MAIN ISSUE #1 Program Summary:

Many seniors who move to the Low Country may be retired from their jobs, but are not at all retired from life. Sponsored by Clemson University Extension and the Beaufort Regional Chamber of Commerce, Beaufort County Senior Leadership teaches seniors about the community and how to best contribute, both individually and as a group. The program enables seniors to intelligently volunteer their skills and expertise in ways that benefit the larger community by exposing them to various topics, people, and places including local government, history, the military, education, the environment, nonprofit organizations, and more.
