

Section I: Issues

WHVO has identified the following topics as significant issues facing our community in this quarter:

1. Education:
2. Economic Development:
3. Veteran & Military Affairs:
4. Tourism:
5. Philanthropy:
6. Health/Wellness/Safety:
7. The Arts:
8. Government Affairs:
9. Equality:

Section II: Responsive Programs

WHVO broadcast programming dealing with the various issues outlined in Section I of this list. The programming was aired on the dates and times as follows:

1. Education:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-03-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Mari-Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville- Christian County Library shared about the Book Clubs returning, the upcoming Epic Hours and the Sip N Paint. She also encouraged everyone to us all their resources like audio books and the Makers Center.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-01-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-02-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-03-2024 at 8:40AM; and on 01-04-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration 8 minutes. The 2023 Year In Review took a look each day at each quarter of the year looking back at the issues, events and activities.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-03-2024 at 6:45AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Superintendent Chris Bentzel with the Christian County Schools gave an update on the progress on the new school. The project is moving along ahead of schedule. He shared about Winter Weather Procedures for the school system and they are hosting the first ever Holiday Hoops tournament.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-09-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Margaret Prim, Executive Director of the Pennyroyal Arts Council shared a look back from last year, updates on planning for the NEXT season, the Jazz on Stage series continues, and there are still season tickets left for the Live series. They are excited to welcome back the Missoula Children's Theatre for auditions and Campinelle will come in March for their production of Cinderella.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-09-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Jim Bartoo shared about the ZOO Luminations that will continue through February 4th. This exhibit is after dark and features 100s of beautiful lanterns and creations. They will be having a food drive on February 2 for the Second Harvest Food Bank and donors get free tickets to the zoo, they will have a Puppy Bowl on February 11th and they have a 5k run/walk coming up on February 17th that is a great way to get some exercise, see parts of the zoo most never do and support the zoo.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-11-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Carter Hendricks, Director for the South West Ky EDC shared highlights from 2023. A full report will be shared soon with the community. He also gave details on special events coming such as their job fairs with high school students and the general public. Carter encouraged anyone looking for a job or career to check out their website which has many options available across the region.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-16-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kimberly Bush shared about the February 10th Gala at the Silo. Tickets are available now and all proceeds benefit the Sts. Peter & Paul School as they remodel the older bathrooms in the facility. There will be a full dinner and music with the Jimmy Church Band. Auction items will be available online to support the fundraiser as well.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-17-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Kelly Gates, Hopkinsville Rotary Auction Chair, shared this year's auction theme, dates to look forward to, how to help now, and where the money goes in the community.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-18-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Henry Snorton with MEDI, Inc discussed the upcoming event this Saturday. This is a FREE Small Business Training Workshop that has limited spaces. They will focus on the 3 things you have to have to succeed and share how to plan for your business.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)1. Education (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-19-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Chandler Ladd with the Christian County Chamber of Commerce shared about the upcoming Chamber Breakfast focusing on Workforce and Education. Tickets are still available. She also shared details about future events like the Cyber Security Lunch and Learn in February, the Women's Summit in March, and the Small Business Awards in April.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-22-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Gray with the Joy Closet shared about their monthly open houses for community members to learn more about what they do, Eagle Fly mentor training will continue, Mother/son nerf War tickets are still available and the Hope House project is still moving forward.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-24-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Christian County 4-H Agent Katie Mills shared about the upcoming 4-H camp in May, programs that they offer in Christian County, and how to get involved in 4-H.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-26-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Sarah Whitaker, owner of Williams Advertising, LLC discussed the upcoming Seed Summit by Planters Bank on February 12th. This event is for any who are thinking about starting a business or if they are a current small business owner. All proceeds of the ticket cost will go to the United Way. The event is a full day of sessions and networking at the Bruce.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-29-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Toby Hudson and Nikki Chambers shared information about the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast coming up, a fundraiser for the organization. Their goal is to help children throughout Christian County. The funds raised will help the Warm The Children effort, Key Cubs and scholarships.

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-30-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Mary Rachel Leach, Hopkinsville Community College Employer Engagement Liaison discussed the HOPFAME program at the college and a chance to learn more at the open house February 13th.

WHVO - Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-31-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Alissa Keller, Director for the Historic Museums of Hopkinsville-Christian County, shared about upcoming events. The Supper Clubs are returning the first Thursday of every other month for a total of 6. The first one is February 8th. They will also continue the History On Tap the last Thursday of each month.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-01-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Tom Irwin, TVA Energy Coach, shared about the Uplift Program for schools. This is a FREE program for those that apply and partner with the TVA. The program helps to identify energy issues and resolve those issues to save the school money. Those that participate receive a $10000 grant and are eligible to receive more. Applications for the next year are being accepted.

WHVO Hoptown This Mornin

Broadcast on 02-06-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa with Sanctuary, Inc. shared more details about the Shop & Share event this Saturday that benefits Sanctuary and details and resources about the Teen Abuse Awareness Month.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-06-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Angie Crawford, Director of Alpha Pregnancy Care Center, discussed the upcoming Baby Box Blessing on February 12th and the Father/Daughter Dance on February 16th and 17th.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-07-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Mari-Alice Jasper shared events and updates with the Hopkinsville-Christian County Public Library. They are excited to continue their regular programs, but are adding a daytime book club and lego night.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)1. Education (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-09-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Rev. Lisa Lewis Balboa with the Modernette Civic Club shared details about their upcoming 28th Annual African American Heritage Breakfast on Saturday February 24. Keynote Speaker will be State Representative Pamela Stevenson. Tickets are available and proceeds help to provide scholarships to youth in our community.

