Description of Issue	Program / Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program / Segment
1) Economic Hardship and The Job Search	Four Magic Words	11/24/2013	11am; 7pm	25 min 1 sec	When times are tough, it is even more important to be thankful for what you have, however small. It is an attitude that brings hope to life and brings strength those in job interviews and fumbling for food stamps. The KQLC founding pastor sets the tone for this day called Thanksgiving by noting that it is not how much you have, but how thankful you are for what you have that makes life better. Those who seek work as resources dwindle may find strength in simply giving thanks.
2) Changing Times and Emotional Health	Talking With God	10/20/2013	11am; 7pm	23 min 58 sec	When the forces around people in stress are fomenting change, stability may be found in talking with the one who created all that is, including ourselves. Staying close to the one who does not change enables us to navigate cultural and economic change in stride. This installment of the Hour of Hope does just that, provides hope in the mist of rapidly changing and unpredictable times.
2) Changing Times and Emotional Health	When bad things happen...	10/27/2013	11 am; 7pm	24 min 28 sec	Statistics prove out that crisis events cluster together, and those at the center of those events wonder whom to blame. Some even point the finger at themselves. Rev. L. C. Orrick gives hope to those who wonder why bad things happen and how to remain stable in life and faith when finding the way back to normal, everyday life again. The turbulence of change seems to magnify our response to fluctuating conditions and rapid change. Hope may be found in faith and knowing that it's not all our fault.

3) Families Under Stress	Forgiveness	10/13/2013	11am; 7pm	25 min 48 sec	This devotional on forgiveness by our founder addresses directly issues that burden families living together under the increasing pressures of daily life with limited resources. Responses to the imperfections of those around us increase exponentially without offering the gift of forgiveness to each other and accepting the forgiveness of our maker so freely offered.
4) Making a Stronger Community	People Loving People	11/3/2013	11am; 7pm	22 min 27 sec	Making a stronger community means having a rugged kind of love that accepts and affirms others on principle. This is not always easy. Especially in communities like the ones in our service area, a loving attitude toward others who come from different backgrounds strengthens the bonds in schools, community groups, and places of worship. Persons of faith should, but do not always lead the way. The world is hungry for love like this. An installment of the Hour of Hope.
4) Making a Stronger Community	The Foundation	12/29/2013	11 am; 7pm	25 min 1 sec	Inspirational and challenging broadcast: There is a firm foundation of belief that lies under the various faith groups who follow Jesus Christ. Recognizing this fact makes it possible for dissimilar communities of faith to work together for the good of everyone. Not recognizing it fragments and divides the community, tearing down rather than building up. Houses of worship have an important role in creating a stronger community. Unity on important issues that affect everyone does not call for identical belief, but identical compassion for others.
