Vinceremos Therapeutic Riding Center	Palm Beach Perspectives	Talked with Susan Guinana, CEO, Vinceremos Therapeutic Riding Center. Their mission is to expand and enrich the lives, bodies and spirits of children and adults with physical, cognitive and emotional disabilities through the benefits of therapeutic horseback riding and other equine assisted activities, while serving the therapeutic riding profession through training and education. Therapeutic riding helps in many ways, including improved self-regulation, learning life skills, increasing confidence, etc. Several of the students recently competed in Special Olympics and one was honored when he was added to the Hall of Fame by the PBC Sports Commission. They offer summer camps and are taking enrollments now. They are also looking for volunteers and Listeners can find out more by calling 561-792-9900 or go to www.vinceremos.org	Susan Guinana, CEO, Vinceremos Therapeutic Riding Center 561-792-9900 or go to www.vinceremos.org	04-01-18	30 min

Kelsey Cares	Palm Beach Perspectives	Talked with Wayne Felber and Elizabeth Dashiell, Kelsey Theater. Their mission is to be a place where listeners can experience the finest in independent cinema, music, cabarets, comedy and various other performing arts while also providing a convention center venue that will host anything from indoor green markets to comic book conventions. Their charity is Kesley Cares and it's mission is "Funding art, theater, music, film, and cultural development through community outreach by providing subsidies for productions, events, artists and musicians to carry out their mission." One of the fun things they do is the mural painting events - the next one is coming up in about a month. The charity raises funds to hire local artists to keep updating the huge mural (they change a part of it each time). Kelsey Cares is working toward enriching lives through art and creating an "arts corridor" with the guidance of AJ Brockman. Listeners can volunteer/donate/get info by going to www.kelseycares.org	Wayne Felber and Elizabeth Dashiell, Kelsey Theater www.kelseycares.org	04/15/18	30 min

Hanley Foundation	Palm Beach Perspectives	Talked with Barbara Shafer and Dr. Megan Van Ella about the Hanley Foundation. Their mission is to provide substance abuse prevention and education programs for parents, caregivers and school-age children. In addition, the foundation provides financial aid scholarships for patients who could not otherwise afford addiction treatment. As part of their outreach, Project C4OPE, Barbara will be leading a free seminar at Origins Resource Center on 4/26 in the evening to help educate folks and to connect families who've experienced the loss of a loved one due to opioid overdose, survived an overdose, or are at high risk for overdose. Listeners can sign up to attend on Thursday, to become volunteers, and get information by going to HanleyFoundation.org	Barbara Shafer and Dr. Megan Van Ella, Hanley Foundation HanleyFoundation.org	04/22/18	30 min
Sunfest 365	Palm Beach Perspectives	Talked with Melissa Sullivan, Marketing Manager, Sunfest. Sunfest is a non-profit that was created to bring in tourism and revenue during the local "slow season" by creating a music festival. It's been around 36 years and has grown bigger and includes a wide variety of music genres. This year listeners can check out Marley Waters, Logic, Zedd, The String Assassins, Ice Cube, 311, Sublime with Rome, Pitbull, Third Eye Blind, DAFEAUXNITO, Party Next Door, Rae Sremmur, Girl Talk, Calke, DNCE, Nick Jonas and more. All artists/time are listed on website and Sunfest App. Sunfest helps charity groups do fundraisers by having them staff the drinks booths, etc. They also are looking for sponsors/volunteers. To sign up then can go to www.sunfest.com	Melissa Sullivan, Marketing Manager, Sunfest www.sunfest.com	04/29/18	30 min

PBC Parks/VSAFL L	Palm Beach Perspectives	Talked with Stephanie Surrena, PR Specialist, PBC Parks & Rec and Cindy Pijanowski, VSA Florida. Palm Beach County has 85 parks and lots of great events happening at the parks. There are food truck invasions, free movie nights, concerts in the park, etc. Venues are also available to rent for events, listeners can go to www.pbc.gov/parks for more info on events and volunteer opportunities. Also, talked with Cindy from VSA FL, their mission is to provide, support and champion arts education and cultural experiences for and by people with disabilities and their family. They offer programs in schools, community centers and juvenile facilities. They are doing a fundraiser, their 21st Annual Golf Tournament at Old Marsh Golf Club on Friday, May 18th. It's the only charity event held at Old Marsh. For tickets/volunteer/sponsorship info, listeners can call Cindy at 561-966-7025 or go to VSAFL.org	Stephanie Surrena, PR Specialist, PBC Parks & Rec and Cindy Pijanowski, VSA Florida Vsafl.org PbcParks.com	05/06/18	30 min

