NETWORK (and/or SYNDICATED) PROGRAMMING

Section II lists the network-provided (and/or syndicated) programming that the station broadcast during the preceding calendar quarter that addresses community issues.

WTTZ broadcasts Treasure Coast Connections on Sundays at 7:30 a.m.

July Aug Sept 2020
Treasure Coast Connection 3rd Quarter 2020

July 1 - 10 2020
Treasure Coast Alzheimer's Assn.
Neil Flynn, Spokesperson
8002723900

There is a free 24-hour helpline available all day, every day for people facing Alzheimer's and their caregivers. Confidential care, consultation and resource identification are provided by dementia specialists. They will help you make decisions, be there for crisis assistance and help you deal with issues families dealing with Alzheimer's face every day. These specialists will direct you to the social services you need. The Alzheimer's association also offers assistance to others with disabilities such as autism. They offer free tracking devices for those who tend to wander.

July 11 - 21
Jim Short from Run Vero
AlA Virtual Challenge
Info@runvero.com

This is your opportunity to join a virtual event for the benefit of 5 organizations whose runs were canceled due to COVID. The benefiting organizations are Buggy Bunch, Substance Awareness Center, United Against Poverty, IRC Habitat for Humanity and Laura's Auxiliary of IRC. You can run, walk, skate, bike or swim. There are different distances from 25 miles up to 300 miles. You can track your progress on the virtual map on the Run Vero website. Participants do receive a shirt and trophy. Future fundraising events include the College Kickoff virtual challenge which will benefit United Way of Indian River County.

July 22 - 31

Guardian Ad Litem Program
Bob Parry, Guardian Ad Litem Volunteer
772-785-5804

If you have ever considered what it must be like to be a child in a courtroom, you can imagine how beneficial it is to children facing crisis to have an advocate in court. The Guardian Ad Litem program is powered by trained volunteers who advocate for the children in courts of law. Guardian Ad Litem volunteers are trained and supported by staff with the goal of transforming children's lives for the better. They are the voice in court for children that have been abused, neglected or abandoned. The child's best interest is the only interest. If you are passionate about children and want to help, please call and sign up for volunteer training. There is a tremendous need, especially when social pressures mount.

August 1 - 12

Music Angels
Linda Sposato, Founder
484-885-7492

Music Angels education fund lifts children into the world of music. They provide music funding in the form of financial assistance to children who will benefit from musical training, including children with autism. The organization also collects musical instruments from people wishing to donate them and makes sure they get into the hands of children who will benefit. The organization is always looking for instruments and funding.

August 13 - August 25

Environmental Learning Center
Indian River's Got Talent Event
Kat Render, Marketing & Communications Director
772-589-5050

Indian River's Got Talent is coming soon. There are opportunities for people to enter with all kinds of talent. Dance, Magic, Singing, playing an instrument - all forms of talent are welcome. There will be a youth and adult competition. The organization is now accepting talent submissions on video. Entries should be no more than two minutes in length. Participants receive two free tickets to the environmental learning center. The entry deadline is now January 15th, 2021. The goal is to have the finale at the grand opening of the new entertainment pavilion at the Environmental Learning Center, next spring.

August 26 - September 4

Habitat for Humanity Outreach
Eve Chimya, Director of Development
772.494.1810

The need for safe and secure housing is more vital than ever. Habitat for Humanity builds homes together with the recipients to build their homes. They help working families find a permanent solution for housing. They also assist with home repairs when needed. Their goal is for everyone to have a decent place to call home. There are volunteer opportunities to help, but in a continuing effort to minimize the spread of COVID-19, they are currently offering a limited number of volunteer opportunities at our build sites and the ReStore. For now, volunteer opportunities will remain on a first-come, first-serve basis. Funds to continue the mission are needed now more than ever.

Sept 5 - 15

Women's Refuge

Diane Ludwig, Executive Director

772-770-4424

A virtual golf tournament is being presented by the Women's Refuge. Visit their website for event details womensrefugevb.org. The event works like this - you sign up for the tournament on their website, then play golf within the specified window at the course of your choice. Tournament winners will be selected, and prizes will be awarded. This is a unique way to support the Women's Refuge during the difficult COVID period.

September 15 - 21

Vero Beach Theatre Guild

Lisa McNamee, President

772-562-8300

The Theatre Guild is announcing their 2021 season soon. Along with their 21-22 season. The box office will open in October and productions will begin in January 2021. They are ready to announce their first production will be Jesus Christ Superstar, opening in January. They are asking you to buy tickets in advance, then you can exchange them for any show you would like to enjoy.

September 22 - September 29

Indian River Symphonic Association

Susan Smith, President

772- 778-1070

The IR Symphonic Association regrets to announce they have canceled their 2021 season and the Festival of Orchestras schedule to run from January through April of 2021. They will be providing refunds to ticket holders. Consult the website Irsymphonic.org for more information and to see suggestion for live-streams and recorded performances that you can enjoy from the safety and comfort of your home. They are looking forward to a return to the stage with a full schedule in 2022.
