ISSUE: FAMILY, PARENTING AND RELATIONSHIPS

01/13/14 at 2pm...Faith and Family...30 minutes...Host Steve Wood spoke on a child's heart. To truly win a child's heart, Steve said we must be aware of three things. These three things were the crisis in the culture, the need to build strong character in our children, and promote goodwill in our youth. Steve also warned how parents must recognize anything which may hinder good character growth in our children as well.

01/20/14 at 2pm...Faith and Family...30 minutes...Host Steve Wood continued his talk on winning a child's heart. Steve mentioned the book Forming Intentional Disciples which shows how many young people are disengaged from good culture in society. Steve said many youth are suffering from interior emptiness, and need a course change.

02/03/14 at 2pm...Faith and Family ENCORE...30 minutes...Host Steve Wood spoke on the multiplication of immoral vices affecting the family. Culture when it is sick has a negative impact on society, according to Steve. Steve said we need to renew ourselves in a spirit of what is good for society.

02/10/14 at 2pm...Faith and Family...30 minutes...Host Steve Wood taught about the fundamental value to teach a child. We mistakenly teach mercantile rules without any motivating factor to follow them, according to Steve. Love is the primary value to teach a child. With love a child is motivated to do the good.

03/03/14 at 2pm...Faith and Family...30 minutes...Host Steve Wood taught on the ultimate goal of child training. Steve noted how parenting do's and don'ts have repercussions. He recommended parents write out their goals and plan how to achieve them. The ultimate goal should be the interior wellness in a child's life. The book First Things, First by Stephen Covey was recommended.

03/10/14 at 2pm...Faith and Family...30 minutes...Host Steve Wood taught on how introverts can also be charismatic. Steve said many view the charismatic personality as emotionally driven. But a quiet and contemplative demeanor can move us toward deeper things. Steve believed renewal of interior well being can awaken a charismatic personality. But first each of us needs to stop filling ourselves with materialistic things.