Some risk factors are genetic and can't be controlled but other can such as: Not smoking, healthy weight, good blood pressure, good cholesterol numbers, physically active (age appropriate activities - talk with doctor), etc. Listeners can find out about their stroke risk, support group info and lots more info by going to Stroke.org or www.stmarysmc.com.	Dr. Ali Malek, Interventional Neurologist, St. Mary's Medical Center Stroke.org or www.stmarysmc.com.	05/20/18	30 min

Mental Health/Addiction Help	Palm Beach Perspectives	Talked with Steve English from the Crossroads Club and Sarah Spiro, LCSW, Vice President for Programs, Mental Health Association of Palm Beach County. We talked about mental health, some of the different issues people are facing and the importance of getting help early on. The MHA's mission is to improve mental wellness and eliminate stigma in our community through education, advocacy, and by improving access to integrated behavioral health services. One of the ways they do that is with monthly My Life youth meetings and coming up on June 2nd they are hosting "My Fest Florida" at Gaines Park in West Palm Beach, FL. They'll have music, art, entertainment, and more. It's created to raise awareness about mental health, substance abuse, foster care and other issues facing young people. It's from 10a-3p and free for the whole family. A great way to spend some fun quality time. Later on Saturday June 2nd Crossroads is hosting "Taste of Recovery" from 6-9pm at Old School Square in Delray Beach, Florida featuring tasting bites from over 20 amazing area restaurants. Listeners can get tickets at tasteofrecovery.com. Both events are tented in case of rain. Listeners can get more info about volunteering, services, donations, events at www.mhapbc.org or www.thecrossroadsclub.com	Steve English from the Crossroads Club and Sarah Spiro, LCSW, Vice President for Programs, Mental Health Association of Palm Beach County www.mhapbc.org or www.thecrossroadsclub.com	05/27/18	30 min

Mental Health Association	Palm Beach Perspectives	Talked with Stephanie Surrena, PB Specialist PBC Parks, Brian McManus, Lt. PBC Ocean Rescue and Kelly McConchie, PBC Ocean Lifeguard. There are lots of great things happening in the parks this summer. Both county water parks are open seven days a week now. The different nature centers have lots of programs for all ages (listeners can go to www.pbcparcs.gov for more info) Brian and Kelly went over water safety tips for the beach. They have condition boards that let you know how the water is (green good, yellow - caution, etc, purple means jellyfish are present). They recommend you check in with the lifeguard on duty, make sure you and your kids know how to swim, use sunscreen with zinc, stay hydrated, bring snacks, swim near the lifeguard. watch your kids 100% of the time, watch the flags as conditions change throughout the day, Double Red means the beach is closed and you need to leave and find shelter (it'll stay closed at least 30 minutes once the double red flags go up) Of course keep the beach clean and if you have any questions go to www.pbcsplash.com	Stephanie Surrena, PB Specialist PBC Parks, Brian McManus, Lt. Hurricane Preparedness	Palm Beach Perspectives	Talked with Jeff Berardelli, Meteorologist, WPEC-TV about the upcoming hurricane season. Jeff is part of the very, experienced Weather Team at WPEC-TV. We talked about the current weather and how it can impact the hurricane season, below normal water temperatures, etc. We talked about the new technology used in gathering weather data for hurricane tracking and how listeners need to listen to emergency managers regarding evacuation needs. Also, listeners should have or be getting their hurricane kits/plans together. They can go to wjno.com and click on Operation Stormwatch for all the info that they may need. Jeff recommends listeners tune in to social media Facebook and TV broadcast for the most up to date info during this upcoming hurricane season. They can also go to cbs12.com for more information as well.	Jeff Berardelli, Meteorologist, WPEC-TV www.cbs12.com	06/10/18	30 min

