Movember Men's Health	Perspectives	Talked with Dr. Brett Osborn regarding the "Movember" movement. It was created to raise awareness of men's health issues such as Heart Attack, Stroke, Alzheimer's disease, depression and obesity to name a few. Dr. Osborn is a neurological surgeon and also an anti-aging and regenerative medicine doctor. He recently wrote a book called "Get Serious" about the health issues men and women face and how they can take action and responsibility for improving their health. A lot of the steps include eating healthy, regular exercise including strength training (increases muscle tissue and thus raises metabolic burn). Most of the diseases are "related", for example, if you lose weight your risk for diabetes/blood pressure is reduced. Listeners can grow "Mustaches" and help spread awareness by encouraging men to talk about and seek help with their health related concerns. Healthy Holiday Eating Tips	Perspectives	Talked to Dr. Robert Cywes, MD, PhD, Tenet Florida Physician Services. He works at St. Mary's Metabolic Center and helps address childhood obesity issues. He explained that for healthy holiday or actually "everyday" eating listeners need to know the following: 1. People eat for "hunger/nutrition" and 2. People eat for Pleasure. It's the second one that results in the obesity issue. He recommended that folks eat for hunger and then allow themselves a "treat" meal for the pleasure eating during the holidays. For more info, listeners can go to www.stmarysmc.com	Dr. Robert Cywes, MD Phd Tenet Florida Physician Services at St. Mary's Medical Center. 561-469-4878	12/14/2014	30 min

Family History Significance	Clear Connections	October was Family History Month. The Family History Expo was held on Saturday, October 4 from 10 AM to 4 PM at the First Presbyterian Church. It was an opportunity to introduce the new generations of your family to your family history and its legacy. Experts taught you how to do the research. They showed beginners how to start, and guided seasoned veterans through their advanced search. On Sunday, the Genealogy Department Archives of the Indian River County Main Library was also available to those wishing to uncover their roots. Bob reminded listeners to please consider becoming a member of the Indian River Genealogical Society. They build a bridge to your past.	Bob Sotolo	9-28-14 to 10-4-14 5X/day	1:30 min each
Teen suicide	Clear Connections	October marked two years since a local teen tried to end her life for the third time. She thought suicide was the only way out. She didn't know that by talking to her folks, love would prevail and life could improve. Because of this, the Beth WE Family Summit was created. The summit is for parents of teens and tweens. The hope is to help parents of kids ages 10 to 18 with better communication. There's so much out there to navigate. Parents and guardians with a teen or tween in the home were encouraged to attend this event. Local experts speaking to parents about the realities their children face. Cost is $15 per person, but there is a scholarship for everyone who needs it in order to attend this workshop. You are the greatest advocate your child has. The event was on Saturday morning October 11 with registration at 8:30 AM and the program ran from 9 to 2. Beth W is a 501(c)	Beth WE Summit for Family Communication	10-5-14 to 10-10-14 5X/day	1:30 min each

Benefit for First Responders Disaster Preparedness	Clear Connections	Our guest was Lt. Chuck Kirby, Board Member of SAFER. Laughter Saves Lives, is a comedy show to benefit first responders. The show features the funniest firemen and 911 first responders straight from New York and was brought to Indian River County to raise funds for the local organization. The show's goal is to help raise funds for local first responders. Seating was limited. Ticket price was $25 in advance or $30 at the door. There was a cash bar and free snacks prior to the show. Learn more at laughtersaveslives.org. The event was October 24 at the Elks Lodge. Safer's mission is the whole community preparing for and recovering from disaster, one person and one neighborhood at a time. SAFER Indian River County is a new non-profit coalition of community agencies and individuals dedicated to helping Indian River County residents become more resilient to disaster by pulling together as a community, becoming better prepared, and recovering faster from personal and countywide disaster.	Chuck Kirby Board SAFER	10-11-14 to 10-20-14 5X/day	1:30 min each

Support for Sebastian Non Profits	Clear Connections	Anjani Cerillo from the Sebastian Clambake and Lagoon Festival came to talk to us about this year's event. The Sebastian Clambake Lagoon Festival was in Riverview Park on November 7 8, 9. This year's slogan was "May the clam be with you". The event raises funds for capital improvements for non-profits in the Sebastian, Fl. area. This year they supported: Sebastian Chamber's Pelican Porch Project, the American Legion's renovations and the Sebastian Elks Pavilion. By coming out, you are supporting these fine organizations and their capital improvement projects. They also had an exhibit on children's literacy. Kids Zone, entertainment, demonstrations and more. The Sebastian Clambake also invited guests to bring a non-perishable food item for the Ecumenical Council's food pantry. And remember the Sebastian Clambake in Riverview Park is held every year on the first weekend in November.	Anjani Cerillo Sebastian Clambake Foundation Director	10-28-14 To 11-3-14 5x/day	1:30 min each

