Issue: Alcohol + substance abuse

Issue: Tioga County Services

Issue: _____

Discussions: The Tioga County Council on Alcoholism + Substance Abuse will be closing its doors after over a quarter-century of operation. The Council and the services it provides will officially close on Sept. 5th after it wraps up its current round of programs. Limited resources are listed as the primary reason for closing. The Tioga County Council on Alcoholism + Substance Abuse has been a provider of preventative and education services since 1989.

Issue: Village of Owego

Issue: Owego Police Department

Issue: Public Safety

Discussions: The Village of Owego confirmed it had submitted the grant application for the dissolution of OPD to the New York Dept. of State prior to the July 12th deadline. The application will now be reviewed & if denied, the grant will not be awarded to the Village. If the grant is approved, consolidation of OPD would still need to get the approval of the Owego PBA, Tioga County Sheriff's Office and the public through a referendum vote.

Issue: Town of Owego / Village of Endicott

Issue: Drought

Issue: Water Usage Limits

Discussions: Town of Owego & Village of Endicott residents are being asked to limit their water usage until further notice. Several days of hot weather and a lack of participation have left the area with drought-like conditions, and the National Weather Service does not expect any significant precipitation to arrive anytime soon. In addition, the DEC has issued a "drought watch" for the state.

Issue: Town of Owego

Issue: Sept. 11, 2001

Discussions: Owego Supervisor Don Castellucci says a controversial inscription on the town's new 9/11 memorial will not be changed, even though it has been questioned by a local unfaith group. Castellucci appeared on ~~the~~ Fox News' "Fox & Friends" program to discuss the inscription, which labels the perpetrators of the attacks in 2001 as "Islamic Terrorists". On WEBO, he explained that the word "Islamic Terrorist" he thinks, is a historical fact, + "not an indictment of anyone."
