Encourage Local Business	IHeart Connections	Kelly Holm was our guest to discuss the project by the Indian River Chamber of Commerce, called Restaurant Week. This event encourages local and visitors during the window to enjoy price fixe menus set with special values at area restaurants. The objective is to have residents become ambassadors for the local venues by having experienced the best of their kitchen at a special rate. The event is held during a slow period of the year to assist local restaurants with traffic. 23 restaurants participated from Fellsmere to South county. The event was held Oct 7 - 15th and then was extended due to the hurricane that threatened our shores. Restaurantweekirc.com is the website and there is also a Facebook page.	Kelly Holm Indian River Chamber of Commerce	10-2-16 to 10-8-16 5X/day	1:30 min each
Educational Opportunities For Low Income residents	IHeart Connections	Economic Opportunities Council brought a Motown sound to the Heritage Center downtown as a fundraiser for this organization. The event was held on Oct 21st. This event was specifically to benefit Head Start. The Economic Opportunities Council of Indian River County is a private, non-profit 501c(3) organization chartered in 1965 for the purpose of improving the lives of low income individuals and families in Indian River County. The Economic Opportunities Council remains the leader in community action in Indian River County. Understanding the lasting change is not created in a vacuum, EOC's role includes coordinating and facilitating community partnerships whereby collective resources are used wisely and services are not duplicated among clients.	Nancy McCurry, Development Director Economic Opportunities Council - Operation Head Start	10-9-16 to 10-17-16 5X/day	1:30 min each

Animal Care & Shelter	IHeart Connections	On Saturday, Oct 29 The Humane Society of St. Lucie County held their 2nd annual Putt for Paw Golf Tournament at St Lucie Trail Golf Club. The event includes a barbeque lunch. Individual golfers $125 or $400 for a foursome. Proceeds will be used to save the lives of sick, injured and abandoned animals in St. Lucie County. It also provides affordable wellness plans for pets in the area. There is a $20,000 hole in one promotion. The Humane Society of St. Lucie County is a non-profit dedicated to providing compassionate care and safe shelter for homeless animals and, also, to the education of the community on responsible pet ownership.	David Lynch, Marketing & Community Outreach Coordinator Humane Society of St. Lucie County	10-18-16 to 10-24-16 5X/day	1:30 min each
Homeless Families	IHeart Connections	ON Thursday, November 3rd the Samaritan Center presents its 24th annual "Soup Bowl" to benefit homeless. Over 40 locations will open their doors to serve soup to benefit the organizations efforts to end homelessness. They provide transitional housing for families with dependent children. Complete listing of serving sites can be found at communitywalk.com. Samaritan Center offers a structured step-based program with onsite 24-hours a day case managers that help pregnant women and homeless families develop the life skills needed for successful reintegration into mainstream society. Admission is open to families of all faiths, although it is a project of the Diocese of Palm Beach.	Bob Schlitt, Event Volunteer Samaritan Center - Soup Bowl	10-25-16 to 10-30-16 5X/day	1:30 min each

Support for Non Profits Capital Improvements	IHeart Connections	The Sebastian Clambake is an event held by the Sebastian Clambake Foundation to raise funds for capital improvements. It is held at Riverview Park in Sebastian. This year's recipients are Sebastian United Methodist Church, Kashi, The Sebastian Elks Club, the United Church of Sebastian and the Ecumenical Food Bank. The event includes live music from any local artists, plenty of food, demonstrations, a Kids Zone and more. The admission is free and the star attraction is locally purveyed clams and other seafood for sale. The event dates for 2016 are November 4 - 6. The Sebastian Clambake Foundation is a non-profit and is composed of area public service organizations and supported by our business community in its efforts to have a positive impact on our local quality of life. Volunteers from our local community comprise the entire labor force.	Anjani Cerillo Sebastian Clambake	10-31-16 to 11-5-16 5x/day	1:30 min each
Benefit for St Helen School	IHeart Connections	The St Helen Harvest Festival is one of the biggest events held in Indian River County. It is presented by St. Helen Church to benefit the St. Helen School. It is always held the weekend before Thanksgiving, November 17 - 20th. This is the 52nd annual event. They suggested you buy your advance ride tickets in order to save 25%. There is plenty of food prepared by school and church volunteers. Admission and parking are free. The event is held at Historic Dodgertown in Vero Beach. Community members also support this event with a Lady Bug Boutique of hand crafted items, a cake walk and a Patron Saint Award prize raffle.	Bob Schlitt Jim Beindorf St Helen Harvest Festival	11-6-16 To 11-12-16 5x/day	1:30 min each