School Fundraiser	Clear Connections	This year marks the 50th anniversary of the St. Helen Harvest Festival. The event opens the Thursday before Thanksgiving, which is November 19, and runs through Sunday November 23rd. Rides will once again be from Degeller Attractions. Admission is free and parking is free. A wide variety of food booths including soups, sandwiches, desserts and standard midway fair. There are games of chance that everybody wins. Church members create crafts all year then sell them at a large craft booth called The Lady Bug Boutique. Ride tickets can be purchased in advance at a substantial discount from any St. Helen student. The event is held at Historic Dodgertown. It is one of the largest annual events in Indian River County for family fun. This event raises money to support the St Helen Catholic School in Vero Beach.	JB Egan St Helen Harvest Festival	11-10-14 To 11-17-14 5x/day	1:30 min each

Abused, Abandoned Neglected Children Free Family Event	Clear Connections	The Hibiscus children center planned a dazzling masquerade ball. This was called "a not to be missed black tie event", on December 6. The masquerade was an evening of cocktails, dining, and dancing at the Moorings Yacht and Country Club. The event was held to benefit Hibiscus Children Center. The Event planners had many surprises in store including dazzling live auction items and over 100 silent auction items. Guests were encouraged to wear a mask to add to the mystery and the excitement of the evening. Tickets were $250 per person and were obtained by calling 772-299-6011. The mission of Hibiscus Children Center is to maintain a safe shelter for children who are abused, abandoned and neglected. They encouraged our listeners to join them as they raised funds to provide the many services these children need. Together, with our incredibly supportive community, Hibiscus Children's Center has been saving and rescuing the lives of children since 1985.	Sue Sharp, Event Co- Chair	11-18- 14 to 11-24- 14 5x/day	1:30 min each

Cultural Enrichment	Clear Connections	Willi Miller was our guest to remind us that the Cultural Council has many wonderful holiday plans to culturally enrich the lives of Treasure Coast residents. From holiday concerts to ballet, to chorale performances to art shows, there is plenty going on in our area and one needs only visit cultural-council.org to see the local calendar of events. She also mentioned that many of the Cultural Council members are artists and venues that have one-of-a-kind items available for holiday gift giving. She suggested that art classes or tickets to local theatre or another local performances make wonderful holiday gifts. Elevate local residents' lives with cultural experiences with the help of The Cultural Council.	Willi Miller, Communications Specialist Cultural Council	12-8-14 To 12-14-14 5x/day	1:30 min each
Uninsured Adults	Clear Connections	There may be no greater need in St. Lucie County than that of low income uninsured adult residents, who lack basic health and dental care. 30% of the population of St. Lucie County is without health insurance. That's 65,457 adults between the ages of 18 and 65, but at The Hand's Clinic, top quality health care is provided to their patients, through their many medical collaborative partnerships. She asked that during this season of giving, you will consider the gift of health and make a donation to Hands of St. Lucie County. No amount is too small; the need is great, but their volunteer doctors, dentists and nurses stand ready to improve the health of St. Lucie County, one person at a time. She invited listeners to call her at 772-462-5647 for more information.	Sydney Liebman, Director of Development HANDS of St Lucie	12-16-14 To 12-24-14 5x/day	1:30 min each

Protection of the Environment		Camille Yates from the Environmental Learning Center was our guest to let the residents and visitors to the treasure Coast know all about the enriching programs available at their facility, especially during the school break. The ELC is a 64 acre waterfront nature preserve. The Island is surrounded by the Indian River Lagoon, North America's most diverse estuary. And if you want to do more to help the Lagoon, consider participating in the ELC's annual fundraiser when ELC brings Vegas to Vero. It is a lively casino theme party to be held at Bent Pine Golf Club on January 23. She explained it is such a beautiful setting and the attentive staff will make sure that everyone has a good time. There will be an open bar, dinner, dancing, and a Vegas ambiance. Also a silent auction. Funds raised will help the ELC's Living for the Lagoon Behavior Change Campaign.
