

---

WUTM-FM
Martin, TN
Quarterly Issues/Programs List
Q2 2023
6/25/2023

---

WUTM-FM

"TENNESSEE MATTERS" PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAM

This weekly news and information program covers a variety of statewide public affairs topics and interviews who make an impact both nationally and regionally. Program airs Sundays at 7:00AM.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:
DATE	TIME	LENGTH	SHOW#	PGM	DESCRIPTION
4/2/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	Being elected to a local political office does not mean you never need to leave home in order to serve your community. This week many elected city officials met in Washington DC during the National League of Cities convention. Columbia's Mayor, Chaz Moulder, was one of the elected officials from Tennessee who attended. He tells us about his experience and why it's important to him and the community he serves.
4/9/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	Being elected to a local political office does not mean you never need to leave home in order to serve your community. This week many elected city officials met in Washington DC during the National League of Cities convention. Columbia's Mayor, Chaz Moulder, was one of the elected officials from Tennessee who attended. He tells us about his experience and why it's important to him and the community he serves.
4/16/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	The State of Tennessee employs more than 40,000 workers statewide in hundreds of public service roles like park ranger, corrections officer, transportation planner, pharmacy assistant, and many, many more. Recognizing the value of a diverse workforce (including the disabled), the Tennessee Department of Human Resources has leaders like Administrator Sundi Wright and Program Director Tanika Arms assigned to manage its diversity programs. Recently John Koski spoke with Ms. Wright and Ms. Arms about their role in the state's goal to become a model employer and what's being done to cultivate a fully diverse workforce.
4/23/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	The State of Tennessee promotes a pro-business environment and the work has paid off with big businesses expanding to the Volunteer State. In particular Tennessee has become a destination for electric vehicle production including a massive project planned by FORD in West Tennessee. The person in charge of cultivating business expansion in Tennessee, including for start ups and small businesses, is Stuart McWhorter, Commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development. Recently Mr. McWhorter spoke with John Koski about Tennessee's current momentum and the special programs that are planned for entrepreneurs.
4/30/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	The CDC says child abuse and neglect are serious public health problems with about one in seven children experiencing child abuse and neglect in the last year. In Tennessee, the Carl Perkins Center serves 20 counties by offering a variety of services aimed at preventing child abuse as well as helping children and families through it when it happens. Let's learn more from the Event and Fundraising Coordinator, Madelyn Stadinger.

WUTM-FM

"TENNESSEE MATTERS" PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAM

This weekly news and information program covers a variety of statewide public affairs topics and interviews who make an impact both nationally and regionally. Program airs Sundays at 7:00AM.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:
DATE	TIME	LENGTH	SHOW#	PGM	DESCRIPTION
5/7/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	Being aware of your blood pressure can be very valuable to your health. May is High Blood Pressure Education Month, and there is no better time to learn about the importance of monitoring your blood pressure. Half of all Americans have high blood pressure, also known as hypertension. It develops when blood flows through your arteries at higher-than-normal pressures. Let's learn more from Dr. Larry Fine, Program Officer within the Clinical Applications and Prevention Branch at the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute, National Institutes of Health.
5/14/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	Nashville Photographer Jay Ferrell takes us on a tour of the states most historic and abandoned places. It's featured in a new book called Abandoned Tennessee Treasurers.
5/21/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	Nashville Photographer Jay Ferrell takes us on a tour of the states most historic and abandoned places. It's featured in a new book called Abandoned Tennessee Treasurers. (repeat)
5/28/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	Tennessee National Guard serves both community and country serving as drug interactions, domestic emergencies and overseas combat commission as Maj. Gen. Jeff Holmes explains.
6/4/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	The Tennessee Department of Agriculture is an agency in the government. Founded in 1854, it is the oldest state agency in Tennessee. The present Commissioner, Dr. Charlie Hatcher, is the 38th incumbent.
6/11/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	TN Dep of Safety and HOMELAND SECURITY is Made up of Driver services, tn highway patrol, tn highway safety office as well as homeland security. Dept of Safety and Homeland Security Commissioner Jeff Long and Tennessee Highway Safety Office Director Buddy Lewis.
6/18/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	Dr. Rena Hall, Director, discusses with agency leaders to create customized learning and cultural strategies to develop and sustain a high performing workforce.
6/25/2023 (Sun)	07:00	30:00	29031	Tennessee Matters	James Dunn, Director, provides leadership relative to aging issues on behalf of older persons in the state. Their mission is to bring together and leverage programs, resources, and organizations to protect and ensure the quality of life and independence of older Tennesseans and adults with disabilities.
[END QTR]

