The Environment Go Green	Clear Connections	Daisy, the Executive Director of the Keep Indian River Beautiful invited listeners to celebrate the summer by visiting the green marketplace at Indian River Mall, Saturday 10 AM to 5 PM. Select vendors sell items that make it easy to go green and be sustainable and are specifically selected so that they can educate listeners on the best ways to effectively go green. From 1 to 3 PM, listeners were invited to create interesting works of art for Pinterest during the creative recycling workshop. Keep Indian River Beautiful's main mission is to empower individuals to take greater responsibility for the environment by involving volunteers in litter prevention, recycling and conservation education. For more ways on how you can help Keep Indian River Beautiful, visit the website at a KIRB.org. This program is sponsored by the Indian River Community Foundation and the Indian River Board of County Commissioners.	Daisy Packer	7-1-15 to 7-10-15 5X/day	1:30 min each
Homes for Veterans	Clear Connections	House a Vet is a local non-profit organization that builds and repairs homes for Veterans in 7artin and St. Lucie County. House A vet also operates a home for homeless vets. Mr. Dunahoo invited listeners to attend a fundraiser at the AMVETS Post 92. This organization aids Veterans and their families in Martin County by helping them achieve the success of a comfortable safe home and improve their quality of life. Mr. Dunahoo explained, the "HOUSE A VET" program is local, tangible and can meaningfully impact lives of VETS by helping them meet their housing needs. This includes housing repairs, maintenance, temporary housing or permanent housing. Mr. Dunahoo asked for donations of funds or merchandise that can be used in these endeavors.	Keven Dunahoo	7-11-15 to 7-18-15 5X/day	1:30 min each

Support for non profits	Clear Connections	Tatiana Dyer was our guest to talk about the non profit organization her family runs through which $3000 is donated to a non-profit monthly. Their goal is to help non-profits further their missions. People can go online and nominate their favorite non profits, or the organizations can submit. The requirement is that the organization is a 501c3. Non profits can be major organizations or run by one person from their home. She encouraged organizations to get their application in early, before their event, since the more months during which they are considered, the more likely they will be to receive the award. Dyer is committed to supporting our communities non-profit efforts.	Tatiana Dyer	7-19-1 to 7-25-15 5X/day	1:30 min each
Prevention and Treatment of Drug Abuse	Clear Connections	Indian River's Got Talent is a talent show for anyone aged 10 to 22 currently in school in Indian River County. She announced an open casting call to participate in the event. The casting call was to be held at the Gifford Youth Achievement Center. Any talent will be accepted, not just singing and dancing. Students can win a trip to Nashville. The event is to benefit The Drug Abuse Treatment Association for the Prevention and Treatment of Drug Abuse. The final event will be held at the Vero Beach High School in October.	Kathy Hurt	7-26-15 to 8-2-15 5X/day	1:30 min each

Care to terminally ailing Hospice	Clear Connections	Sarah explained that many people lament that they wish they had called The Visiting Nurse Association and Hospice sooner. Family members struggle providing needed care to terminally ailing family when Hospice is here to help. Many people shy away from the difficult conversations that arise surrounding hospice care and necessary end of life discussions with the terminally ill. Take time now to learn about hospice so you and your loved ones can finish life's journey well. The VNA provides licensed nurses, counselors, and volunteers to provide you and your loved ones with the best care available so they can end their life journey with dignity and respect. When hospice services are utilized early when a life limiting illness is involved, you have more time to develop a personal and professional relationship with your care givers. This creates an optimal plan around the patients' wishes.	Sarah Hanson	8-3-15 to 8-9-15 5x/day	1:30 min each
Animal care	Clear Connections	Mr. Lynch said that on October 3rd the Humane Society of St Lucie County will host the first inaugural O.G. Golf Tournament to benefit the Humane Society of St. Lucie County. This is in honor of O.G., a 10 year old labrador retriever that was the very first pet to come into the new facility. O.G., which stands for Old Guy, came in with several medical issues that developed due to neglect, all of which improved with treatment. O.G. Lived out his life with his adopted family happy and secure in love . Not every pet that comes into the shelter is in the best condition, but they all deserved a loving family in a forever home. The golf tournament registration fee is $125 per golfer. Hole in one and longest drive contests. All proceeds will go to care of over 6000 animals the Humane Society cares for each year.	David Lynch	8-10-15 To 8-16-15 5x/day	1:30 min each

