downtown Halloween in Hoptown.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-18-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Randy & Beth Morris with the Hopkinsville Lions Club discussed the upcoming Pancake Breakfast, Saturday, Oct. 28th. Funds raised stay in Christian County to help with Screening, glasses and more for those in the community. Eye glasses may also be donated at the event or around Hopkinsville.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-19-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Pastor Vice Killebrew discussed the Men2Be, Inc. Community Event for Fathers on Oct. 27th 5-8 at Clarion Pointe in Hopkinsville. Men2Be is a community group for young men to mentor and encourage them. They offer programs, tutoring, training and events to try and fill the gap for those in need.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-23-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Gray with Joy Closet shared an update about the Hoptown Ninja Warrior event and the need of volunteers and how to become a volunteer. She also discussed the holiday wish list on Amazon which is now available to help provide Christmas to the foster children.

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-23-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Judge Jerry Gilliam shared about a budget amendment that is a $7 million economic grant and also a $2.5 million for the radio infrastructure, the mayor meeting is coming up where they will address the animal control. He also gave an update on the Hoptown half and 5K and invited everyone to Pink Out 2023.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)8. Health/Wellness/Safety (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-24-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight shared an update from the Hoptown Half and 5k and look forward to events such as the Spooky Stroll and Hoptown Downtown Trick or Treating. He encouraged listeners to support events and organizations including the Salvation Army. The Mayor discussed the Homeless Issues, Planning for the Waterpark, and demolition update for downtown. He praised the dedication of the Helicopter Memorial. J.R. encouraged everyone to support and attend the Pink Out 2023 event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-24-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Ann Isom, Kathy Anderson and Lisa Cunningham shared about the Pink Ribbon Network. They shared about their own journey with cancer, why they started Pink Ribbon Network, what the Network does and shared how people can support or reach out to them if they have a need.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-27-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Dr. Eric Putty shared about the importance of getting regular screenings and watching health care concerns. He shared recommended ages for particular screenings.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-27-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. John Reed with JTEKT Hopkinsville shared why they were a sponsor of Pink Out 2023 and what it means to them. He also shared available job and career opportunities at JTEKT.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-25-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Cody Brown with White's Auto Mall Hopkinsville shared why they were a sponsor of Pink Out 2023 and what it means to them.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-31-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Jen Marszalek & Cody Brown shared about the Food Lion Feeds Food Drive with White's Auto Mall. November 6th will kick off a time to collect food for Aaron McNeil House, Sanctuary, Inc, Salvation Army and Micah Mission.

WHVO

Broadcast on 10-31-2023 at 3:00AM; Duration: 2 hours. Kimberly Allen shared live reports from the Downtown Halloween event in Hopkinsville. FREE candy and more for all the community. The event is held in order to provide a safe space for children to trick or treat.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-01-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Linda Compton and Trey Brogan shared about the upcoming Food Lion Feeds Food Drive with White's Auto Mall. The non perishable goods will be dispersed between the Salvation Army, Micah Mission, Aaron McNeil House and Sanctuary, INC

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-02-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Brandon Killebrew with Pro-Lift Garage Doors shared about the KidLift program to benefit children in our community. They are doing a one day Snack Drive at the chamber's parking lot. All snacks donated will go to the Challenge Houses that are throughout the community to provide for the youth in Christian County.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-03-2023 at 8:32AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rachel Sanders gave an update on the Holiday Hooplah and discussed the upcoming Jr Pro and indoor soccer leagues at the Planters Bank- JSH Sportsplex.

