Refinery outages, pipeline problems, and strict gas regulations are to blame for the gas shortage and price hike. Governor Jerry Brown ordered the California smog regulators to allow the winter blend gasoline to be sold a month earlier than normal to help drive down gas prices.
Date: OCTOBER 3, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – COLLEGE CASH Time: 4:00PM-5:00PM Length: 2:00 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Rudabeh Shahbazi reports that the LA Chamber of Commerce and the City of LA, along with various groups, partnered up for the Cash for College Convention to help students and their families access financial aid and pursue their college dreams. Organizers say students have received about $37 million in state and federal financial aid since the program began 11 years ago.
Date: OCTOBER 3, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – IE MEDICAL SCHOOL Time: 4:00PM-5:00PM Length: 2:00 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Rob McMillan reports UC Riverside is opening a full, accredited medical school. Because of the shortage of physicians in Riverside and San Bernardino counties, students and staff at UC Riverside hope the new medical school will address that need. The new medical school's inaugural class will start in Fall 2013.

Date: OCTOBER 4, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – OC AUTO SHOW Time: 5:00PM-6:00PM Length: 2:00 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Dave Kunz reports that the OC Auto Show is in the spotlight as gas prices soar. This year, the auto show had 100 different models of vehicles people can see but also test drive. Beyond high mile brands like the hybrid, plug-in cars also showcased at the event.
Date: OCTOBER 5, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – MORTGAGE HELP Time: 4:30AM-7:00AM, 11:00AM-12:00PM, 4:00PM-5:00PM Length: 8:15 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	John Gregory reports on the five day American Dream event, which is put on by the Neighborhood Assistance Corporation of American. The event helped people keep and buy the home of their dreams. Even though foreclosures have been going down, a lot of people have lost their jobs and have been in desperate need for help to pay for their mortgage. NACA said it could get those who qualify rates as low as 2 percent.
Date: OCTOBER 5, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – FUEL SAVING Time: 5:00PM-6:00PM Length: 2:45 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Dave Kunz reports consumer websites, like edmunds.com, are giving drivers tips to save money on gas. According to the Automobile Club principal technician, newer cars are now more fuel efficient than older cars. If drivers plan to keep their current car, accelerating slowly, keeping speeds down and using cruise control are all ways to save gas.
Date: OCTOBER 8, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – CHARITIES GAS Time: 5:00PM-6:00PM Length: 2:10 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Rudabeh Shahbazi reports soaring gas prices are hurting local charities, like St. Vincent Meals on Wheels and the LA Regional Food Bank. These charities provide meals to people who are unable to help themselves. They need more money because more of their budget is devoted to gas instead of buying food. The LA Food Bank is the hub for 640 other smaller agencies throughout LA County and they hope that donations will pick up for the holiday season.

Date: OCTOBER 8, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – IE TRUCK GAS Time: 6:00PM-6:30PM Length: 2:10 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Rob McMillan reports that demand for diesel vehicles is soaring because there is no shortage of diesel fuel. At Riverside Volkswagen, diesel sales are up to 30 percent compared with this time last year. Diesel vehicles get good mileage and diesel fuel is cheaper now. However, under typical pricing patterns, diesel gas is more expensive than regular gas.
Date: OCTOBER 19 & 20, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – CAL JOBLESS Time: 5:00PM-6:00PM, 5:00AM-7:00AM Length: 4:20 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Robert Holguin reports that California's unemployment rate is 10.2 percent, down from 10.6 percent. It's still much higher than the national average which dropped to 7.8 percent in September. There was a 1.8 percent job increase in LA County, 0.4 percent increase in Orange County and 0.4 percent decrease in Riverside and San Bernardino counties.
Date: OCTOBER 19 & 20, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – IE SB BANKRUPTCY Time: 6:00PM-6:30PM, 5:00AM-7:00AM Length: 3:45 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Rob McMillan reports that the City of San Bernardino stopped making payments to the California Public Employees' Retirement System due to its budget deficit of close to $45 million. The city's pension plan is still 66 percent funded, so there is no immediate threat to the retirement benefits. A CalPER's spokesman says this could hurt retirement benefits in the future. The mayor says the city is working on a payment plan.
Date: OCTOBER 29, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – IE MORTGAGE HELP Time: 4:30AM-7:00AM Length: 3:55 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Darsha Philips reports on the American Dream Event, hosted by the Neighborhood Assistance Corporation, at the Ontario Convention Center. Date: NOVEMBER 12, 18, 19 & 21, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – EARLY SHOPPING PLANS Time: 4:00PM-5:00PM, 4:00PM-5:30PM, 6:00PM-6:30PM, 11:00PM-12:00AM, 4:30AM-7:00AM, 11:00AM-12:00PM, 11:00PM-11:35PM Length: 19:40 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Rudabeh Shahbazi, Amy Powell, Darsha Philips, Rob Hayes and Leanne Suter report that many major store chains will open Thanksgiving day for Black Friday shopping. An estimated 147 million people are expected to shop Black Friday weekend, which is nearly half of all Americans. According to the National Retail Federation, about a quarter of shoppers were at stores by midnight on Black Friday last year. Workers at 1,000 Wal-Mart stores are planning to walk out on Thanksgiving day because of the extended hours. Early store hours have outraged some customers and employees, but many shoppers are still planning to show up early to save on electronics.
Date: NOVEMBER 12, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – OC HOMELESS Time: 4:00PM-5:00PM Length: 2:00 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Eileen Frere reports on the need for donations the Orange County Rescue Mission is facing this season. The Mission hopes to collect jackets, blankets, socks and sleeping bags to distribute to the homeless in Orange County. According to a 2011 Orange County Homeless Census and survey, more than 40 percent cited job loss as their main reason for being homeless. With higher food costs, the Rescue Mission says canned goods, dairy products and fresh produce are in as much demand as winter clothing.
Date: NOVEMBER 13, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – HOLIDAY SALES PROJECTIONS Time: 11:00AM-12:00PM, 5:00PM-6:00PM Length: 4:10 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Rudabeh Shahbazi reports that sales are up 4 percent this year, according to retailers and economists. One economist from the Los Angeles County Economic Development Corporation says consumer confidence is up despite slow income growth and unemployment. Many stores are opening earlier than Black Friday. Many economists say consumers are taking a longer period of time to spread their money out. According to the LA Economic Development Council, more than half of shoppers will be spending their money online this season.

