PA-mazing segment: the total solar eclipse and how Pymatuning State Park is planning for it.					In the PA-mazing segment, Pymatuning State Park in Crawford County is spotlighted. It sits in the northwestern part of the Commonwealth and come April 8th, it's going to be a beehive of activity, as the nation lapses into darkness during the total solar eclipse that will be taking place. Laura discusses the park's plans for the sea of expected visitors with Park Manager Dan Bickel, who has a number of eclipse-related activities planned for the day.
Understanding Medical Marijuana, Part 2: Delta 8 THC Interview with Craig Williams, Republican candidate for PA Attorney General	The Commonwealth Beat with Laura LeBeau	03/24/21		30 mins	On this episode, Laura brings Part 2 of her interview with Dr. Kent Vrana, Chairman of the Department of Pharmacology and Director of the Medical Marijuana Research Group at the Penn State College of Medicine in Hershey. In Part 2, we'll hear his concerns over a manmade derivative from cannabis, Delta 8 THC. Because of a loophole in the US Farm Bill, it's being sold as a natural product, but it's far from natural. There's no oversight on how its produced and it has the potential to be a very dangerous substance. Laura continues her series of interviews with the candidates seeking their party's nomination for PA Attorney General. State Rep. Craig Williams is not the GOP-endorsed candidate in the two-person race in the Primary, but he maintains he's got the best chance of winning in November. He provides details about his extensive military background and work as a military lawyer, his work as a Federal Prosecutor, and why he believes he is the best person seeking the open seat for PA Attorney general.