WHVO

Broadcast on 10-27-2023 at 3:00AM; Duration: 2 hours. Kimberly Allen shared live reports and coverage of the Pink Out 2023. This 14th annual event takes time to encourage all to get their screening, supports those fighting cancer and remembers those that we have lost. Local Mayors and Judge Executives share proclamations and more. All proceeds benefit the Pink Ribbon Network. We raised over $6000.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)8. Health/Wellness/Safety (Continued):*HTM- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-08-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Linda Compton with Food Lion gave an update about the ongoing Food Lion Feeds Food Drive with White's Auto Mall. They have already had a pallet of food donated and more continues each day. ALL donations help the 3 organizations locally fight food insecurity.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-13-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Nikki Chambers, with the Kiwanis Club of Hopkinsville, shared about collecting donations for the "Warm The Children" project. This is when the end of November 250 children will get to shop for coats and warm clothes for the winter. Donations are taken year around for this project.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-14-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Linda Compton and Trey Brogan shared updates about the Food Lion Feeds program. Over 3000 boxes have been purchased. Today will be a fill the cruiser push with the Hopkinsville Police Department. Monetary and non perishable donations can be made at Food Lion in Hopkinsville or and White's Auto Mall location.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-20-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Cindy Tabor, Ombudsmon, discussed the Forgotten Angels Project. This helps to provide some gifts for those that many times do not have visits, gifts or cards during the holidays.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-21-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas, with the Hopkinsville Salvation Army, shared about the Kettle Kick Off today, Angel tree locations and information and about ways to support the Salvation Army this season.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-21-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Kristin Lilly with the Hopkinsville YMCA shared about YMCA Blessing Boxes that help provide meals for the holidays to familes, Fall Sports update, new programs for 2024 and details about the "Giving Tree" to help provide for those in need.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-23-2023 at 7:30AM; Duration: 1 Hour. Kimberly Allen shared live reports from Founder's Square and Downtown Hoptown for the 22nd Annual Turkey Trot. This is a FREE event for all. They do offer shirts for purchase that goes right back to up keep the Greenway Rail Trail. This event started with a few people to now several thousand participating.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-24-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Dr Eric Putty addresses the Tik Tok videos that do not accurately show what chiropractors do. He shared what is appropriate care and what to look for in a doctor.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-28-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 Minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight of Hopkinsivlle shared an update of the "Lot Next Door" program, holiday events, and the demolition of the Walnut Stret Stadium.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-28-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kristen Lilly with the YMCA shared an update on how the YMCA has served over the last year and how on Giving Tuesday the community can help make an even bigger impact!

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-29-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Nathan Stewart, with the Hopkinsville Fire Department, shared about how we can help with their "Christmas For Kids" program. A few more children remain. They team up with the Hopkinsville Salvation Army to make sure that children in need have a Christmas. We also discussed fire safety during the holidays and how to stay safe and plan in an emergency.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)8. Health/Wellness/Safety (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-30-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rev. Buddy Slaughters, Bro. David Tucker and David Wimpy shared about a partnership that Means Avenue Baptist and Second Baptist has formed to change lives and help future generations. They are providing house, training and discipleship for families to help them improve their lives and futures.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-01-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rachel Sanders with the Planters Bank- Jennie Stuart Health Sportsplex shared about their Soccer and Basketball programs that are in full swing and the upcoming Turf Cup. She also encouraged everyone to enjoy the Holiday events with the Tree Lightig and Christmas Parade

WHVO- Hoptow This Morning

Broadcast on 12-13-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Royale Marfil with the Hopkinsville Police department shared about the Toy Run benefiting the Christmas Morning Miracle and Shop with A Cop programs this Saturday, she shared safety tips for the holidays and shared some details about Santa coming to Hoptown soon.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-13-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Heather Gray of Joy Closet shared an update on the Christmas Scavenger Hunt that serve 200 children and 66 families! They do have some last minute needs for Joy CLoset and they are excited to announce the sale of their Mother/Son Nerf War tickets just in time for holiday gift giving.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-19-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas with the Salvation Army in Hopkinsville shared an update about the Angel Tree. 312 familes and over 600 individuals were served this year. She also shared about the status from the kettle ringing. They are $10,000 behind last year but they have well surpassed last years volunteer hours. They are at 690 hours with time still to volunteer. They could always use volunteers in the new year and encourage people to remember them during their end of year giving.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-21-2023 at 8:45AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Kristin Lily with the YMCA Hopkinsville shared about the boards game/game drive that they are having for their youth areas, Holiday Fun Night at the YMCA, YMCA membership and gift card options and end of the year giving options.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-22-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Trey Brogan with Food Lion shared an update on the Food Lion Feeds program this season. They brought more boxes in for this week since the community already purchased over 3 pallets of food. Food and donations goes to Impact, Aaron McNeil House and Micah Missions.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-26-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Hopkinsville Mayor J.R. Knight shared an overview of projects from 2023 and looking ahead to more for 2024. He did share that the contract for the Walnut Street Stadium and that demolition will take place. Also they are moving forward with focusing on the L&N Depot.