WKDZ Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-16-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Chandler Ladd with the Christian County Chamber of Commerce updated with the upcoming Womens Summit and the reservations are now live. She also encouraged people to attend the Eagle Ambassador Breakfast.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-19-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Kelly Gates with the Hopkinsville Rotary Shared the dates of the Auction in April, sponsorship opportunities, Items and donations are needed. She also shared where the money goes in the community.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-19-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Representative from the Hopkinsville FFA Chapter shared about what FFA means to them, what FFA is and what they look forward to learning as they continue with FFA.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-21-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Alan Watts shares a visit with the Christian County Chapter of the FFA. This week is a celebration of FFA and several of the students shared what FFA means to them.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-22-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Richard Dixon with Restoration House discussed the First Time Home Buyers Event coming up February 29th. This is a FREE event to discuss programs, options and compare renting vs owning. Anyone that even thinks they may want to purchase now or the future are encouraged to attend. The goal is to try and increase home ownership in Hopkinsville that currently has over 54% that rent.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-23-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Alan Watts visited with the advisors of the Christian County chapter and shared events and informations about the National FFA Week.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-27-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Amanda Brunt, Information Director for the City of Hopkinsville shared details about the bell hook dedication, kudos to the Hopkinsville Police, code enforcement going to the Fire Department and the NEW Hopkinsville Podcast.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-28-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Henrietta Kemp with the Hopkinsville Art Guild shared about the benefits of being a member, classes offered through the year, exhibits in the community and scholarships that they supply.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-28-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Jennifer Blanchard, the Advertising Mgr, Admissions Coordinator of Heritage Christian Academy discussed the upcoming Open House for new families on March 5th from 5-7 pm.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-01-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Chris Miller Public Information Officer with the Christian County Sherriff's office shared details about the Citizen's Acedemy. March 8th is the deadline for applications. This offers six classes that share a broad range of what the Sherriff's Office does on a regular basis.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)1. Education (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-05-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa discussed Sanctuary Inc's April events for Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Specifically Wear Teal Week, Chalk the Walk, and the Tea & Talk event at Milkweed on April 18. Sancutaary provides shelter and additional resources, such as therapy, for survivors of sexual assault.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-06-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Mari-Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville Christian Country Public Library shared about events for March and the upcoming Spring Break events!

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-07-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Kelly Gates with Hopkinsville Rotary Chair shared details about the golf tournament, dates to remember, and how to support the Auction now. Jada Poindexter, Rotary Scholar, shared what Rotary has done for her and helped her achieve a better education and future.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-08-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 10 minutes. Kim Cody, Army Veteran and President of AUSA Ft Campbell shared a focus on women serving in the military as a celebration of International Women's Day. She talk about coming back to Hopkinsville, issues that face women veteran and acrive duty wives. We also discussed ways that the community can support families and all those in the military.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-18-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Nicole Poindexter with the Christian County School System shared informatrion about the KY Community Schools Initiative. Only 20 schools are selected and Freedom Elementary and Christian County High have been selected. They will be using a grant to bring all to the table & bridge the gap between community, parents and schools. Each school will receive $65000 each year. The first community meeting is April 25th and is open to all.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-19-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kristen Lilly discussed the upcoming events and things going on at the YMCA. The Spring Break Camp sign up is going on now and swim lesson sign-up just opened. They are having a hiring event all day Wednesday for all positions. The Y serves all ages 6 months and old and offers programs for all.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-25-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutess. Heather Gray of Joy Closet shared details about the Mother/Daughter Tea fundraiser, updates about the Hope House and the new face for Hope House being announced. Donations for immediate needs can be made online or at Joy Closet.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-26-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Alissa Keller gave an update about the great Casey Days weekend. She shared about the upcoming History On Tap that focuses on Women's History Month. The Museums are excited to offer Spring Break programs each weekday at noon. Each day will focus on fun, educational items or events from the Hopkinsville area. Alissa was excited to announce their website is updated and now available.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-28-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kelly and Andrew with the Hopkinsville Rotary shared about the needs of hole sponsors for the golf tournament, hour club sponsors, and items. They invite all to enjoy the auction and food each day. The communitities support continues for Rotary to support the community. Andrew shared the latest opportunity to provide the Fire Department an inflatable house to use when educating students.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-29-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Ashley and Nick with the Cadiz Rotary shared about the upcoming auction starting on April 15th, the needs of the auction and century club donations. They are excited for many great items, food, and fun that week.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)2. Economic Development:*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-01-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-02-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-03-2024 at 8:40AM; and on 01-04-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration 8 minutes. The 2023 Year In Review took a look each day at each quarter of the year looking back at the issues, events and activities.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-11-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Carter Hendricks, Director for the South West Ky EDC shared highlights from 2023. A full report will be shared soon with the community. He also gave details on special events coming such as their job fairs with high school students and the general public. Carter encouraged anyone looking for a job or career to check out their website which has many options available across the region.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-16-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Kristen Lilly updated the community on their operation hours during this winter weather week, she shared updates about the Spring Sports Sign-ups, the Glow Night for Kids on Valentine's Day, hiring updates on available careers, and their upcoming fundraiser dinner and murder mystery. Tickets are now on sale for the March 2nd Golf and Country Club event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-18-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Henry Snorton with MEDI, Inc discussed the upcoming event this Saturday. This is a FREE Small Business Training Workshop that has limited spaces. They will focus on the 3 things you have to have to succeed and share how to plan for your business.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-19-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Chandler Ladd with the Christian County Chamber of Commerce shared about the upcoming Chamber Breakfast focusing on Workforce and Education. Tickets are still available. She also shared details about future events like the Cyber Security Lunch and Learn in February, the Women's Summit in March, and the Small Business Awards in April.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-22-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Judge Executive Jerry Gilliam shared about the recent survey data, road work during the winter weather, building relationships with Ft Campbell, and thoughts on tax incentives.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-26-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Sarah Whitaker, owner of Williams Advertising, LLC discussed the upcoming Seed Summit by Planters Bank on February 12th. This event is for any who are thinking about starting a business or if they are a current small business owner. All proceeds of the ticket cost will go to the United Way. The event is a full day of sessions and networking at the Bruce.