Thanks-giving Feast	IHeart Connections	First Church of God invites the community to enjoy a free Thanksgiving Feast on Thanksgiving. The event is arranged for people that might be alone for the holiday or who are unable to prepare a meal on their own. The goal is to provide friendship, companionship, and a complete Thanksgiving feast in the spirit of the Thanksgiving holiday. This is the 10th year the church has offered this event to our community, with all the trimmings and desserts. It is free of charge from 11:30 am until 2pm at 1105 58th Ave in Vero Beach. FCOG.com No reservation is required and all are welcomed to participate.	Doug Vogt, Missions and Congressional Care Pastor First Church of God, Vero Beach	11-13-16 to 11-19-16 5x/day	1:30 min each
Volunteers & Donations needed	IHeart Connections	John Corape, the coordinator for the local Salvation Army came to recruit help from the community. There are many needs, especially at the holidays. They need bell ringers for the holiday season, donations of unwrapped toys for the angel tree program and donations of food for the food pantry. Salvation Army helps those in need all year long. The mobile feeding program provides meals to shut ins and seniors throughout the year. They are specifically looking for non-perishable food items. If you wish to donate furniture, sports supplies and other large items, the Salvation Army will pick up your donations. At this time of year, the Red Kettles located outside the retail stores throughout the area do so much good to fund the needs of the Salvation Army throughout the year.	John Corape Salvation Army	11-20-16 to 11-27-16 5x/day	1:30 min each

Support for Local Charities	IHeart Connections	The USA Dances are held once per month. USA Dance is a volunteer organization that provides an enjoyable evening of dancing and musical entertainment at a very reasonable cost each and every month. Each dance includes a beginner dance lesson by a local professional instructor. The Vero Beach Chapter serves the local community by providing monthly dances, open to the public, held on the third Thursday of the month at the Heritage Center. We have promoted the joy of dancing and helped local charities since 2000. The possibility is strong right now that the Vero Beach Chapter will cease to exist in 2018. A minimum of seven to nine board members is required. Additional volunteer opportunities are dance hosts, ticket sales, dance set up and cleanup, supplies, food and refreshments. What they truly need is your service and commitment to keeping the chapter alive and well.	Jennifer Snellson Wells, Board member USA Dance, Heritage Center	11-28-16 To 12-1-16 5x/day	1:30 min each
A Christmas Celebration	IHeart Connections	The Central Assembly of God Music Ministries presented "A Christmas Celebration" a high energy musical production with over 100 performers. It features all the sights and sounds of the Christmas season and all ages are welcomed. The event will be held Dec 9 - 11 at 7pm. Tickets are $3 per person. Central Assembly is located at 6767 20th Street in Vero Beach. The church welcomes visitors all year long. Find them on the web at: www.centralassembly.com. The church is lead by Pastor Buddy Tipton and his wife, Mavis.	Billy McCloud, Music Minister Central Assembly of God Holiday Show	12-2-16 To 12-7-16 5x/day	1:30 min each

Support for the Arts	IHeart Connections	The Vero Beach Art Club, formed in 1936, is an independent, non-profit organization serving its members and the Vero Beach art community through, education, exhibitions, social events and monthly meetings with special programs and guest artists. The public is always welcome to attend monthly meetings. The biggest event presented by the Vero Beach Art Club is "Under The Oaks". You have a chance to find out how artists are selected for the event, that has over 600 applicants. You can attend a jury observer even on Dec 12. There is limited availability for this event but it is a perfect place for those that appreciate art to learn more about what goes into producing one of the largest art events in the State of Florida. Artists apply from through the world to be a part of "Under The Oaks". Cost for the observation event is $25 and includes lunch.	Sue Dinunno Juried Art Show Vero Beach Art Club	12-8-16 to 12-11-16 5x/day	1:30 min each
Support for Non Profits	IHeart Connections	Maureen came to promote the Vero beach Christian Business Association, an organization of business professionals who have a common faith. They have monthly luncheon meetings with an engaging speaker and you do not need to be a member to attend. The organization has been able to donate $160,000 to local Christian non-profits since 2004. The organization also publishes an annual business directory. The VBCBA meets on the fourth Thursday of every month. The focus rotates between networking, business support and ministry awareness. Maureen invited local business people to attend a luncheon meeting and learn more or visit the website: www.vbcba.org	Maureen Nicolace, President Vero Beach Christian Business Association	12-12-16 To 12-18-16 5x/day	1:30 min each

Support for Nursing Homes & Hospital patients	IHeart Connections	Michala Callahan is a school student and member of the Mistletones, a group of local teen performers who visit nursing homes and hospitals to perform during the holiday season. She invited local organizations to call and be added to the schedule. She also suggested you can make a nice pay it forward gesture by buying a Christmas gift for a lonely veteran this holiday season. She suggested the gifts be dropped at the Veterans Council. She mentioned the Mistletones already had 6 shows scheduled.	Michala Callahan, Featured performer The Mistletones	12-19-16 To 12-24-16 5x/day	1:30 min each
PTSD	IHeart Connections	Dr. Brugnoli came to tell us about a new initiative of the Mental Health Association. It is a support group for those suffering with PTSD. Not only does this condition affect returning veterans, but also first responders. It is open to police, fire, corrections, dispatch and emergency medical dispatch services. The group will meet the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of every month, starting in January 2017 at the Mental Health Association walk-in clinic. It will focus on providing support and understanding and reducing the negative effects of being regularly exposed to traumatic events. It will provide a unique opportunity to process experiences together with others that have had similar experiences. Connecting is the first step to healing. It will be led by Jim Ranahan a licensed clinical social worker and retired Boston Firefighter.	Dr. Robert Brugnoli, Exective Director Mental Health Association	12-25-16 to 1-1-17 5x/day	!:30 min each
