	PB Perspective	Clinics Can Help is "a nonprofit agency based in Palm Beach County, Florida that collects used durable medical equipment so that it can be distributed to those who need it most. We are proud to be Florida's largest not-for- profit organization that recycles and re-uses medical equipment." They work with local agencies and volunteers to provide greatly needed medical equipment including cribs for babies so they have safe space to sleep. They've already provided over 500 cribs this year alone. Matt is the chair for this year's golf tournament. It's one of their big fundraisers benefiting the Kinder Project. Owen said they have a full field but there are still some individuals slots open for listeners to sign up. The registration is on their website www.clinicscanhelp.org. While there, listeners can make donations either financial or equipment, become a volunteer, sponsor an event and find out how to get help. Their 9th Annual Golf Classic will be on Thursday, October 20 at Banyan Cay Resort & Golf, 1900 Banyan Club Road, West Palm Beach, FL 33409 and is sponsored by: Ace Sponsor- Nash Luxury Illustrated Properties plus many more that are on the website. There are still sponsorship opportunities available. For more info,	Owen O'Neill and Matt Lincoln	10/02/2022 06:00 AM	30:00

website	Public Health &	2995. Swedefest Palm Beach. According to the website "Forever honoring bad remakes of Hollywood hits, SPPB8 takes place at The Kelsey Theater in Lake Park, with an entertainment-packed after party next door at the Brewhouse Gallery. The wildly popular, sell-out event showcases laughably bad, 3- minute remakes of Hollywood hits made by amateur filmmakers throughout Palm Beach County. This year's showcase of 'bad films made by good people' is presented by the Palm Beach Film Society on October 23, 2022 from 6:30PM to 8:30PM at 700 Park Avenue, Lake Park. For the utterly uninitiated, a "swede" is a no-budget, hilarious remake of a Hollywood film - the basis for the movie "Be Kind, Rewind," which spawned an underground sweding craze and resulted in the first swede fest™ in Fresno, Calif. Next came swede fest™ tampa bay, then swede fest™ tampa the Furious" reenacted using children's Big Wheels - these are only a few examples of the hundreds of films submitted the past six years. Perfect `short attention span theater," each film is maxed out at 3 minutes, meaning that as `so-bad-it's- good" as the film may be, another one is soon to appear. The audience votes on the best/worst film made, which could win bragging rights for the future (or not) filmmaker, and a special grand prize. Additional award prizes will also be given for overall epic- ness. It is completely free to enter a swede, and selected films will receive a complimentary ticket for the director. Even if you don't have a film submitted, seeing the filmmakers dressed in their versions of `Hollywood bizarre" is worth the admission price, which is a mere $12 per person."
