

2018 Quarterly Issues Program List on KKCL-AM (Golden, CO)

KKCL-AM (“the Station”) airs programming in the public interest of the audience it serves in Jefferson County, Boulder County and Denver County, Colorado.

Current on-going public affairs programs for the period ending March 31, 2018 include, but are not limited to, the the Station airing the following daily public service messages:

1). Firefly Autism of Colorado.

Firefly is a 501c3 in Colorado aiding the families of those who’s members include individuals with Autism. The Station airs a series of daily public awareness messages about the work of this non-profit.

2). Jefferson County Public Health Department.

Jefferson County Public Health (“JCPH”) is a division of the governmental affairs of Jefferson County Government in Colorado. The Station air daily messages from JCPH that inform the public of healthy eating options available under the Food Stamp Assistance Program in Jefferson County, Colorado.

3). The Blue Bench.

The Blue Bench is a 501c3 in Colorado aiding those families and individuals that have been the victims of sexual assault in Colorado. The Station produced a public service message that airs daily seeking support for this non-profit in Colorado.

For more information please feel free to visit the Stations website or contact the Station directly via email: chucklontine@icloud.com