My name is Alisa Costa. I'm running for city council because I can see where things need to change. I believe we can improve the relationship between government and residents. What it comes down to is communication and transparency. That means when I'm in the room you're in the room. I believe that we can build belonging for the people who've been historically left out of the room. Join me work with me. (Paid for by Costa for Pittsfield)