Date: NOVEMBER 13, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – CSU FEES Time: 6:00PM-6:30PM Length: 2:30 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Robert Holguin reports there will be no tuition hikes at Cal State and UC Schools because the proposed increases have been postponed. CSU officials say there are still too many students who are retaking classes and too many who remain enrolled for too long. Under the proposed fee structure, students would have to pay extra if they repeat courses, if they enroll in 18 hours or more a semester, or if they take too long to graduate. CSU officials say the proposed fee system would have freed up 18,000 enrollment slots and generate $30 million a year.
Date: NOVEMBER 14 & 20, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – LIMO THANKS Time: 5:00PM-6:00PM, 4:30AM-7:00AM, 11:00AM-12:00PM Length: 6:55 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Leo Stallworth, Michelle Tuzee and Subha Ravindhran report on the annual Jackson Limousine turkey giveaway. Needy families, the elderly and the disabled lined up overnight to receive a food box. Although donation levels have been low, Jackson Limousine was able to give away as many as 10,000 turkeys with the last minute donations.
Date: NOVEMBER 15, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – COURT CLOSURES Time: 4:30AM-7:00AM, 11:00AM-12:00PM, 5:00PM-6:00PM Length: 8:20 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Qwesi McCray reports that ten LA County courthouses are set to close in the coming months because of budget shortfalls. $80 million needs to be cut from the budget by June 2013. Criminal and civil cases will likely be moved to other courthouses, which will delay trials, create longer lines and cause more layoffs. More than 300 people were laid off in 2010 and 150 more people this past June. The current closures and layoffs will likely continue through June 2013.

Economists predict people will spend even more this year and shoppers in Burbank say the great deals were worth camping out for in the cold. Many were shopping for the best deals on electronics. With stores offering more layaway plans and other programs to entice buyers, local shoppers say Black Friday has turned into a family event. Experts say there are 20,000 Black Friday advertised deals this year, which is up from 17,000 last year.
Date: NOVEMBER 23, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – WAL-MART PROTEST Time: 4:00PM-5:00PM, 5:00PM-6:00PM Length: 5:00 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Miriam Hernandez reports that about a thousand demonstrators, including some employees, marched outside a Wal-Mart in Paramount. Protestors were calling for better jobs, better wages and an opportunity to unionize. The aim of the protest was to draw public attention. Wal-Mart says they will discuss working conditions with the workers themselves but not with outside organizers.

The National Retail Federation estimates that overall retail sales in November and December will be up 4.1 percent. The CEO of Newegg.com, an e-retailer, says his company has been taking more customer calls than ever before. The warehouse in the City of Industry has been very busy as orders keep rolling in. This is the first Cyber Monday since California's new law has taken effect, forcing online retailers out of state to collect California state sales tax.
Date: NOVEMBER 26, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – LMU PARKING Time: 5:00PM-6:00PM Length: 2:25 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Miriam Hernandez reports on the parking problems at Loyola Marymount University. There are nearly 7,000 students enrolled at LMU and many students say they fight for parking on a daily basis. LMU will start charging a parking fee in January that will cost students close to $700 a year. The funds are expected to help build a new parking structure at the school. LMU administrators hope this will encourage students to walk and take public transportation. With officials set to charge students for on campus parking, nearby residents say the parking problem could get worse.
Date: NOVEMBER 28, 2012 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – NEWPORT DOCK FEES Time: 5:00PM-6:00PM Length: 1:45 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Carlos Granda reports that boat owners may not participate in the Christmas boat parade in Newport Beach if a planned dock fee increase goes into effect. The current fee is a flat rate of $100 per year, but the proposal could raise that to about $1,500 to $2,000 per year. The City Manager says the increase would be the fair market value. The annual boat parade, hosted by the Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce, brings in tens of thousands of visitors from all over the country. Boat owners are threatening to boycott the parade if council members do not put off voting on the new proposal.