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-30-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Mary Rachel Leach, Hopkinsville Community College Employer Engagement Liaison discussed the HOPFAME program at the college and a chance to learn more at the open house February 13th.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-01-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Tom Irwin, TVA Energy Coach, shared about the Uplift Program for schools. This is a FREE program for those that apply and partner with the TVA. The program helps to identify energy issues and resolve those issues to save the school money. Those that participate receive a $10000 grant and are eligible to receive more. Applications for the next year are being accepted.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-08-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Sharon Butts with the South West Ky EDC shared about the latest updates with our area. Many are hiring and Ascend Elements continues to build out.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)2. Economic Development (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-22-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Richard Dixon with Restoration House discussed the First Time Home Buyers Event coming up February 29th. This is a FREE event to discuss programs, options and compare renting vs owning. Anyone that even thinks they may want to purchase now or the future are encouraged to attend. The goal is to try and increase home ownership in Hopkinsville that currently has over 54% that rent.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-14-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Carter Hendricks shared about the more than 800+ jobs that have been announced for the region. There will be a job fair for students coming this summer. The SWKEDC website has many jobs available for viewing.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-15-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 Minutes. Taylor Hayes with the Christian County Chamber of Commerce, shared about the upcoming eye opener breakfast, Women's Summit, and Youth Leadership Applications. He also shared details of what being a chamber member is all about and the benefits.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-26-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Amanda Brunt shared details of the many ways to stay connected to the city with the latest information. They are on all social platforms and have a website full of information. Their FREE email newsletter is available for subscription. The Here In Hoptown Podcast can be heard on all popular platforms and the website. The city is excited to announce Feature Friday spotlights focusing on local businesses. Share with them that you want to participate to be eligible.

3. Veteran & Military Affairs:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-01-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-02-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-03-2024 at 8:40AM; and on 01-04-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration 8 minutes. The 2023 Year In Review took a look each day at each quarter of the year looking back at the issues, events and activities.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-22-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Judge Executive Jerry Gilliam shared about the recent survey data, road work during the winter weather, building relationships with Ft Campbell, and thoughts on tax incentives.

WKDZ Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-16-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Chandler Ladd with the Christian County Chamber of Commerce updated with the upcoming Womens Summit and the reservations are now live. She also encouraged people to attend the Eagle Ambassador Breakfast.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-21-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 Minutes. Ann Jarvis with the Ft Campbell USO shared about their 83rd birthday and how the USO came about. The USO website now has a simplified tab for helping them. Click the Get Involved tab to find the wish list and ways to volunteer. The Ft Campbell USO is the 2nd largest in the world and strives to serve all those serving and their families. They are returning to the Special Delivery Event in September and need donations for that large event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-08-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 10 minutes. Kim Cody, Army Veteran and President of AUSA Ft Campbell shared a focus on women serving in the military as a celebration of International Women's Day. She talk about coming back to Hopkinsville, issues that face women veteran and active duty wives. We also discussed ways that the community can support families and all those in the military.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)3. Veteran & Military Affairs (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-25-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 4 minutes. Jerry Gilliam, Christian County Judge Executive shared about his visit to Washington, the Ham for Heroes event for Ft Campbell soldiers and the NEW Hometown Heroes Banner honoring all who serve or veterans program coming to Christian County.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-27-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Ann Jarvis with the Ft. Campbell USO shared plans to celebrate the Month of the Military Child all April. There will be an Art Show at the Customs House Museum from military children in our area April 1-22 and all are invited to visit. Everyone is encouraged to participate in Purple Up Day on April 15th to show support for military children. The USO is always in need of volunteers and donations are always welcome!

4. Tourism:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-09-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Margaret Prim, Executive Director of the Pennyroyal Arts Council shared a look back from last year, updates on planning for the NEXT season, the Jazz on Stage series continues, and there are still season tickets left for the Live series. They are excited to welcome back the Missoula Children's Theatre for auditions and Campinelle will come in March for their production of Cinderella.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-09-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Jim Bartoo shared about the ZOO Luminations that will continue through February 4th. This exhibit is after dark and features 100s of beautiful lanterns and creations. They will be having a food drive on February 2 for the Second Harvest Food Bank and donors get free tickets to the zoo, they will have a Puppy Bowl on February 11th and they have a 5k run/walk coming up on February 17th that is a great way to get some exercise, see parts of the zoo most never do and support the zoo.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-16-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kimberly Bush shared about the February 10th Gala at the Silo. Tickets are available now and all proceeds benefit the Sts. Peter & Paul School as they remodel the older bathrooms in the facility. There will be a full dinner and music with the Jimmy Church Band. Auction items will be available online to support the fundraiser as well.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-23-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight shared about the response during the winter weather, hiring a new communications director, handling the code issues in the city, possibility of new businesses coming to Hopkinsville and update on the water park situation.

