The Action for Dental Health law signed by the president last month is like the dental floss of federal initiatives: designed to reach those hard-to-reach people and places. Communities throughout Southern Illinois stand to benefit as the law specifically targets the advance of dental health care in struggling rural and urban communities, experts say.

“I think you’ll see more programs develop out of that, allowing for more care in rural and other underserved areas,” said Dave Marsh, director of government affairs for the Illinois State Dental Society.

Marsh said dentists in Illinois have made great strides in bringing programs to underserved areas with mobile dentistry vans and in-school screening and preventative programs. But many families still face barriers to affordable care.

by Martin Luther King Jr., Clayborne Carson (Editor)

4.33 · Rating details · 13,018 ratings · 517 reviews

Using Stanford University's voluminous collection of archival material, including previously unpublished writings, interviews, recordings, and correspondence, King scholar Clayborne Carson has constructed a remarkable first-person account of Dr. King's extraordinary life. Beginning with his boyhood, the book portrays King's education as a minister, his ascendancy as a leader of the Montgomery bus boycott, his pivotal role in the civil rights demonstrations in Washington, D.C., and his complex relationship with the Kennedy brothers, LBJ, Malcolm X, and numerous other leading figures of the day. GUEST(s): Chuck Kelly, Amelia Park Children's Museum & Jayne Mulligan, Westfield Athenaeum Trustee

Show Producer: Pete Cowles

8:00AM.... Opening PROGRAM THEME SONG INTRO: "YMCA" by the Village People 3:42
<http://youtu.be/Hn6zAIQnGxM> (fade after first phrase of Y-M-C-A)

DISCUSSION 1: How was everyone's New Year? How did everyone enjoy Westfield's first ever First Night on December 31st, 2018 the Amelia Park Complex. Very successful night with close to 3,500 people. Chuck, how did the museum make out with numbers? What were they offering for programs? Discuss the Amelia Park Children's Museum Penguin Plunge fundraiser. How many years has it been going? How many people do you expect? What is the long range weather forecast? What time does it take place? Can people register on site? How thick is the ice? Who cuts the ice? How long are people in the water? How cold is the water? What is it like to actually go into the water?

8:15AM SONG 2: Tom Hanks "Polar Express" 3:24 <https://youtu.be/OdZvwzU7HoA>

DISCUSSION 2: What is the Penguin Plunge fundraiser supporting? Ask Chuck Kelly to talk about the Amelia Park Children's Museum, the number of members, program offerings, age groups, rentals, staffing, volunteers, how do people volunteer? How long has the museum been in existence? Al Ferst would be proud of the museum!

8:30AM Song 3: Cy Coleman & Michael Stewart "Museum Song" 2:37 https://youtu.be/h782_Ne2XiQ

DISCUSSION 3: Introduce Jayne Mulligan who is an elected trustee for the Westfield Athenaeum. What does that mean Jayne? What are your responsibilities? Discuss the Athenaeum renovations. When did they start? What was done? When were they completed?

8:45AM SONG 4: "The Museum" 2:44 <https://youtu.be/S3NcOGnGrU8>

DISCUSSION 4: Continue discussion with Jayne Mulligan on the Athenaeum Renovations. How much was raised? What times are the open houses on Friday and Saturday and who are they for? What will people see? What is the next phase of renovations being planned? What will that budget entail? When will it start? Why have you chosen to make the Athenaeum your organization of choice to support and serve?

- Thank Chuck Kelly and Jayne Mulligan for being on the show.
- Thank show producer Pete Cowles for his support and help as the show producer.
- Thank the listening audience for tuning into Rock on Westfield, WSKB 89.5FM, listen to the "YouTube" podcast.

<https://youtu.be/6ZmROMci9CQ>

The life of rhythm guitarist, singer, songwriter, and composer Ray Rivera is a textbook example of the American story of how hard work plus determination equals success. Rivera grew up in an orphanage on Long Island and a foster home in the Bronx. As a teenager, he began to hang out in the clubs in Harlem, where jazz was being played all the time. He had started taking guitar lessons in his early teens and began his recording career in the 1950s. Rivera's songs have been recorded by Hank Jones, Billy Taylor, Cal Tjader, Joe Williams, Pucho & the Latin Soul Brothers, Claus Ogerman, Gale Garnett, Donald Byrd, the Ramsey Lewis Trio, Enzo Stuarti, and others. Rivera has sung, recorded, or performed with a who's who of jazz musicians, among them Jones, Ogerman, Dr. Billy Taylor, Milt Hinton, Roy Haynes, Donald Byrd, Art Mooney, Deodato, Irving Fields, and others. One of his best known songs, "You Been Talkin' 'Bout Me Baby," was recorded by Janis Joplin's San Francisco-based backing band, Big Brother & the Holding Company, and became a smash hit, in 1968, via that group's album Cheap Thrills. It also became a hit for the Ramsey Lewis Trio, who sold over a million copies of the song. Night Wind Rivera began his recording career in the 1950s for Webb Records, followed by singles for MGM and Decca. He's recorded more than a dozen albums under his own name. They include Light 'n' Easy for Rivelli Records, and Ain't That Good News for Merry-Go-Round Records in the late '60s. In the early '70s, he recorded Latin Workout for Mercury (arranged by Claus Ogerman), and The Now Sound of the Ray Rivera Orchestra (MGM Records), as well as A Touch of Latin for Hindsight Records. His 1980 album called Let Me Hear Some Jazz, for Insight Records, was nominated for a Grammy award. While some of Rivera's old vinyl is now out-of-print, fortunately, some of the sides are seeing the light of day on compact disc. He released Nightwind on Studio West in 1990, with Dr. Billy Taylor as guest pianist. Jazz film buffs will be interested to know that Rivera appears in the film The Cotton Club as guitarist in the Cab Calloway Orchestra.