WUTM-FM

"TENNESSEE HOME AND FARM RADIO" PUBLIC AFFAIRS FEATURE

This news and information feature is a production of the Tennessee Farm Bureau and is distributed daily by the Tennessee Radio Network (TRN). This feature is a news and information vignette and covers many current event topics related to rural communities and the industry of agriculture across Tennessee. It features local guests as well as experts from across the state speaking on various topics. This feature airs twice daily, Monday through Friday at 11:20AM and 4:20PM Central, and is two minutes in length. The feature is hosted by Tennessee Farm Bureau's Lee Maddox and Amy Beckham. Summaries of topics are listed below.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:

DATE	DESCRIPTION
04/03/2023 (Mon)	The Army Corps of Engineers works daily to ensure rivers in our country remain navigable and that they don't flood private land as much as possible. All of that helps ensure our farmers can grow food for the world and get it to market once harvested.
04/04/2023 (Tue)	A new American Farm Bureau Federation survey reveals the public offers strong support for passing the next Farm Bill. Micheal Clements shares the data.
04/05/2023 (Wed)	Mike Hopkins is this years Tennessee FFA Star Farmer. It's not the first time the Hopkins family has had a family member named star farmer. Mike's brother Mitch was named start farmer last year. Mike explains what it means to be named star farmer and why he can't see himself doing anything else other than farm.
04/06/2023 (Thu)	Hundreds of supporters of Tennessee's leading economic driver were on hand for Ag Day on the Hill at the state capitol in Nashville.
04/07/2023 (Fri)	Lawmakers in the both the House and Senate voted to repeal the controversial WOTUS rule, but President Biden vetoed that bill. Michael Clements has more on the vote and what's next in the ongoing WOTUS challenge.
04/10/2023 (Mon)	A lot of farmers across Tennessee are hoping to get to their fields soon to start planting those first seeds of the season.
04/11/2023 (Tue)	UTIA Chancellor Keith Carver has been o the job for a little over a month now. He may have not been on the job long, but he's already working to strengthen relationship with industry partners and promote and grow agriculture in Tennessee.
04/12/2023 (Wed)	For several years now people in the Ag industry across the state have participated in the three clay sporting events called shooting hunger. Each region of Tennessee has a clay sporting event and the money raised goes towards the backpack program in all 95 counties. The backpack program helps kids in need by packaging food into their backpacks and sending it home with them after school. Rutherford County recently received their funding from shooting hunger, which will go towards feeds the 1,300 homeless students in their school district.
04/13/2023 (Thu)	A lot of activity on our farms all across the state, from corn planting, cutting wheat for haylage and planting cabbage.
04/14/2023 (Fri)	It's no secret that there aren't as many young people entering into agriculture as there was at one time. However the young people that are interested in the industry are using their voice to advocate for agriculture and keep it great for another generation.
04/17/2023 (Mon)	A North Dakota Federal District Court ruled against the new Waters of the U.S. rule this week. Micheal Clements shares more on the decision, which impacts 24 states.
04/18/2023 (Tue)	During the 95th Tennessee FFA Convention, five state stars were announced. Hear from the State Star in Agriscience and the State Star Greenhand.
04/19/2023 (Wed)	The new Made In Tennessee Building was unveiled at the state fairgrounds in Wilson County on Monday. The building will feature the products grown and made in the state.