WHVO - Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-31-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Alissa Keller, Director for the Historic Museums of Hopkinsville-Christian County, shared about upcoming events. The Supper Clubs are returning the first Thursday of every other month for a total of 6. The first one is February 8th. They will also continue the History On Tap the last Thursday of each month.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-01-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rachel Sanders shared an update on the Jr Pro program and the upcoming events that will be coming to the Planters Bank- Jennie Stuart Sportsplex. Indoor soccer will be starting again soon and walking hours are still free on most days. They are also hiring at the Sportsplex.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-05-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Jada Poindexter and Yasmin Aussenbaugh discussed the upcoming Super Club for 2024, the upcoming Black History & Trivia Bowl and trivia night focusing on Black History Month.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)4. Tourism (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-13-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Rachel Sanders with the Hopkinsville Parks & Recreation shared details about their new website, the release of their events calendar and ways to stay informed with the Hopkinsville Parks & Recreation.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-26-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Heather Gray of Joy Closet, Chris Miller of the Christian County Sherriff office, and Royale Marfil of the Hopkinsville Police Department shared details and information about the Mother/Son Nerf war this weekend. A few tickets remain. This event is a wonderful, positive event that law enforcement is excited to partner with Joy Closet. Funds raise help support Joy Closet.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-04-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 Minutes. Dr. Jeff Riggs shared details about the Campanile Productions upcoming performances of Cinderella at the Alhambra Theatre. This production has local talent from all over the region and is going to be one of the most enchanting and detailed they have ever done. They are having pop up events before the full performances. Tickets are available for the March 14- 17 performances.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-05-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Toby Hudson and Rachel Sanders from the Hopkinsville Parks and Recreation shared about the upcoming busy season. The nighttime Easter Egg hunt kicks it off. All the area parks are open and outdoor events are booking fast. Early registration for the Hoptown Half and 5K ends on March 10th.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-06-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Mari-Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville Christian Country Public Library shared about events for March and the upcoming Spring Break events!

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-07-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5. Tara Hall with the 400 Mile Yard Sale shared how to get ready for the sale now, how to register and what a great event the sale is for the community. It brings in tourists, raises money for non-profits, and helps locals raise money too.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-12-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Margaret Prim, Executive Director of the Pennyroyal Arts Council and Jen Kober, actress and comedian, shared about Jen's upcoming performance at the Alhambra. Margaret also shared the very full schedule of events at the Alhambra Theatre, including the Cinderella production and Jazz On Stage.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-19-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas with the Salvation Army in Hopkinsville shared details about the music performance coming. April 20th will bring 65 youth from across KY and TN to perform and shared with the community. All are invited.

WHVO

Broadcast on 03-23-2024 at 12:15PM; Duration: 45 minutes. LIVE reports from the Cadiz Lions Club Easter Egg hunt. Kimberly shared details about what the Lions Club is and how the community supports this event for all.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-26-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Alissa Keller gave an update about the great Casey Days weekend. She shared about the upcoming History On Tap that focuses on Women's History Month. The Museums are excited to offer Spring Break programs each weekday at noon. Each day will focus on fun, educational items or events from the Hopkinsville area. Alissa was excited to announce their website is updated and now available.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)4. Tourism (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-29-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Annie Catron shared details about the Hopkinsville Soapbox Derby that is reorganizing. They had their kick off Saturday and registrations are accepted until April 14th. The races have been moved to May 4th and 5th. Donations are always needed to ensure the cars are ready and the events keeps running.

5. Philanthropy:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-02-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa discussed upcoming events for Sanctuary Incorporated that provides shelter victims of domestic violence. She also recapped events from 2023.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-05-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Raychel Farmer, Yasmin Aussenbaugh and Jada Poindexter with the Human Rights Commission discussed upcoming MLK Day events on January 15th. They also have an art contest for the Christian County School System and a coat drive for the Salvation Army to coincide with the event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-09-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Jim Bartoo shared about the ZOO Luminations that will continue through February 4th. This exhibit is after dark and features 100s of beautiful lanterns and creations. They will be having a food drive on February 2 for the Second Harvest Food Bank and donors get free tickets to the zoo, they will have a Puppy Bowl on February 11th and they have a 5k run/walk coming up on February 17th that is a great way to get some exercise, see parts of the zoo most never do and support the zoo.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-10-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Royale Marfil, Information Officer for the Hopkinsville Police Department, shared about career opportunities with the Police Department. This hiring wave anticipates the retirements that will occur in 2024. They also are encouraging everyone to support the Christian County Relay for Life. Their team is in the 8th year and will be at the Pancake Breakfast kick-off on January 27th.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-16-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kimberly Bush shared about the February 10th Gala at the Silo. Tickets are available now and all proceeds benefit the Sts. Peter & Paul School as they remodel the older bathrooms in the facility. There will be a full dinner and music with the Jimmy Church Band. Auction items will be available online to support the fundraiser as well.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-16-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Kristen Lilly updated the community on their operation hours during this winter weather week, she shared updates about the Spring Sports Sign-ups, the Glow Night for Kids on Valentine's Day, hiring updates on available careers, and their upcoming fundraiser dinner and murder mystery. Tickets are now on sale for the March 2nd Golf and Country Club event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-17-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Kelly Gates, Hopkinsville Rotary Auction Chair, shared this year's auction theme, dates to look forward to, how to help now, and where the money goes in the community.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-19-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Pam Futrell shared about the Christian County Relay For Life kick-off pancake breakfast. This year will be January 27th and tickets are available now or at the door. All proceeds go to research and support for the American Cancer Society. This year's goal is $80,000. The Relay will be in August at the Sportsplex, but a date has not been set. It's not too late to start a team for this year.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)5. Philanthropy (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-22-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Gray with the Joy Closet shared about their monthly open houses for community members to learn more about what they do, Eagle Fly mentor training will continue, Mother/son nerf War tickets are still available and the Hope House project is still moving forward.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-29-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Toby Hudson and Nikki Chambers shared information about the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast coming up, a fundraiser for the organization. Their goal is to help children throughout Christin County. The funds raised will help the Warm The Children effort, Key Cubs and scholarships.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-31-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Joe Bufford shared details about the A Night To Shine, on February 9th. This is a prom night for special needs guest 14+. It is FREE of charge. They are in real need for volunteers. They have more requests to attend than they can assist. Donations can also be made to assist with the evening.