9. The Arts:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-10-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Margaret Prim, Executive Director of the Pennyroyal Arts Council, shared about the many events for the fall season! Campaniele has moved in the Alhambra to get ready for the community production "Young Frankenstein", The Big Read events continue and they have very successful, The LIVE season opens November 11th at the Alhambra, and Hoptown Hopfest tickets are available as Lonestar will be performing this year.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)9. The Arts (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-10-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. John Franklin of Christian County Baptist Association and Kyle Rader shared about the 100 Year Anniversary celebration for the Christian County Baptist Association. There will be a special speaker to share in the history of the CCBA and music on October 22 at the First Baptist Church. There will also be a large community choir to celebrate.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-10-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Jeffery Riggs, Turner Vaughn and Matthew Couch discussed the upcoming program for Campanile "Young Frankenstein" on Oct. 18th - 22nd. They are a community performance group that continues to keep the love of the theatre alive for over 14 years. They have a pay-what-you-can night and performances.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-20-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Richie Acevedo with Hip Hoptown USA discussed his story for starting a business in Hopkinsville, the vision they have, current artist & upcoming events.

Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-13-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Anita Cummings with the Hopkinsville Art Guild discussed the up coming Holiday Pop-up Bazaar with over 20 local artisians that have unique, one-of-a-kind art, pottery, crafts and more. New members are always welcome and they work hard to promote the arts throughout out community.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-15-2023 at 8:40AM; Duration: 15 Minutes. Richie Acevedo, Tim Emery and Alex Minandy shared about the Hip Hoptown Sound Studios and Art Exhibit in downtown Hoptown. This is a great local avenue for the wonderful talent throughtout Hopkinsville.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-20-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. David Chiles with the Jeffer's Bend shared about the Christmas at the Bend. This event offers family fun for all ages, holiday fun and an opportunity to decorate cards for area nursing home residents. There will be treats, pictures with Santa, crafts and more.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-24-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Margaret Primn with the Pennyroyal Arts Council shared about the unique gifts that they offer this holiday season. She also talked about Jazz On Stage Series, the Live Series, Movies at the Alhambra and the upcoming fundraiser- Hoptown Holiday Fest with Lone Star.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 12-08-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Matt Crook, Worship Pastor Second Baptist Church Hopkinsville shared about the Christmas musical "Believe" There will be two concerts on Sat & Sun, 9th & 10th at 6 pm in the newly renovated sanctuary. This is the first SBC Christmas concert offering to this production level in years.

10. Voting/Election:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-02-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Nikki Chambers & Mona Sheth from the League of Women Voters discussed the upcoming election. They shared about ways to register, dates for voting, voting locations, and ways to learn about candidates. The League of Women Voters is for all races, genders and backgrounds and welcomes anyone to attend their meeting and get involved.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)

10. Voting/Election (Continued):

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-17-2023 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kristin Lilly with the YMCA of Hopkinsville discussed details about the fall programs for youth such as archery and cheering. The tutoring and the feeding programs are going strong with continued growth and need of volunteers. They have an Election Day Mini Camp in November for youth during the days schools are out for the election. The Thankful Tree is returning this year and is a way for the community to provide for those that may not be able to participate in programs due to cost. They are once again offering the HO-HO- Hold Down Your Weight program to assist during the holidays. New members are always welcomed to the YMCA.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 10-20-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Taylor Hayes and Michael McCoy with the Christian County Chamber shared updates about the ribbon cuttings around the city, the upcoming CEO breakfast focusing on youth leadership and the Legislative Breakfast is scheduled for December.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 11-02-2023 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Nikki Chambers with the League of Women Voters shared early voting details, where to vote and election day details as well. All are encouraged to vote this election.

WHVO

Broadcast on 11-07-2023 at 6:00PM; Duration: 3 hours. LIVE and complete coverage from around the region for the general election. Teams reported from Todd, Trigg, Christian, Caldwell, Lyon Co and statewide.