WUTM-FM

"TENNESSEE HOME AND FARM RADIO" PUBLIC AFFAIRS FEATURE

This news and information feature is a production of the Tennessee Farm Bureau and is distributed daily by the Tennessee Radio Network (TRN). This feature is a news and information vignette and covers many current event topics related to rural communities and the industry of agriculture across Tennessee. It features local guests as well as experts from across the state speaking on various topics. This feature airs twice daily, Monday through Friday at 11:20AM and 4:20PM Central, and is two minutes in length. The feature is hosted by Tennessee Farm Bureau's Lee Maddox and Amy Beckham. Summaries of topics are listed below.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:

DATE	DESCRIPTION
04/20/2023 (Thu)	Farmers rely on groundwater for their irrigation systems. Some places like Arkansas are seeing the supply of their groundwater diminish. Fortunately that hasn't been an issue here in Tennessee yet. Billy Grantham with the Army Corps of Engineers is working on test projects that would allow farmers to use river water as a source for their irrigation system instead of groundwater. If successful these systems could ease the burden on places like Arkansas and be a preventative for any potential groundwater issues other states face in the future.
04/21/2023 (Fri)	Saturday is Earth Day, but for farmers, everyday is Earth Day. Each day farmers strive to use practices that protect our environment and leave the land in better condition for the next generation.
04/24/2023 (Mon)	With the days of freezing temperatures all but over until the fall, it's time for all those insects to start showing back up again. And recently, the Tennessee Department of Agriculture announced a new state entomologist has been named - longtime department employee, Cindy Bilbrey.
04/25/2023 (Tue)	Women from across Tennessee gathered in Lebanon on Saturday for the 75th annual Tennessee Farm Bureau Women's Leadership Conference.
04/26/2023 (Wed)	For decades, Dr. Ron Hanson has traveled across the nation speaking to farm families about the importance of succession planning and why the future of their farm depends heavily on it.
04/27/2023 (Thu)	Wall Street rules intended for publicly traded companies have no business impacting family farms and ranches. Chad Smith has more on a proposed rule from the Securities and Exchange Commission that would do just that.
04/28/2023 (Fri)	Americans have had to dig deeper into their pocketbooks over the last several years at the grocery store, as we've seen record high inflation in just about all grocery store items, but as Gary Crawford with the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports, there are signs food prices could be improving.
05/01/2023 (Mon)	5th graders across Tennessee brainstormed why agriculture is important for this year's Women's Leadership and Ag in the Classroom essay contest.
05/02/2023 (Tue)	4-H, FFA and Ag in the Classroom plays a vital role in molding the next generation of farmers and professionals in the ag industry.
05/03/2023 (Wed)	There's nothing quite like fresh Tennessee strawberries and after challenging weather events, growers are ready to welcome customers.
05/04/2023 (Thu)	Dairy is the latest to see big advancements with robotic milking operations. The University of Tennessee Institute of Agriculture East Tennessee Research and Education Center recently installed new robotic milkers to conduct research on the new tool.
05/05/2023 (Fri)	Adult leaders with Tennessee 4-H are in Knoxville for the annual Tennessee 4-H Ag Extension Workers Conference, a three day event giving opportunities for 4-H Extension agents.

WUTM-FM

"TENNESSEE HOME AND FARM RADIO" PUBLIC AFFAIRS FEATURE

This news and information feature is a production of the Tennessee Farm Bureau and is distributed daily by the Tennessee Radio Network (TRN). This feature is a news and information vignette and covers many current event topics related to rural communities and the industry of agriculture across Tennessee. It features local guests as well as experts from across the state speaking on various topics. This feature airs twice daily, Monday through Friday at 11:20AM and 4:20PM Central, and is two minutes in length. The feature is hosted by Tennessee Farm Bureau's Lee Maddox and Amy Beckham. Summaries of topics are listed below.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:

DATE	DESCRIPTION
05/08/2023 (Mon)	Dr. Charlie Martinez and his team at the University of Tennessee Institute of Agriculture have been busy for months now pulling numbers and trying to determine how much farmland we've lost in the state of Tennessee.
05/09/2023 (Tue)	American Farm Bureau President Zippy Duvall recently shared his thoughts on the new farm bill with lawmakers.
05/10/2023 (Wed)	A special time of year as young adults finish their college careers with degrees in the field of agriculture.
05/11/2023 (Thu)	The Feeding the Economy Report, released on National Ag Day, was updated to include county-level data, showing the economic impact of local agriculture on communities across the U.S.
05/12/2023 (Fri)	Two Crockett County FFA chapter members were awarded this year's state Star awards with their respective Supervised Agricultural Experience program.
05/15/2023 (Mon)	Weekly crop progress reports show that most farmers ahead of schedule in planting. Michael Clements has more on how weather is playing a big factor in that, and what it might mean for the entire growing season.
05/16/2023 (Tue)	Alison Price is an ag education graduate from the University of Tennessee Knoxville. She will address her fellow peers this weekend, as she's been selected to give the commencement address.
05/17/2023 (Wed)	Farmers in Tennessee are going to be extremely busy over the next few weeks in their hay fields.
05/18/2023 (Thu)	On this episode of Tennessee Home and Farm radio we take a look at the latest World Agricultural Supply and Demand Estimates from the Department of Agriculture, which projects a record corn crop along with increased soybean production.
05/19/2023 (Fri)	For Tennessee cotton farmers, its been a little challenging getting this year's crop planted, but progress is continuing as they look to plant some 355,000 acres this year.
05/22/2023 (Mon)	National FFA Association President Andrew Seibel attended the Tennessee FFA convention to inspire members.
05/23/2023 (Tue)	Fifth graders across Tennessee brainstormed why agriculture is important for this year's Women's Leadership and Ag in the Classroom essay contest.
05/24/2023 (Wed)	This time of year a lot of us will be turning to the outdoor grill for cooking, especially with friends and family now that school is out for the Summer.
05/25/2023 (Thu)	Wilson Central FFA Chapter member and current MTSU ag major Faith Cook has been selected as Tennessee's candidate for national FFA office.
05/26/2023 (Fri)	In an unanimous decision from the Supreme Court, a victory for farmers, small businesses and landowners as the court ruled on the long-awaited outcome in Sackett v. EPA.

WUTM-FM

"TENNESSEE HOME AND FARM RADIO" PUBLIC AFFAIRS FEATURE

This news and information feature is a production of the Tennessee Farm Bureau and is distributed daily by the Tennessee Radio Network (TRN). This feature is a news and information vignette and covers many current event topics related to rural communities and the industry of agriculture across Tennessee. It features local guests as well as experts from across the state speaking on various topics. This feature airs twice daily, Monday through Friday at 11:20AM and 4:20PM Central, and is two minutes in length. The feature is hosted by Tennessee Farm Bureau's Lee Maddox and Amy Beckham. Summaries of topics are listed below.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:

DATE	DESCRIPTION
05/29/2023 (Mon)	On this Memorial Day as we celebrate with family and friend it's important to always remember those men and women that paid the ultimate sacrifice for our freedoms.
05/30/2023 (Tue)	For the first time since 2008 West Tennessee 4-H'ers will have their own camp to attend nearby.
05/31/2023 (Wed)	All across Tennessee and around the country farmers have been extremely busy on their farms this spring trying to get their crops planted, their newborn calves weaned and the first cutting of hay harvested in between all the rain showers.
06/01/2023 (Thu)	The American Farm Bureau Federation signed two more agreements ensuring farmers and ranchers' right to repair their equipment. Michael Clements shares what this means for farmers now that there are four MOU's in place for farm equipment in the U.S.
06/02/2023 (Fri)	Consultants for Ag In The Classroom recently met to prepare for the upcoming teacher workshops. These consultants explain why Ag In The Classroom is so important.
06/05/2023 (Mon)	June is dairy month in Tennessee and all across the country as dairy farmers and industry representatives look to spread the good news about nature's perfect beverage, milk.
06/06/2023 (Tue)	Artificial Intelligence is becoming a bigger part of our daily lives at a fast pace. What role does this new AI technology play in agriculture. A local beef producer and UT extension agent discuss how AI might shape agriculture moving forward.
06/07/2023 (Wed)	USDA's June Ag Trade Outlook showed a significant drop in U.S. exports from the February report. Micheal Clements has more on the latest numbers.
06/08/2023 (Thu)	Carbon credits have been a hot topic in the ag world over the past few years. Some say they're a great new source of income for farmers, while others say they're too risky. Hunter Jones with consulting company Ernst & Young discusses the trend in the carbon credit market and the different types of carbon credits.
06/09/2023 (Fri)	The annual June Dairy Month Kickoff Luncheon was back at the Ellington Agriculture Center in Nashville. The luncheon kicks off June Dairy Month, and recognizes youth who participate as county June Dairy Month chairmen. Also, former dairy producer, Mike Ellis of Knox County, was recognized as Dairy Producer of the Year.
06/12/2023 (Mon)	More than 30 extension agents and ag industry partners recently took part in a specialty crop and farmers market in-service training tour in the Midstate by visiting farms and businesses in Davidson, Maury and Williamson counties.
06/13/2023 (Tue)	Some folks these days might think that dairy is not a healthy food, but that's not true. Dietitian and MTSU Professor Lisa Sheehan-Smith recently gave a keynote address at the June Dairy Month Lunch that reminds us that dairy is healthy, and an important part of a balanced diet.
06/14/2023 (Wed)	Ag In the Classroom workshops have met all across the state. These teachers are excited to bring what they have learned back to the classroom.