WHVO Hoptown This Mornin

Broadcast on 02-06-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa with Sanctuary, Inc. shared more details about the Shop & Share event this Saturday that benefits Sanctuary and details and resources about the Teen Abuse Awareness Month.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-06-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Angie Crawford, Director of Alpha Pregnancy Care Center, discussed the upcoming Baby Box Blessing on February 12th and the Father/Daughter Dance on February 16th and 17th.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-09-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Rev. Lisa Lewis Balboa with the Modernette Civic Club shared details about their upcoming 28th Annual African American Heritage Breakfast on Saturday February 24. Keynote Speaker will be State Representative Pamela Stevenson. Tickets are available and proceeds help to provide scholarships to youth in our community.

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-12-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Paula Halcomb shared details about the Grace and Mercy Graduation and Annual Celebration. This is also their largest fundraiser. Grace & Mercy is a program to help women through adiction of any kind and to help change their lives and the lives of their families. This event celebrates those that have completed the program, but also looks to the future to assist more.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-19-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Kelly Gates with the Hopkinsvilkle Rotary Shared the dates of the Auction in April, sponsorship opportunities, Items and donations are needed. She also shared where the money goes in the community.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-20-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas with the Salvation Army in Hopkinsville shared updates on the Thrift Store closing its retail portion, volunteers needed for the soup kitchen, and the addition of a new event coming in April to focus on the music opportunities with the Summer Programs. They will be dedicating the new Life Navagation Hub soon and are excited to offer this grat resource. They are also getting ready for Easter and invite everyone to attend.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-20-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Kristen Lilly and Shelton Burse with the Hopkinsville YMCA shared about the Job Fair event today, Spring Sports sign-ups and future events. Their fundraising Mascarade Event is sold out and they are excited to plan for next year to continue.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)5. Philanthropy (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-21-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 Minutes. Ann Jarvis with the Ft Campbell USO shared about their 83rd birthday and how the USO came about. The USO website now has a simplified tab for helping them. Click the Get Involved tab to find the wish list and ways to volunteer. The Ft Campbell USO is the 2nd largest in the world and strives to serve all those serving and their families. They are returning to the Special Delivery Event in September and need donations for that large event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-26-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Heather Gray of Joy Closet, Chris Miller of the Christian County Sherriff office, and Royale Marfil of the Hopkinsville Police Department shared details and information about the Mother/Son Nerf war this weekend. A few tickets remain. This event is a wonderful, positive event that law enforcement is excited to partner with Joy Closet. Funds raise help support Joy Closet.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-27-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Donna Williams of Breaking Bread Dinner Church discussed what they do, and that they distribute their food from Aaron McNeil House each week. Between 470-500 plates are served for pick up each week. These are distributed without proof of need. They can always use volunteers and donations to provide this weekly service.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-29-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kelly Martin with the Pennyroyal Hospice discussed the upcoming Horse Show March 7-9. This is their main fundraiser and has exploded in growth. They expect 500 entries over the weekend. All proceeds help to keep Hospice Care available to all, regardless of ability to pay.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-07-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Kelly Gates with Hopkinsville Rotary Chair shared details about the golf tournament, dates to remember, and how to support the Auction now. Jada Poindexter, Rotary Scholar, shared what Rotary has done for her and helped her achieve a better education and future.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-13-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Tiffany Jenkins with St Luke Free Clinic shared what they are all about, who all they can help and how they are funded. They accepting patients and are solely funded by donations. They have a staff of 10 that volunteer monthly to serve those in need in the surrounding counties, not just Christian County. They are also having some fundraisers coming soon.

WHVO

Broadcast on 03-23-2024 at 12:15PM; Duration: 45 minutes. LIVE reports from the Cadiz Lions Club Easter Egg hunt. Kimberly shared details about what the Lions Club is and how the community supports this event for all.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-20-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Tammy Stratton with Max's Hope Pet Rescue shared about the non-profit, no-kill organization. They have no paid staff and rely solely on donations from the community. She shared details of what and how to donate and the upcoming fundraisers.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-25-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Heather Gray of Joy Closet shared details about the Mother/Daughter Tea fundraiser, updates about the Hope House and the new face for Hope House being announced. Donations for immediate needs can be made online or at Joy Closet.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-27-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Ann Jarvis with the Ft. Campbell USO shared plans to celebrate the Month of the Military Child all April. There will be an Art Show at the Customs House Museum from military children in our area April 1-22 and all are invited to visit. Everyone is encouraged to participate in Purple Up Day on April 15th to show support for military children. The USO is always in need of volunteers and donations are always welcome!

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)5. Philanthropy (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-28-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kelly and Andrew with the Hopkinsville Rotary shared about the needs of hole sponsors for the golf tournament, hour club sponsors, and items. They invite all to enjoy the auction and food each day. The communities support continues for Rotary to support the community. Andrew shared the latest opportunity to provide the Fire Department an inflatable house to use when educating students.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-29-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Annie Catron shared details about the Hopkinsville Soapbox Derby that is reorganizing. They had their kick off Saturday and registrations are accepted until April 14th. The races have been moved to May 4th and 5th. Donations are always needed to ensure the cars are ready and the events keeps running.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-29-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Ashley and Nick with the Cadiz Rotary shared about the upcoming auction starting on April 15th, the needs of the auction and century club donations. They are excited for many great items, food, and fun that week.

