

Capital Region Sunday: a weekly half hour Local Public affairs show produced by Townsquare Media Albany.

1st Quarter, 2016; January 1-March 31

February 7, 2016

LLS- Information about the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's annual fundraising campaign, The Man and Woman of the Year Competition. Details on how the community can get involved and how the money raised during this campaign helps fight cancer and assist people who have leukemia or lymphoma.

Jay Honsinger of 'Chase the Cure' was the guest. He discussed what it is being done locally to help people with Niemann Pick Type-C Disease, which is the equivalent of Childhood Alzheimers.

February 14, 2016

St Jude – General discussion about the work done at St. Jude Children's Research hospital and how it benefits both children and adults all over the world and in the Capital Region. Information on upcoming fundraisers in our area including WGNA's annual Country Cares for St. Jude Radiothon this spring and how the community can help.

March 6, 2016

Heather LeVeille, Executive Director of The Bethlehem Children's School discussed the school's "Serve The Chef" fundraiser to raise funds for the not for profit school.

March 13, 2016

Monica Boeckmann the Executive Director of Senior Services of Albany discussed March being National Wheels on Meals month and what her organization does year round in the capital region,

March 20, 2016

Pamela Polacsek, Communications specialist at Saratoga Bridges. Saratoga Bridges has proudly been providing the highest level of services to people with developmental disabilities and their families for more than 55 years by promoting their abilities and achievements in every aspect of community life. Their conscientious employees work diligently and with great compassion to care for over 800 individuals by ensuring they are able to realize their goals, hopes and dreams. They are committed to promoting full, productive and contributing lives as they work, volunteer, socialize and recreate. Saratoga Bridges philosophy truly is that every day is full of possibilities! The segment featured a discussion about March also being Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month.

March 27, 2016

Samantha Adkisson The Youth Program Director at The Hope 7 Community Center in Troy discussed The 6th Annual “ A Taste of Troy” fundraiser to benefit Hope 7 Community Center’s Youth Programs and Food Pantry.