Jupiter Tequesta Repeater Group (JTRG)	Palm Beach Perspectives	Talked with Bert and John from Jupiter Tequesta Repeater Group, JTRG. They are an ARRL affiliated, Special Service Club and incorporated as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that's committed to the promotion of Amateur Radio and providing community assistance and goodwill. JTRG is an active club, involved with all aspects of amateur radio, public service and Amateur Radio examinations. The group provides communications and logistics for area events and assistance in emergency situations, like Hurricanes/Natural Disasters. For example Ham Radio operators assisted with communication after Hurricane Maria in Puerto Rico. They are hosting a field day event Saturday June 23 and Sunday June 24 to show the public how Ham Radio works. Listeners can come enjoy this free event, try and make a contact using a ham radio (club members are there to assist) and see how the JTRG folks work the radios in a no power situation. They'll be using solar, wind, battery power to operate the equipment (like they would in an emergency situation). Listeners can sign up for classes to get their Ham license at the Field day and/or go to www.jtrg.org for more info.	Bert and John from Jupiter Tequesta Repeater Group, JTRG www.jtrg.org	06/17/18	30 min

ISSUE	PROGRAM / TITLE	DESCRIPTION	GUEST	DATE/TIME	DURATION
Stop The Trains Rally	iHeart Connections	A rally and public forum was held featuring Commissioner Bob Solari and State Representative Deborah Mayfield on April 9th at 5:30 pm at the Elks Club in Vero Beach. There is much public opposition to the All Aboard Florida trains travelling through the Treasure Coast at high speeds with no stops in our communities. So far, there have been casualties in Palm Beach County and the trains have not yet reached full speed. Additionally, there are hundreds of street level crossings going right through the center of many towns. This event was held to allow the public to express their concerns to our representatives.	Susan Mehiel and Phyllis Frey Care Florida Citizens Against Rail Expansion www.saveourfl.com 850-222-4100	April 1-6, 2018	30 min
United Way Event	iHeart Connections	Jackie Robinson celebration Day brings attention to Jackie Robinson's achievement in breaking the color barrier in baseball. The event was held Sunday, April 15th. The date marks the anniversary of his start at first base in 1947. Robinson's unquestionable talent challenged, and fine character enabled him to step up and challenge the basis of segregation. He was a major influence to the American culture of and contributed to the civil rights movement. The event brings attention to his accomplishments and invites young kids in uniform to the field to celebrate his achievements. Tickets were $5 in advance and $6 at the gate. All proceeds benefitted the United Way of Indian River County.	Michael Kint, President 772-567-8900	April 7-12, 2018	30 min

Vero Beach Airshow	iHeart Connections	The Vero Beach Airshow is held every other year to raise funds for the Veterans Council and the Exchange Clubs in our area. Catherine came to talk about the various performers that will appear and to promote ticket sales and sponsorships. The event occurred April 21 and 22. The big attraction was the appearance of the Blue Angels. The event was held at the Vero Beach Regional Airport and there were several levels of tickets available at veroairshow.com.	Catherine Caddell, Representative of Veterans Council of IRC 1-321-591-9502	April 13-21, 2018	30 min
Sebastian Clambake Beneficiaries	iHeart Connections	The Sebastian Clambake will occur November 2, 3 and 4th. Now, however, is the time to apply for funding from the proceeds. The deadline for submission is May 11th. The Sebastian Clambake funds capital improvements, special projects and program grants for non-profits located within a designated region of Sebastian River area. You can go to Sebastianclambake.com. Anjani also asked listeners to participate in the "create a slogan" contest on their website. She recruited sponsors to participate in the event; the sooner you become a sponsor, the more promotional exposure you can secure through their promotional efforts.	Anjani Cerillo, President sebastianclambake@hotmail.com	April 22-30, 2018	30 min

The Laurel Awards Cultural Council	iHeart Connections	The Laurel Awards are held annually to recognize civic leaders/benefactors in the area of cultural activities. This event is presented by The Cultural Council of Indian River County. The event was held at the Vero Beach Museum of Art and featured a cultural performance and a champagne toast to the honorees. Tickets were $25 per person or $75 if you also wanted to attend the VIP reception. Proceeds benefit The Cultural Council and tickets were available for purchase at Riverside Theatre's box office. The Cultural Council's mission is to illuminate lives using the power and inspiration of Art and Culture, driving economic vitality through advocacy, collaboration, education and outreach.	Barbara Hoffman, Executive Director 772-770-4857	May 1-8, 2018	30 min
Hurricane Hangar Party	iHeart Connections	The American Red Cross has their Hurricane Hangar Party on Friday May 18th at the Vero Beach Regional Airport's Corporate Air Hangar. This event helps raise awareness of hurricane preparedness. Exhibitors have all sorts of information important to you. When a hurricane approaches, you need to have your plan in place. They cover topics such as - what to do to prepare your home for evacuation; What you need to do with your pets; Locations of shelters; planning ahead for medical supplies; how to manage power outages and so much more. The event had free admission. There was also entertainment, a kid's zone, food trucks and a demonstration by the American Red Cross.	Sarah Ruwe 772-562-2549	May 9-16, 2018	30 min