6. Health/Wellness/Safety:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-02-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa discussed upcoming events for Sanctuary Incorporated that provides shelter victims of domestic violence. She also recapped events from 2023.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-04-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Pennyryle Osmbudman Cindy Tabor talked about Friendly Senior Visitor Training that will focus on visiting seniors in the area that need someone to check on them and provide company.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-01-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-02-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-03-2024 at 8:40AM; and on 01-04-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration 8 minutes. The 2023 Year In Review took a look each day at each quarter of the year looking back at the issues, events and activities.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-03-2024 at 6:45AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Superintendent Chris Bentzel with the Christian County Schools gave an update on the progress on the new school. The project is moving along ahead of schedule. He shared about Winter Weather Procedures for the school system and they are hosting the first ever Holiday Hoops tournament.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-10-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Royale Marfil, Information Officer for the Hopkinsville Police Department, shared about career opportunities with the Police Department. This hiring wave anticipates the retirements that will occur in 2024. They also are encouraging everyone to support the Christian County Relay for Life. Their team is in the 8th year and will be at the Pancake Breakfast kick-off on January 27th.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-12-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Payton M. Rogers, Captain Inspector/Public Information Officer Hopkinsville Fire Department, shared that the hiring has been completed and 5 will be attending Academy Training. The 2024 Fire Prevention division will move forward this year and be apart of the code enforcement throughout Hopkinsville. He also shared safety tips during the winter weather season.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-15-2024 at 8:20AM; Duration: 5 minutes. David Powell shared an update on the snow and weather of the weekend and took a look ahead of what we expect. He also shared safety tips for cold weather and a road condition update.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)6. Health/Wellness/Safety (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-16-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Kristen Lilly updated the community on their operation hours during this winter weather week, she shared updates about the Spring Sports Sign-ups, the Glow Night for Kids on Valentine's Day, hiring updates on available careers, and their upcoming fundraiser dinner and murder mystery. Tickets are now on sale for the March 2nd Golf and Country Club event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-16-2024 at 7:05AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Judge Executive Jerry Gilliam shared an update of road conditions through out Christian County, what they have completed so far and the plan for the winter weather.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-18-2024 at 8:20AM; Duration: 4 minutes. David Powell shared the latest update about the Winter Advisory and what is possible to happen this week and weekend.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-19-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Pam Futrell shared about the Christian County Relay For Life kick-off pancake breakfast. This year will be January 27th and tickets are available now or at the door. All proceeds go to research and support for the American Cancer Society. This year's goal is $80,000. The Relay will be in August at the Sportsplex, but a date has not been set. It's not too late to start a team for this year.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-22-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Heather Gray with the Joy Closet shared about their monthly open houses for community members to learn more about what they do, Eagle Fly mentor training will continue, Mother/son nerf War tickets are still available and the Hope House project is still moving forward.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-22-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Judge Executive Jerry Gilliam shared about the recent survey data, road work during the winter weather, building relationships with Ft Campbell, and thoughts on tax incentives.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-23-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight shared about the response during the winter weather, hiring a new communications director, handling the code issues in the city, possibility of new businesses coming to Hopkinsville and update on the water park situation.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-26-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Dr. Eric Putty shared 13 habits for a healthy lifestyle. This ranged from food intake, exercise, rest and self-care.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-29-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Toby Hudson and Nikki Chambers shared information about the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast coming up, a fundraiser for the organization. Their goal is to help children throughout Christin County. The funds raised will help the Warm The Children effort, Key Cubs and scholarships.

WHVO - Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-29-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Victoria Huffines discussed needing Volunteers for the American Red Cross locally. Specifically, they need disaster action team members currently. She explained what that means and how to get involved.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-01-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rachel Sanders shared an update on the Jr Pro program and the upcoming events that will be coming to the Planters Bank- Jennie Stuart Sportsplex. Indoor soccer will be starting again soon and walking hours are still free on most days. They are also hiring at the Sportsplex.

WHVO Hoptown This Mornin

Broadcast on 02-06-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa with Sanctuary, Inc. shared more details about the Shop & Share event this Saturday that benefits Sanctuary and details and resources about the Teen Abuse Awareness Month.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)6. Health/Wellness/Safety (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-12-2024 at 8:45AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Royale Marfil, the Information Officer with the Hopkinsville Police, shared about the Coffee with a Cop event on Feb 14th and invited everyone out. They are working on being prepared to fill positions as some retire so they will continue to be fully staffed.

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-12-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Paula Halcomb shared details about the Grace and Mercy Graduation and Annual Celebration. This is also their largest fundraiser. Grace & Mercy is a program to help women through adiction of any kind and to help change their lives and the lives of their families. This event celebrates those that have completed the program, but also looks to the future to assist more.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-13-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Rachel Sanders with the Hopkinsville Parks & Recreation shared details about their new website, the release of their events calendar and ways to stay informed with the Hopkinsville Parks & Recreation.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-20-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas with the Salvation Army in Hopkinsville shared updates on the Thrift Store closing its retail portion, volunteers needed for the soup kitchen, and the addition of a new event coming in April to focus on the music opportunities with the Summer Programs. They will be dedicating the new Life Navagation Hub soon and are excited to offer this grat resource. They are also getting ready for Easter and invite everyone to attend.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-20-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Kristen Lilly and Shelton Burse with the Hopkinsville YMCA shared about the Job Fair event today, Spring Sports sign-ups and future events. Their fundraising Mascarade Event is sold out and they are excited to plan for next year to continue.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-26-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Jerry Gilliam, Christian County Judge Executive shared details on the two-way-radio communication update, focusing on Frankfort to improve transportation, communication, and more. The mowing season is almost here and clean up continues. Be looking for crews and help where you can to keep our area clean.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-27-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Amanda Brunt, Information Director for the City of Hopkinsville shared details about the bell hook dedication, kudos to the Hopkinsville Police, code enforcement going to the Fire Department and the NEW Hopkinsville Podcast.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-27-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Donna Williams of Breaking Bread Dinner Church discussed what they do, and that they distribute their food from Aaron McNeil House each week. Between 470-500 plates are served for pick up each week. These are distributed without proof of need. They can always use volunteers and donations to provide this weekly service.

