

2nd Quarter 2018 Issues Programming

Public Affairs Issue Programming / The Adam Ritz Show

Each week, WNYN-FM, WWMP-FM and WSKI-AM air the Public Affair program “The Adam Ritz Show”.

“The Adam Ritz Show” is Social Awareness Radio covering topics from Bullying to Alcohol to Charities and Foundations. The half-hour program features Fellowship, News talk, Sports talk, and Public Affairs and is hosted by Adam Ritz. Adam travels the country interviewing inspiring people, professional athletes, and social experts. More information is available at <http://adamritzshow.com/>

The show airs on WNYN and WWMP at 7am Sundays, and on WSKI at 6am Sundays.

The following is a list of the participants and the subjects addressed for this quarter. The list shows the download date; shows ran the following Sunday.

June 22, 2018 Our show begins with a live studio audience at the University of Nevada Reno with the West Coast Order of Kappa Alpha. In Reno, we honor Nicholas Loper from the University of Arizona and Matthew Mudd from Arizona State University for their chapter’s philanthropies, raising money and awareness for the MDA and a KA member who suffered a stroke. Our feature interview is with Andrew Seymour, the GM of the Fort Myers Miracle minor league baseball team. Mr. Seymour shares with us the role that the Miracle baseball players have in the Fort Myers community, as well as getting fired up to host spring training for the Minnesota Twins from their Hammond Stadium in Fort Myers. Elliott Bloom also joins us from Purdue University, where he acts as the Director of Basketball Operations for the Boilermakers. Social Media responsibility is the subject on the court with Mr. Bloom, as we get an insiders look at how a Division 1 basketball team handles Social Media throughout the course of a season.

June 15, 2018

We start with a live audience at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, as we highlight their IFC Exec. John Hudgens about Mustang community service projects with At Risk Kids, Goodwill, and Meals on Wheels. We welcome back Scott Shirley, founder of Uplifting Athletes, to talk about his new digital project called Pledge Platform. Pledge Platform is a unique way for college football players to raise money with performance based giving. Segments include a conversation with Special Olympian Mary McClamroch, talking about her championship swimming and Special Olympics spokesperson initiative. We cover history and education in Estes Park, CO learning more about The Stanley Hotel in the Rocky Mountain National Park. This show wraps with a recent social awareness marijuana arrest that highlights decisions and consequences.

June 8, 2018

This show begins at the Leguna Beach Christian Retreat with a live studio audience, as we feature Nick Koontz from Kappa Alpha Order talking about the nearly $7,000 raised for MDA at Florida Gulf Coast University. Our feature interview is with Antone Davis. Antone was an All American football player at the University of Tennessee, an NFL player with the Philadelphia Eagles, and is now back in Knoxville with the UT Volunteers football team as a coach, overseeing the Vol For Life program to facilitate life skills and more. Segments include discussing Drug Awareness at Tarleton State University in Stephenville TX, a Scholarship for a fallen brother at the University of North Texas in Denton, TX, and honoring Logan Hallock at Appalachian State University for the Mountaineers' service work in El Salvador.

June 1, 2018

We begin with a live studio audience at Lock Haven University showcasing a student charity to benefit the Make A Wish Foundation. Our feature interview is with Jill Farmer, with the Wheelchair Rugby National Championship in Louisville, KY. We learn from Jill about the governing body USQRA, United States Quad Rugby Association, and about the incredible inspirational athletes that compete in this sport. We also catch up with friend of the show Nonnie Owens, a relationship expert, and chat about tips to have a successful relationship with every person in your life.

May 24, 2018

We begin with a live studio audience at the University of Wisconsin Platteville and learn about how the students are advocating the mature management of alcohol. We catch up with Reggie Hunt, the team chaplain and local pastor for the Appalachian State University football Mountaineers. Reggie shares with us some of the secrets behind his game day pre game speeches like the one he gave before App State upset Michigan in the Big House a few years ago. We have a philanthropy update from the University of Southern California and learn about how students are trying to beat a world record for making sandwiches to benefit the Hungry of Los Angeles. And we wrap up the show with Sheriece Sadberry, a counselor with the University of Kansas athletic department. Dr. Sadberry shares with us topics ranging from alcohol awareness to Rock Chalk Jayhawk.

