

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS

Q3 2020 – Q1 2021

PREPARED BY: JEFF SLAKEY

iFiberone News Radio (KMAS) website archives news stories regarding local community issues and is available on the internet from any computer connected to the internet for community access. The website is www.ifiberonenewsradio.com

Q3 2020

- Washington's minimum wage to increase to $13.69 in 2021
- Post office defends on claims that cuts threaten election
- US death toll from coronavirus hits 200,000
- Thurston County - Ballots Mailed to Military and Overseas Voters for the November 3 General Election
- Girl Scouts, State Parks team up for next free day, Sept. 13
- DK Metcalf poised for breakout second season with Seahawks
- Lack of Child Care Leads to Tough Decisions for Parents

Q4 2020

- Thurston Chamber's New Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Workshop Series is Free and the Community Invited to Attend
- Federal officials investigating fiery oil train derailment
- Kilmer to Hold End of Year Telephone Town Hall
- No. 25 Gonzaga women hold on to defeat Montana 58-51
- Applications open for new round of state Working Washington business grants
- State Quitline Celebrates 20 years of Helping Washingtonians Break Free from Tobacco
- Washington governor asked to rethink restaurant restrictions

Q1 2021

- WA Bill Would Enable Public Banking to Support Infrastructure Needs
- Grays Harbor and Mason County Teachers Awarded $22k in Grants
- Shelton-Mason County Chamber Is Sole Scholarship Recipient In WA
- Shelton's Sanderson Field one of six finalists for WA's next major airport hub
- SHELTON - Notice of 2021 Water and Sewer Utility Base Rate Increase

- Washington, Oregon, 29 tribes sue over plan to move archives