WHVO hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-01-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Rachel Sanders discusses the upcoming events that will be coming to the Sportsplex. The last volleyball registration is ending. Basketball tournaments are starting and 4 coming in March.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-01-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Chris Miller Public Information Officer with the Christian County Sherriff's office shared details about the Citizen's Acedemy. March 8th is the deadline for applications. This offers six classes that share a broad range of what the Sherriff's Office does on a regular basis.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)6. Health/Wellness/Safety (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-05-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Zirconia Vansauwa discussed Sanctuary Inc's April events for Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Specifically Wear Teal Week, Chalk the Walk, and the Tea & Talk event at Milkweed on April 18. Sancutaary provides shelter and additional resources, such as therapy, for survivors of sexual assault.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-05-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Toby Hudson and Rachel Sanders from the Hopinsville Parks and Recreation shared about the upcoming busy season. The nighttime Easter Egg hunt kicks it off. All the area parks are open and outdoor events are booking fast. Early registration for the Hoptown Half and 5K ends on March 10th.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-06-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Royale Marfil, Information Officer Hopkinsville Police Department, shared an update from the Nerf Wars and looked ahead to The Cookout With A Cop this Summer. She also shared safety information about overcast, foggy days and driving.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-12-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Charles Dennis Feeding America KY's Heartland discussed the increase in food insecurity across Kentucky, surpassing even the levels witnessed during the pandemic, and how we can help. He also shared the importance of the current Farm Bill to pass that not only focuses on agriculture, but many of the food assistance programs.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-13-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Tiffany Jenkins with St Luke Free Clinic shared what they are all about, who all they can help and how they are funded. They accepting paients and are soley funded by donations. They have a staff of 10 that volunteer monthly to serve those in need in the surrundig counties, not just Christian County. They are also having some fundraisers coming soon.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-19-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kristen Lilly discussed the upcoming events and things going on at the YMCA. The Spring Break Camp sign up is going on now and swim lesson sign-up just opened. They are having a hiring event all day Wednesday for all positions. The Y serves all ages 6 months and old and offers programs for all.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-21-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Jimmy Lancaster, owner of Bikes & Moore, shared the importance of safety for bicyclists and drivers as the weather warms up and more on the roads.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-21-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Rahkeem T. Francis, Emergency Department Director of Jennie Stuart Health, shared details about the new Emergency Room expansion and new technology available.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-22-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Dr. Eric Putty shared about repetitive stress injuries, mainly high school athletes. He talked about signs and symptoms and the importance of early diagnose and treatments.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-25-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutess. Heather Gray of Joy Closet shared details about the Mother/Daughter Tea fundraiser, updates about the Hope House and the new face for Hope House being announced. Donations for immediate needs can be made online or at Joy Closet.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)6. Health/Wellness/Safety (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-28-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Kelly and Andrew with the Hopkinsville Rotary shared about the needs of hole sponsors for the golf tournament, hour club sponsors, and items. They invite all to enjoy the auction and food each day. The communities support continues for Rotary to support the community. Andrew shared the latest opportunity to provide the Fire Department an inflatable house to use when educating students.

7. The Arts:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-03-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Mari-Alice Jasper with the Hopkinsville- Christian County Library shared about the Book Clubs returning, the upcoming Epic Hours and the Sip N Paint. She also encouraged everyone to us all their resources like audio books and the Makers Center.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-05-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Raychel Farmer, Yasmin Aussenbaugh and Jada Poindexter with the Human Rights Commission discussed upcoming MLK Day events on January 15th. They also have an art contest for the Christian County School System and a coat drive for the Salvation Army to coincide with the event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-01-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-02-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-03-2024 at 8:40AM; and on 01-04-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration 8 minutes. The 2023 Year In Review took a look each day at each quarter of the year looking back at the issues, events and activities.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-09-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Margaret Prim, Executive Director of the Pennyroyal Arts Council shared a look back from last year, updates on planning for the NEXT season, the Jazz on Stage series continues, and there are still season tickets left for the Live series. They are excited to welcome back the Missoula Children's Theatre for auditions and Campanille will come in March for their production of Cinderella.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-09-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Jim Bartoo shared about the ZOO Luminations that will continue through February 4th. This exhibit is after dark and features 100s of beautiful lanterns and creations. They will be having a food drive on February 2 for the Second Harvest Food Bank and donors get free tickets to the zoo, they will have a Puppy Bowl on February 11th and they have a 5k run/walk coming up on February 17th that is a great way to get some exercise, see parts of the zoo most never do and support the zoo.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-13-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Margaret Prim, Executive Director of the Pennyroyal Arts Council shared about the LIVE series that will continue this weekend, the Jazz On Stage and the CCPS productions on March 1st. All of this before Campanille moves in for their production of Cinderella.

WHVO Hoptown This Mornng

Broadcast on 02-28-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Henrietta Kemp with the Hopkinsville Art Guild shared about the benefits of being a member, classes offered through the year, exhibits in the community and scholarships that they supply.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-04-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 Minutes. Dr. Jeff Riggs shared details about the Campanille Productions upcoming performances of Cinderella at the Alhambra Theatre. This production has local talent from all over the region and is going to be one of the most enchanting and detailed they have ever done. They are having pop up events before the full performances. Tickets are available for the March 14- 17 performances.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)7. The Arts (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-12-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 8 minutes. Margaret Prim, Executive Director of the Pennyroyal Arts Council and Jen Kober, actress and comedian, shared about Jen's upcoming performance at the Alhambra. Margaret also shared the very full schedule of events at the Alhambra Theatre, including the Cinderella production and Jazz On Stage.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-19-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Lindsey Galabeas with the Salvation Army in Hopkinsville shared details about the music performance coming. April 20th will bring 65 youth from across KY and TN to perform and share with the community. All are invited.