WUTM-FM

"TENNESSEE HOME AND FARM RADIO" PUBLIC AFFAIRS FEATURE

This news and information feature is a production of the Tennessee Farm Bureau and is distributed daily by the Tennessee Radio Network (TRN). This feature is a news and information vignette and covers many current event topics related to rural communities and the industry of agriculture across Tennessee. It features local guests as well as experts from across the state speaking on various topics. This feature airs twice daily, Monday through Friday at 11:20AM and 4:20PM Central, and is two minutes in length. The feature is hosted by Tennessee Farm Bureau's Lee Maddox and Amy Beckham. Summaries of topics are listed below.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:
DATE	DESCRIPTION
06/15/2023 (Thu)	For the past 16 years, the Middle Tennessee Research and Education Center in Spring Hill has been holding their Fruits of the Backyard field day, where they provide timely information for growers and extension agents to better manage fruit crops in your backyard or an even larger space.
06/16/2023 (Fri)	Jacob Massey from Petersburg, Tennessee was named champion at the 2023 World Livestock Auctioneer Championship. This was the 59th World Championship held this year at Arcadia Stockyard in Arcadia, Florida, and presented by the Livestock Marketing Association.
06/19/2023 (Mon)	a group of 12 Tennessee 4-H students has been spending part of their summer in Alaska learning about the states agriculture and 4-H program. two of these students detail what the experience in Alaska has been like and what they've learned.
06/20/2023 (Tue)	A lot of sightings of black bears the last couple of weeks in the mid-state area, and TWRA officials expect even more as the bears look to reclaim territory.
06/21/2023 (Wed)	Today is the first official day of summer, although it may have felt like it for a few weeks now. But this is the Summer Solstice, the longest day of the year and the Farmers Almanac has all kinds of info on the weather and more.
06/22/2023 (Thu)	Tennessee Farmers Cooperative continues to develop young associates in their management trainee program to ensure a stronger future for our most important industry.
[END QTR]

