

WLOK Quarterly Programming Report 2022 Q3

Program		Subject
Rainbow PUSH	Host: Jaylan Lyons Guest: Michael Rallings Date: 7/17/2022 Time: 6PM – 7PM	Michael Rallings discussed his time being Memphis Police Director, Police reform/defund, Gun Control, Shot Spotter, and Crime in Memphis.
Rainbow PUSH	Host: Jaylan Lyons Guest: Pamela Moses Date: 7/24/2022 Time: 6PM – 7PM	Pamela Moses discussed Black Lives Matter Chapter of Memphis, Voting, her incarceration, and the COVID pandemic.
Let's Talk Law	Host: Maya Harris Guest: Sheena Payne Date: 7/25/2022 Time: 6PM – 7PM	Sheena Payne with the Reaves Law Firm discussed the National Bar Association Annual Convention in the Bluff City July 24th - 29 th . Payne, who is a personal injury attorney discussed issues in personal injury and answered calls pertaining to what listeners can do if they were affected.
Rainbow Push	Host: Jaylan Lyons Guest: Pearl Walker Date: 7/31/2022 Time: 6PM – 7Pm	Pearl Walker discussed Voting, the Pastor Autura Eason Williams killing, Pinnacle Financial Partners, Crime in Memphis, and updates concerning White Business Association.
Let's Talk Law	Host: Maya Harris Guest: Attorney Jerome Payne Date: 8/1/2022 Time: 6PM – 7PM	Jerome Payne Bankruptcy Attorney. Topics discussed revolved around personal finance and bankruptcy filing. Attorney Payne discussed the steps one should take to file bankruptcy and if it's best to file a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13. He also answered questions on various other topics.
Let's Talk About It	Host: Marcus Mason Guest: Paul Burgess Date: 8/2/2022 Time: 10AM – 11AM	Paul Burgess, Clinical Director Emergency Department at Methodist North Hospital and Denise Cheers Lactation Consultant for Perinatal Support Services at Methodist South Hospital. Denise discussed events leading into their annual World Breastfeeding Week. Paul discussed Methodist North's busiest emergency departments "claim to fame" and informed the listeners about what to consider if they should decide to go to an ER compared to an urgent care clinic.

Rainbow Push	Host: Jaylan Lyons Guest: Timothy Harris Date: 8/14/2022 Time: 6PM – 7PM	Timothy Harris discussed the Memphis Empowerment Initiative, Boys to Men, My Brother’s Keeper, Save Our Fathers Men’s Health Awareness, and the current state of Memphis.
Let’s Talk About It	Host: Chip Washington Guest: Belinda Bryan & Chasity Taylor Date: 8/18/2022 Time: 10AM – 11AM	Belinda Bryan and Chasity Taylor with the Family Safety Center were guests discussing Elder Abuse. They are Coordinated Response to Elderly Abuse (CREA or Cree - aah). CREA is a coalition of community agencies and service providers who interact with senior citizens and they all work together to prevent elder abuse, which unfortunately is more common than you think. The CREA partners include police, home health agencies, Memphis Area Legal Services, ALFs, hospitals, financial institutions, etc. Once a case is opened, Chasity and Belinda work with all the necessary agencies to resolve a problem.
Let’s Talk Law	Host: Maya Harris Guest: Judge Cary Woods Date: 8/22/2022 Time: 6PM – 7PM	Judge Cary Woods. Topics discussed focused on mental illness in criminal justice, what is being done and what you think should be done with youth offenders who have mental illness and should they be tried as an adult or juvenile.
Let’s Talk About It	Host: Chip Washington Guest: Larissa Gregory Date: 8/18/2022 Time: 10AM – 11AM	Larissa Gregory, the new Executive Director of LITE Memphis was the guest. Larissa discussed the organization’s goals and its mission. Larissa also discussed their reach with your programs (how many students, what grade levels, etc.) and went into significant detail about what barriers minorities face when trying to secure high-wage jobs and/or become successful entrepreneurs.