FAITH IN ACTION (FIA) is a locally produced 28 minute program. It is co-hosted by station manager Jim Ganley and Brigid Ayer. Each program features one or more in-studio guests (or by phone) and addresses a particular issue. Each week, three programs are produced and aired. Some of the programs and their topics are listed below. The programs are aired every week on the following schedule:

Air Times

Monday 4:00 PM, Wednesday 4:30 PM, and Friday 4:00 PM.

10/14/2023

The Crisis of Trafficking in America - On this segment of Faith in Action, co-hosts Jim Ganley and Corky Aiken are joined by Katrina Terry, Founder & CEO of LION195 Against Trafficking Inc., who talks about her own turbulent childhood, how The Lord not only pulled her out of a horrible situation but then gave her a life's mission to find a home for kids rescued from the trafficking network which is what the organization LIONS195 Against Trafficking Inc. is doing in Indianapolis. She describes the unbelievable details of how kids can be sold into sex trafficking, which are not what the average American might think, and the difficulty in keeping them safe as there are so few places where they can find a loving, faith-filled home after being rescued. The website is <https://www.lion195.org/>.

11/7/2023

Fire Safety & the Holidays - On this segment of Faith in Action, co-hosts Jim Ganley and Brigid Ayer are joined by Timothy Griffin, Public Information Officer for the Carmel Fire Department, to talk about Fire Safety and the Holidays.
