This quarter of 2022 held the National midterm elections across the country. The elections seemingly went off without notable allegations of fraud. There were some runoffs and close elections. The surprise that occurred was that there was no red wave as was predicted by many and has been dictated by history how the vote will usually go. With a split house it shows again how closely divided the United States is.

The rise in Covid, flu and RSV amongst the population has the medical community worried about the nearing Holiday season and encourages everyone to update their covid and flu vaccinations.

Cost of living issues are being felt across the country. Food, gas, services, and daily products are seeing the highest of prices in decades. Crime and violence are no longer concerns in just the urban areas, rural less populated areas are experiencing crime at a higher rate.

Polnet feels that the importance of localized programming communicates all the issues mentioned above a local understanding for the benefit of the listener.

Media Tracks located in Des Plaines produces 2 localized programs (RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL and VIEWPOINTS). Both shows are syndicated nationwide and are nationally popular. But being based local, many guests are from local areas and information is of particular interest to this area. While these 2 programs not only fulfill the public issues needs for this period, the programs are of local origin and each program has multiple subjects being covered, just makes this an essential informative source to all our listeners.

Polnet is proud that all programming that originates from our Northbrook facility is locally based in the Chicagoland area. The Chicago Greek Hours as heard on WEEF based out of Morton Grove. K-Radio", the popular long running Korean program on WKTA is in Prospect Heights. The Entertaining and informative multiple Russian programming that airs on WKTA all originate in areas of Northbrook/IWheeling locations.

All these programs produce live news/community programming daily. Our brokers have the ability to inform of events and happenings in the home language of their broadcast. This is one of the reasons why free broadcast local radio is an essential broadcast tool to our specialized listening audience. Many of our producers have web streaming, publications, and direct phone lines so listeners can connect multiple ways with their news source.

Local community institutions still provide many free services and events which we provide information to our audience in a public service announcement form. Sources such as the Northbrook Public Library provide many seminar types of services open to the public as well as the Lake County Health Department will on occasion have free health screenings on various concerns such as high blood pressure and diabetes.

Polnet is always looking to bring the best quality of sound and information to its listeners. Therefore, we encourage listeners to communicate back to us so we can be more informed of their interest, thoughts and concerns, as well as events. Communication is key to our business and to our listeners.

PSA – COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS – ALERT NOTIFICATIONS

As with all multi-language stations, there is a specific and unique audience that is supporting and listening to its airwaves. Our producers know that to keep their listeners “in the know” with events, programs, notifications, seminars, fairs... is a way to connect the audience and return the audience and in return, the audience stays in tune with the program.

All the programs broadcast these entities in the homeland language to make all information clear and timely to its audience.

Polnet Communications LTD, has always supported the PSA venders such as the

AD COUNCIL

IBA

Lake County Health department and Lake County College

Along with other state and local non-for-profits organizations. Usually we are able to provide a 60 seconds spot on top of each hour along with the station legal I.D.

The following are a sample of resources and sources of materials used to provide our PSA and community announcement choices. We also do not manipulate our producers with announcement choices, we feel that they know what is concerning and is of importance to their listenership.

Also during our self produced programming (MUSICLINES) we run several spots of PSA material during these times.