WUTM-FM

"REELFOOT FORWARD: A WEST TENNESSEE PODCAST" PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAM

This weekly educational/informational program celebrates the culture, spirit, accomplishments and history of West Tennessee and the Kentenn region. This podcast-style program is produced by Discovery Park of America in Union City, Tennessee, and offers information to people new to the area and to people who want to learn more about the local region. A different guest is interviewed each week; some guests include people actively making a difference in local culture and economy, while other guests are historians who provide insight on the rich culture of the local area. Program airs Sundays at Noon Central.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:
DATE	TIME	LENGTH	SHOW#	PGM	DESCRIPTION	DISTRIBUTOR
4/2/2023 (Sun)	12:00	21:00	31023	Reelfoot Forward: A West Tennessee Podcast	In this episode, we sit down with Scott Guyman, the owner of the Fulton Railroaders, as he explores the intersection of baseball, legacy and culture. The Fulton Railroaders is a small-town league that invites players from across the country to play a 40-game schedule during the summer, all with a wooden bat. Guymon outlines the important role that baseball has played in shaping our West Tennessee communities and the history of the Fulton Railroaders. He takes us on a journey through the history of baseball as he shares his deep knowledge of the game and his experience running a successful minor league team.	Discovery Park of America, Union City, TN Host Scott Williams
4/9/2023 (Sun)	12:00	25:00	31022	Reelfoot Forward: A West Tennessee Podcast	In this episode, we welcome Powerhouse Athletics owner, Jacob Dublin. We hear about Dublin's affinity for being a new business owner and a mentor to the young people of West Tennessee. Dublin shares his transition from student to coach and the values he learned from his own experiences as an athlete at Bryan College. He discusses how his belief in humility, hard work and a practical outlook has led him to a leadership role and how these practices guide and inspire him in his work with high school athletes.	Discovery Park of America, Union City, TN Host Scott Williams
4/16/2023 (Sun)	12:00	25:00	31022	Reelfoot Forward: A West Tennessee Podcast	In this episode, we welcome Powerhouse Athletics owner, Jacob Dublin. We hear about Dublin's affinity for being a new business owner and a mentor to the young people of West Tennessee. Dublin shares his transition from student to coach and the values he learned from his own experiences as an athlete at Bryan College. He discusses how his belief in humility, hard work and a practical outlook has led him to a leadership role and how these practices guide and inspire him in his work with high school athletes. (repeat)	Discovery Park of America, Union City, TN Host Scott Williams
4/23/2023 (Sun)	12:00	41:00	31024	Reelfoot Forward: A West Tennessee Podcast	On the morning of Friday, April 5, 1968, West Tennessean Norman Lane, a recent casualty of the Vietnam War, lay in repose in a government-issued casket at the Brownsville, Tennessee Funeral Home. On the same morning, at the R.S. Lewis Funeral Home in Memphis, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. lay in repose in a temporary bronze casket. The world knows the story of Dr. King's life and his legacy. Now, thanks to the research and work of Al Claiborne, the world will discover the sacrifice of Lane. In this episode, Claiborne, Brownsville native and Professor Emeritus of Biochemistry at Wake Forest School of Medicine in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, shares details from his new book, "A Time Past, Or What Might Have Been . . . The Odyssey of Norman Lane." Included in the conversation is how Claiborne used letters, interviews with his friends and colleagues and a thorough dive into all kinds of archival materials to tell one soldier's inspiring story.	Discovery Park of America, Union City, TN Host Scott Williams