Smithsonian Science Festival	Clear Connections	The Smithsonian Marine Station is turning the spotlight on science. Would you like to make slime, watch crystals grow or dig up fossils or race cockroaches? Then mark your calendar for Sept 26 from 10am to 3 pm for fun for people of all ages. Come to the Smithsonian on South Hutchinson Island in Fort Pierce. Lots of hands on activities for everyone, adults and children alike. Science, technology, math and engineering organizations from around the treasure coast will have exhibits. There will be a live animal presentation, too. See an explosive chemistry exhibit show from Miracles of Science. There is free admission on that day. For information on hosting a booth or sponsoring this free family friendly event, visit their website.	Kristen Krasco, Festival Co-Chair	8-17-15 to 8-23-15 5x/day	1:30 min each
School attendance	Clear Connections	September is School Attendance Awareness month. Attendance Awareness Month offers us the opportunity to deepen our collective efforts to end chronic absence from school. The campaign for Grade-Level Reading communities across the nation has confirmed and reinforced that parents are the secret sauce and, without them, we will not move the needle on attendance. Parents need to become involved and committed to making sure their children attend school consistently. The website attendanceworks.org has promotional tools to assist schools with their campaigns.	Dr Lillian Martinez IRC School Board Member	8-24-15 to 8-30-15 5x/day	1:30 min each

United Way Volunteers	Clear Connections	United Way Day of Caring will serve more non-profits and more volunteers than ever before. Publix has sponsored a large breakfast rally this year. The event has grown in one year from 200 volunteers to 600 volunteers and has expanded to help as many non-profits as possible and not just those that are United Way member agencies. Individuals, groups, company employees, families and friends are all encouraged to come, enjoy the rally and breakfast and then spend the morning help out at a non-profit in our community. The event takes place Saturday, Sept 19th.	Karl Williams, Event Volunteer	8-31-15 To 9-7-15 5x/day	1:30 min each
Support for non profits	Clear Connections	Tatiana Dyer was our guest to talk about the non profit organization her family runs through which $3000 is donated to a non-profit monthly. She encouraged organizations to get their application in early, before their event, since the more months during which they are considered, the more likely they will be to receive the award. Dyer is committed to supporting our communities non-profit efforts. Only 501c3's qualify to receive the award to advance their endeavors.	Tatiana Dyer	9-8-15 To 9-12-15 5x/day	1:30 min each

Cancer	Clear Connections	Cindy came to promote the Making Strides Walk event taking place on Saturday October 26 th in Riverside Park. Participants raise money that help support the 24/7 access to the latest information on treatments, answers and comfort. Also, funding for research to ultimately end breast cancer. The American Cancer Society also puts an emphasis on early detection and prevention which is usually the key to success in treatment. Making Strides is a national event with local events taking place throughout the year. They say "walk with us and you will never walk alone". You can walk as an individual or in a team or you can donate to a walker.	Cindy Schwartz, Volunteer	9-13-15 to 9-20-15 5x/day	1:30 min each
Suicide Prevention	Clear Connections	The First Annual Walk Out of the Darkness is an event to shine a light on suicide prevention and support mental wellness. The event will be October 10 th from 10am to Noon at Riverview Park in Sebastian. This event will help raise funds for research and suicide prevention programs. They will also honor those that lost their battle with mental illness. All donations go directly to American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. This organizations goal is to reduce suicide by 20% by the year 2025. The day will be filled with activities, a raffle, music, guest speakers, prizes and more. Participants can register online or they can visit the events Facebook page and Indian River's Out of the Darkness Suicide Walk.	Haley Pulver, Event Coordinat or	9-21-15 To 9-29-15 5x/day	1:30 min each
