Dub City Derby Girls	Perspectives	Talked with Julia Belcher and Kirsten George, Teammates, Dub City Derby. They are starting the New Year off by changing their name from Dub City Derby Girls to Dub City Derby (to be more inclusive). We went over 10 resolutions that are suggested online including: lose weight, spend time with people, learn something new, volunteer, etc. All of which listeners can do by becoming part of the roller derby community. Dub City in played 16 sanction games in 2016 and increased their standing greatly! Listeners can sign up to play, be volunteers, derby boosters, all kinds of fun ways to get involved. More info is available on their FB page.	"Julia Belcher and Kirsten George, Teammates, Dub City Derby www.dubcityrollerderby.com	01-01-17	30 min

Genetics Testing	Perspectives	Talked with Conni Murphy, Dir. of the Cancer Genetics Program at Good Samaritan Medical Center. They offer a wide variety of genetic screening in addition to the commonly heard of BRAC1 and BRAC2. Patients get a script from their Physician and fill out a long history of theirs/their family medical health. Once they submit that then the center reviews all the data, builds a family tree of who needs testing and for what genes. They then discuss with the patients. Once testing is done they followup with various recommendations for treatment (medicine, preventitive surgery, high surveillance). For more information, listeners can contact call 561-650-6084	Conni Murphy, Dir. of the Cancer Genetics Program at Good Samaritan Medical Center 561-650-6084	02/05/17	30 min

United Way Vita Tax	Perspectives	Talked w Donna Pulda, CVA, VP Volunteer Svcs, Alexia Savage, SPV Communications & Resource Development, United Way of PBC. We talked about the history of the United Way and several of their programs including the VITA TAX free tax preparation program. This is the 14th year that the Vita Tax program has been helping folks in the community determine with their taxes and making sure that if they qualify for the EITC they receive it. The program has 3 options: Listeners can go enter their info on the website, or they can go to one of the multiple sites around PBC and enter on the computer (with a person to ask questions) or have an IRS trained volunteer enter their taxes into the computer for them. The sites and programs are all listed on the website. Listeners can also sign up to volunteer through the website or make donations.	w Donna Pulda, CVA, VP Volunteer Svcs, Alexia Savage, SPV Communications & Resource Development, United Way of PBC	02/12/17	30 min
Tri County Animal Rescue	Perspectives	Talked with Sharon DiPietro, Chair - Tri-County Animal Rescue 15th Annual Doggie & Kittie Ball. They are a 100% no kill facility that rescues, rehabilitates and re-homes injured and neglected animals. TCAR has rescued over 53,000 animals in distress. They have an emergency fund that is used to pay for the surgeries and other expenses. One of the ways they raise funds is with their annual Doggie & Kittie Ball. This year, it'll be held at Boca West County Club. (only certified service animals are allowed to attend and must be pre-registererd). Listeners can get tix online at www.tricountyhumane.org or by calling 561-482-8110.
