Aviation Day	Clear Connections	Eric Menger from the Vero Beach Municipal Airport was our guest to let us know Aviation Day is coming to the Vero Beach Municipal Airport on February 28. Aviation is an important driving factor in our local economy. This is not the airshow what we had in 2014, but it's a one-day open house with display aircraft and the opportunity for helicopter and bi-plane rides. This event gives aviation enthusiasts an up close and personal look at general aviation, plus a wide variety of aircraft including the experimental aircraft Association B-17 World War II bomber. If listeners are interested in having a ride in this legendary aircraft, they can visit D8 99.org to get more information. He asked the community to please come out February 28 from 9 in the morning till 4:30 PM. Admission is five dollars per person and $10 for the entire family. Eric said, "Bring the kids out so they can learn to love aviation as much as we do"!	Eric Menger, Executive Director Vero Beach Municipal Airport	2-17-15 to 2-21-15 5x/day	1:30 min each

Train traffic	Clear Connections	Phyllis Frye from Citizens Against The Train came to ask if our listeners have noticed more, louder and longer trains lately? She states this is just the beginning. Florida East Coast rail announced in October that they see freight doubling and even tripling starting next year and you at all over Florida's 32 speed trains per day and 100 miles an hour, it's 50 to 60 trains a day running right through our community. Fortunately there is something you can do about it by joining in a no train rally on Saturday, March 7 at 2 PM at the County complex on 27th St. in Vero Beach Speakers will be there with the facts and most importantly you can sign a letter to the governor that says "save our community, save our lives - make them move the tracks West." You can also get bumper stickers and buttons at the rally to show your support.	Phyllis Frye, Volunteer	2-28-15 To 3-6-15 5x/day	1:30 min each