WUTM-FM

"REELFOOT FORWARD: A WEST TENNESSEE PODCAST" PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAM

This weekly educational/informational program celebrates the culture, spirit, accomplishments and history of West Tennessee and the Kentenn region. This podcast-style program is produced by Discovery Park of America in Union City, Tennessee, and offers information to people new to the area and to people who want to learn more about the local region. A different guest is interviewed each week; some guests include people actively making a difference in local culture and economy, while other guests are historians who provide insight on the rich culture of the local area. Program airs Sundays at Noon Central.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:
DATE	TIME	LENGTH	SHOW#	PGM	DESCRIPTION	DISTRIBUTOR
5/7/2023 (Sun)	12:00	32:00	27448	Reelfoot Forward: A West Tennessee Podcast	Have you ever wondered the importance that a cotton mill would have on a community? Danny Walden from Dyersburg, Tenn., who was on a previous episode about the missing town of Minglewood, joins Scott to discuss the impact the cotton industry had in the small community of Dyersburg right before the Great Depression and how the town continued forward even after the depression. He also gives us some insider information about what was found in a safe of the cotton mill after it was pillled from a fire in the early 1900s. Be sure to check out the Dyer County Museum for the steam whistle that was blown for shift change and the contents that were found inside the safe.	Discovery Park of America, Union City, TN Host Scott Williams
5/28/2023 (Sun)	12:00	31:00	27302	Reelfoot Forward: A West Tennessee Podcast	If you've ever wondered what it would be like to quit your job in the city and create a whole new world in a friendly rural community, you'll love hearing Kathy Dumont's story. After searching for a place that would offer a simpler, more peaceful life, she and husband, Michael, found what they call "paradise." In addition to their 400-acre hobby farm, complete with restored farmhouse, where they raise baby doll sheep, Australian shepherds and rescue horses, they've acquired and restored many properties in Linden, Tennessee. Their renovations, including an inn built in 1939 now named the Commodore Hotel, have been so successful, they inspired the creation of the Blooming Arts Festival that takes place in Linden each March. When they first arrived in town in 2007, there were 14 vacant storefronts. Today, there are none and the town is booming. Kathy shares some tips on attracting visitors, using social media, the role of music in Middle and West Tennessee and more. Later, discover how the actual dinosaur eggs at Discovery Park of America are used to tell the sad story of how the oviraptor became the misunderstood mother of the dinosaur world.	Discovery Park of America, Union City, TN Host Scott Williams
6/4/2023 (Sun)	12:00	34:00	31014	Reelfoot Forward: A West Tennessee Podcast	Zac Elliott is the founder of Mad Cow Defenses, a firearm customization shop in Union City, Tennessee. In this episode, Elliott discusses his unconventional journey of joining the military and ultimately finding himself inspired to return from California to his hometown and beginning a new venture. He also provides listeners a unique insight into the role that word of mouth advertising can have on a business's success.	Discovery Park of America, Union City, TN Host Scott Williams

WUTM-FM

"REELFOOT FORWARD: A WEST TENNESSEE PODCAST" PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAM

This weekly educational/informational program celebrates the culture, spirit, accomplishments and history of West Tennessee and the Kentenn region. This podcast-style program is produced by Discovery Park of America in Union City, Tennessee, and offers information to people new to the area and to people who want to learn more about the local region. A different guest is interviewed each week; some guests include people actively making a difference in local culture and economy, while other guests are historians who provide insight on the rich culture of the local area. Program airs Sundays at Noon Central.

Issues addressed during this quarter include:
DATE	TIME	LENGTH	SHOW#	PGM	DESCRIPTION	DISTRIBUTOR
6/11/2023 (Sun)	12:00	33:00	31004	Reelfoot Forward: A West Tennessee Podcast	As the son of James Winchester, a wealthy Tennessee pioneer, entrepreneur and business partner of Andrew Jackson, Marcus B. Winchester had a front row seat to the birth of the volunteer state. In this episode, one of his descendants, Ginger Hadley, shares some of her research that brings to light more about Winchester's fascinating life, successful career and sad ending. Winchester grew up at Cragfont, the first and finest mansion on the Tennessee frontier, spent time as a prisoner during the War of 1812 and was present as Andrew Jackson signed the Treaty of Old Town with the Chickasaw. Winchester was appointed Memphis' first mayor and postmaster and opened one of the first general stores and ferries in the new town on the bluff of the Mississippi River. As Hadley discovered in her research, Winchester's marriage to a young woman with Osage ancestry resulted in much persecution and the couple and their children having to live outside the city limits of the town he governed.	Discovery Park of America, Union City, TN Host Scott Williams
6/25/2023 (Sun)	12:00	47:00	31025	Reelfoot Forward: A West Tennessee Podcast	The popular Cooper family, led by father Josh, recently visited Discovery Park and created content already receiving thousands of views. The family is well known for creating off-beat comedy, under the name Uploads of Fun, which has captured the attention of millions of viewers across various social media platforms. You'll have to watch their video to find out if they rated Discovery Park as "slay or no way." In this podcast episode, we discuss Josh Cooper's background in brand management, his journey to becoming a full-time content creator, the power of social media in today's digital age and the role his family plays in his work. We also explore his family's unique style of humor and discover why it resonates with such a broad audience.	Discovery Park of America, Union City, TN Host Scott Williams
[END QTR]

---

End of report.

---