Blue Water Open	iHeart Connections	The 25th anniversary of the Sebastian Exchange Club Foundation Blue Water Open Charity Fishing Tournament, hosted by Captain Hiram in Sebastian was held June 2nd. Registration was held June 1st. $19k in guaranteed prize money was awarded to anglers. The event raises funds for the prevention of child abuse in our area. Mr. Natali reviewed the many sponsors that make the event possible. Even if you don't fish, you were invited to come out on June 2nd and enjoy the festivities on shore. Since the Blue Water Open Fishing Tournament began, they have been able to donate over half a million dollars to local charitable organizations. The event is run by volunteers and all prizes are donated.	Michael Natali Bluewateropen.com 772-783-5822	May 17-24, 2018	30 min
Youth Guidance Mentoring Academy	iHeart Connections	Youth Guidance Mentoring Academy presents a summer program including an array of fun learning objectives intended to introduce and integrate science, technology, engineering, arts and math while still focusing on the core component of mentoring children. The steam experience is scheduled June 4 - July 27th for at risk children. The biggest fundraiser of the year was held Saturday June 9th at Grand Harbor. It is the Tropical Nights Luau and the proceeds are used to fund the summer camp program of Youth Guidance. Listeners are invited to attend or to donate to the STEAM summer initiative.	Lori Connelly, Events Coordinator 772-492-3933 Youthguidanceprogram.org	May 25-June 2, 2018	30 min

St. Lucie School Board	iHeart Connections	Patrick Madden came to promote the summer musical presented by the St. Lucie School Board, The Addams Family. All of the schools are invited to participate in this show which is held at the Port St Lucie High School Auditorium. The shows will be held June 13 - June 17 with matinee and evening performances. Tickets were $15. The community embraces the efforts of the PSL High School drama department; over 7k people came to a show last year. Patrick covered the many places people could get tickets and encouraged them to buy their tickets early because the shows do sell out.	Patrick Madden, Drama Director Post St. Lucie High School www.pslhsdrama.com 772-337-6768	June 3-10 2018	30 min
Haiti Partners	iHeart Connections	John came to tell about the progress being made in Haiti by Haiti Partners, a Vero Beach based non-profit. They opened a Children's' Academy and learning center in 2012 with 25 three-year-old children in the mountains. Their goal is to change Haiti by educating Haitians and giving them tools to better their lives. Parents of school students commit to 4 service hours per week to help fund their child's schooling. These hours are use producing items that are sold in the U.S. Now, Haiti Partners has 1200 students in their program. Haiti Partners welcomes the further support of our communities to further their mission.	John Angle Co-Founder of Haiti Partners	June 11-18, 2018	30 min

Humane Society Super Hero Program	iHeart Connections	The Humane Society of Indian River County is seeking volunteers that can become "super heroes" to the many dogs, cats, puppies, kittens needing foster care. Becoming a super hero foster parent to a pet is super easy. The Humane Society provides all training, food, veterinary supplies and veterinary care. All you need to provide is a loving home. You can volunteer as much or as little as you like. Foster volunteer orientations are offered monthly. There is a great need in our community for foster service as the humane society is constantly full with pets seeking adoption in forever homes. If you cant commit to an adoption, fostering might be the perfect answer. The Humane Society also accepts volunteers to come give love and attention to the pets that are housed at the facility... you can give as little as an hour to make a difference.	Janet Winnicoff 7725716408 Hsvb.org	June 19-25, 2018	30 min
Substance Awareness 5k run/walk	iHeart Connections	The substance awareness County will proudly host their Freedom Run/walk on July 4th in Sebastian Riverview Park. This walk helps support the many programs offered by substance awareness, including The Lifeskills Training Prevention Program which is taught in all county middle schools and five middle schools. Runners and walkers are invited to come watch the sunrise together while raising funds for this great program that is committed to advance intervention in the way of education in order to avoid substance addictions in our youth populations. The Substance Awareness Center is leading the community toward a substance abuse-free lifestyle.	Christina DeFalco Sacirc.org 772-770-4811	June 26- July3, 2018	30 min