May 18, 2018

The show kicks off in California with a live audience on campus at CSU Dominguez Hills as we interview Toros baseball player Danny Haley about their role in the community. Our feature interview is with ESPN analyst Jeff Saturday. Jeff and I discuss the ramifications of a lower DUI blood alcohol percentage. Next up we talk with Jay Baker about fitness and long distance biking. We are proud to have Jenny Anchondo from FOX4 in Dallas back on the show to discuss the 24 hour news cycle and how it could affect your children's outdoor exercise time. Our show wraps up at the University of Iowa with a Drug Awareness Public Service Announcement.

May 11, 2018

We begin with a live studio audience at UW Stevens Point as we honor Alexis Hartman for her work with the elderly. Our feature interview is with Duncan Fletcher from PAADS. We welcome back Duncan to talk about Athlete Development, and the PAADS Athlete Development Summit coming up in New York City May 1st and 2nd. Topics as important as Dating Violence will be covered at the Summit, hosted by the Professional Association of Athlete Development Specialists. More information at www.paads.org.

We travel to Southern California to learn about Camp For Good Times, at the University of Redlands, with Bulldogs student athlete Mike Khoury. We round out the show with the Director of Bears Care with the Chicago Bears to learn about the Windy City NFL franchise's philanthropical efforts throughout Chicago and the United States.

May 4, 2018

We begin the show with a live audience at Whittier College in Los Angeles, as we meet student athletes Melanie Peel and Kevin Ewing and learn about their academics and community service. Our feature interview is with Tim Harms, a Director of Communications with the American Heart Association. Tim provides tips on heart health awareness and living a healthy lifestyle, as we promote The Indy Heart Ball, a Black Tie Gala Event this coming May 17 in Indianapolis. Ticket information and more at www.indyheartball.org.

Segments include highlighting a charity at West Virginia University... Alcohol & Drug Awareness at Furman University in South Carolina... and we wrap up the show learning about a new initiative called Champions Together, which works with Special Olympics and High School athletics to provide 'Servant Leadership, Changing Lives.

April 27, 2018

We begin this episode with a simulcast of a live television studio audience as Adam hosts Channel KA, an online video channel talking about Leadership, Decision Making, and more. Our feature interview is with Head Basketball Coach at Purdue University, Matt Painter. Coach Painter shares his thoughts on Fatherhood, Academics, Social Media, and more.

Segments include speaking with Buffalo Bills Director of Player Development Paul Lancaster about the NFL's continuing education program...

We also highlight a conversation he had with Tim Harms from the American Heart Association about Heart Health and the www.indyheartball.org.

April 20, 2018

We start the show live on campus at the University of Memphis with the gentlemen of Kappa Alpha Order, and salute D.J. Balazs from William Jewell College for their service work with Battered Women Shelters. We talk with Associate Athletic Director Casey Hunt at Missouri State University about a great service project called "Meals A Million" in which the student athletes provide meals for a million hungry people across the globe. Casey also commends the Missouri State Bears for the All Sports Trophy for their academic excellence. We chat with Midwestern State head football coach Bill Maskill about the service work of his players, including efforts with Relay For Life to benefit cancer. Then Hunter Smith joins us to talk about his career in the NFL, his book The Jersey Effect, and his band The Hunter Smith Band.

April 13, 2018

This show begins with a live studio audience with the Missouri State Bears, this time with the female student athletes and softball player Ali Trickey talking about The Miracle League, which is their baseball game with kids with disabilities that leaves a smile on everyone's face. Our feature interview is with Jesse Lyons, the Communications Director for Kappa Alpha Order national fraternity. Jesse shares his 12 years experience as a Leadership Consultant to talk about how important Leadership is with young adults across America. We welcome back Lee Lonzo to highlight his work with the Special Olympics. And we chat in Boulder, CO with Lowell Wightman of 360 Mindset about sports psychology and getting your best performance and production with special breathing techniques.

April 6, 2018

This show begins live with Urban Meyer's Ohio State Buckeyes as we honor offensive lineman Jack Mewhort with the 'Caught In The Act' award for integrity and character. We travel to Pittsburgh to speak with Jim Chester, Athletic Director at Penn State Greater Allegheny, about his student athletes' community service projects. We welcome back Bystander Behavior expert Mike Dilbeck to talk about several issues in that affect all of us from the world of Bystander Behavior.