8. Government Affairs:WHVO- Legislative Update

Broadcast on 01-07-2024 at 12:15PM; on 01-14-2024 at 12:15PM; on 01-21-2024 at 12:15PM; on 01-28-2024 at 12:15PM; on 02-04-2024 at 12:15PM; on 02-11-2024 at 12:15PM; on 02-18-2024 at 12:15PM; on 02-25-2024 at 12:15PM; on 03-03-2024 at 12:15PM; on 03-10-2024 at 12:15PM; on 03-17-2024 at 12:15PM; and on 03-24-2024 at 12:15PM; Duration 30 minutes. Alan Watts shares information from our local legislators during the Legislative Update. Each legislator will share about the week's topics, developments, and interests as well as their viewpoints on the topics that are being addressed in Frankfort.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-01-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-02-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-03-2024 at 8:40AM; and on 01-04-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration 8 minutes. The 2023 Year In Review took a look each day at each quarter of the year looking back at the issues, events and activities.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-12-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Payton M. Rogers, Captain Inspector/Public Information Officer Hopkinsville Fire Department, shared that the hiring has been completed and 5 will be attending Academy Training. The 2024 Fire Prevention division will move forward this year and be apart of the code enforcement throughout Hopkinsville. He also shared safety tips during the winter weather season.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-16-2024 at 7:05AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Judge Executive Jerry Gilliam shared an update of road conditions through out Christian County, what they have completed so far and the plan for the winter weather.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-22-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Judge Executive Jerry Gilliam shared about the recent survey data, road work during the winter weather, building relationships with Ft Campbell, and thoughts on tax incentives.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-23-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Mayor J.R. Knight shared about the response during the winter weather, hiring a new communications director, handling the code issues in the city, possibility of new businesses coming to Hopkinsville and update on the water park situation.

WHVO- Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-25-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 7 minutes. Congressman James Comer shared concerns with the possible government shutdown, problems with the budget and where some of the wasteful spending is coming from. He shared the frustration of trying to cut spending and the lack of participation to make that happen.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)8. Government Affairs (Continued):*WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-26-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Jerry Gilliam, Christian County Judge Executive shared details on the two-way-radio communication update, focusing on Frankfort to improve transportation, communication, and more. The mowing season is almost here and clean up continues. Be looking for crews and help where you can to keep our area clean.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-27-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Amanda Brunt, Information Director for the City of Hopkinsville shared details about the bell hook dedication, kudos to the Hopkinsville Police, code enforcement going to the Fire Department and the NEW Hopkinsville Podcast.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-12-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Charles Dennis Feeding America KY's Heartland discussed the increase in food insecurity across Kentucky, surpassing even the levels witnessed during the pandemic, and how we can help. He also shared the importance of the current Farm Bill to pass that not only focuses on agriculture, but many of the food assistance programs.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-25-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 4 minutes. Jerry Gilliam, Christian County Judge Executive shared about his visit to Washington, the Ham for Heroes event for Ft Campbell soldiers and the NEW Hometown Heroes Banner honoring all who serve or veterans program coming to Christian County.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-26-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Amanda Brunt shared details of the many ways to stay connected to the city with the latest information. They are on all social platforms and have a website full of information. Their FREE email newsletter is available for subscription. The Here In Hoptown Podcast can be heard on all popular platforms and the website. The city is excited to announce Feature Friday spotlights focusing on local businesses. Share with them that you want to participate to be eligible.

9. Equality:WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-05-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration: 5 Minutes. Raychel Farmer, Yasmin Ausenbaugh and Jada Poindexter with the Human Rights Commission discussed upcoming MLK Day events on January 15th. They also have an art contest for the Christian County School System and a coat drive for the Salvation Army to coincide with the event.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-01-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-02-2024 at 8:40AM; on 01-03-2024 at 8:40AM; and on 01-04-2024 at 8:40AM; Duration 8 minutes. The 2023 Year In Review took a look each day at each quarter of the year looking back at the issues, events and activities.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 01-18-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Henry Snorton with MEDI, Inc discussed the upcoming event this Saturday. This is a FREE Small Business Training Workshop that has limited spaces. They will focus on the 3 things you have to have to succeed and share how to plan for your business.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-05-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 5 minutes. Jada Poindexter and Yasmin Ausenbaugh discussed the upcoming Super Club for 2024, the upcoming Black History & Trivia Bowl and trivia night focusing on Black History Month.

Section II: Responsive Programs (Continued)

9. Equality (Continued):

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 02-09-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Rev. Lisa Lewis Balboa with the Modernette Civic Club shared details about their upcoming 28th Annual African American Heritage Breakfast on Saturday February 24. Keynote Speaker will be State Representative Pamela Stevenson. Tickets are available and proceeds help to provide scholarships to youth in our community.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-18-2024 at 8:30AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Nicole Poindexter with the Christian County School System shared information about the KY Community Schools Initiative. Only 20 schools are selected and Freedom Elementary and Christian County High have been selected. They will be using a grant to bring all to the table & bridge the gap between community, parents and schools. Each school will receive $65000 each year. The first community meeting is April 25th and is open to all.

WHVO Hoptown This Morning

Broadcast on 03-26-2024 at 8:50AM; Duration: 6 minutes. Alissa Keller gave an update about the great Casey Days weekend. She shared about the upcoming History On Tap that focuses on Women's History Month. The Museums are excited to offer Spring Break programs each weekday at noon. Each day will focus on fun, educational items or events from the Hopkinsville area. Alissa was excited to announce their website is updated and now available.