Apostle J. K. Rodgers, Pastor Luvirt Parker, Overseer Renea Collins, Pastor Ronald Turner, Jr., Bishop Demitius Davenport. Is it okay to send my kids to public school? I would say, not only is it not wrong to send your kid to public school because it is the responsibility of the parent to raise their children in the Lord. Not only is it not wrong, for some families, I encourage them to send their kids to public school. Because they need that representation in public schools.

CBN's operation blessing is helping people around the world support themselves with their own businesses. Apath and his wife ran a small beverage stand in Thailand but it brought in barely enough for them and their nine-year-old daughter to live on. Through operation blessings microenterprise program, they learned how to run a successful mushroom farming operation and they were given the supplies they needed to get started. The father says success at farming has given him and his family hope to serve God and now they also plan to give back to the church so that they can help others.

Dr. Faron Cole, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Apostle Jonathan Richardson. Regarding 1 Timothy 4:8, is it okay to workout at a gym? It's okay for several reasons. First and foremost, for me, I like working out for just self-esteem purposes, I feel better when I think I look better. When I have more energy also. God is a healing God, you know, by his stripes we are healed, but I think more so God is a God who likes health, you know, prosper and be in health even as our soul prospers. So, he wants us healthy.

Is it alright for members of other churches to come in and host devotional Bible studies in our church? Sure, as long as they teach the Bible accurately, I think that's a great thing. Fellowship between churches is a beautiful thing. I think it's great, as long as they know what they're talking about.

Here in Washington the US House of Representatives voted late Tuesday to censure democratic congresswoman Rashida Talib over anti-Israel remarks. 22 Democrats joined Republicans in voting 234 to 188 to formally rebuke the Palestinian American lawmaker from Michigan. Talib has defended a controversial phrase used by anti-Israel protesters which calls for eradicating the Jewish nation. In a video she warned President Biden that people will remember his support for “the genocide of the Palestinian people”.

The Supreme Court is indicating it will weigh in on whether President Trump can stand trial for criminal charges allegedly committed while in office. Special counsel Jack Smith asked the high court Monday to rule on whether Trump can be prosecuted on charges he plotted to overturn the 2020 election. Smith is seeking to skip the federal appeals court and avoid delaying the trial until after next year's presidential election in which Trump is the Front-runner. The Supreme Court asked Trump's attorneys to respond to the special council's motion by next week. The court does not meet again until January 5th.

One month after Hurricane Otis struck Mexico many families in small villages are struggling to put food on the table. Before the hurricane, Raquel ran a small business selling corn and plantains in her community but she lost all her equipment in the storm. Without her business she and her children relied on the kindness of neighbors to make ends meet but she still struggled to find food and water. That's when operation blessing stepped in by providing critical food and water supplies. When the ministry brought food and clean water to her village Raquel no longer had to walk long distances to get help for her family. Operation blessing went a step further purchasing all the tools and materials she needed to restart her business. Now Raquel's back to work and able to provide for her family once again.

Pastor Timothy Walker, Pastor Ricky Holmes, Pastor Mark Galambos, Pastor Ronald Turner, Pastor Joe Spence. What is a church? By definition, it means a gathering of individuals. When the Bible references it, it means the Christian church which is the body of Jesus Christ. The church could consist of 2 people or a multitude, the numbers are not important. What is important is that we recognize the church is held dear to the heart of God. God purchased the church with his own blood.

Pastor Eugene Norris, Bishop Demetrius Davenport, Pastor Samuel Vincente, Pastor Joseph Colini, Pastor James Friedman. Why should we love our neighbors? Chapter 12:30, says this, love the Lord your God with all your heart. And with all your soul, and with all your mind. And with all your strength, verse 31 says, the second is this, love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these. So, when we love the Lord with all of our heart, all of our mind, all of our strength, everything we have on the inside of us, we cannot help, but to love our neighbor because we know what it was like when we were down and out when we had nobody to love us. But while we were yet sinners Christ died for us and now, we can extend that love as well to somebody else. And so that's the greatest way, I'll put it is when your loving mother, father, when you're loved by Jesus, you can't help but love your neighbor, love somebody else.

Dr. Faron Cole Faron Cole, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Apostle Jonathan Richardson. Is cremation okay? We need to understand that cremation is something that is really not covered by the Lord and it doesn't matter how you die. You'll find that the traditions of society handle cremation differently and therefore, you know, you think the Lord has to account for that because men have died at sea, eaten by sharks, or whatever. There're men that have been burned at the stake. Wonderful men. Like John Wickliffe. So just to let you know cremation is acceptable at least in the scriptures that I see.

What I could do is I can give you some scriptures to comfort you in this season of your life. Let me give you a Psalm 73:26. It says this, it says my health may fail and my spirit may grow weak, but God remains the strength of my heart. He is mine forever.

Dr. Faron Cole, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Apostle Jonathan Richardson. What does the Bible say about feeling comfort by the presence of a loved one who has passed away? Well, the Bible teaches that if a loved one passed away, there's comfort in knowing that you will see them again. Even as in 1st Thessalonians, chapter 4, we see talks about the rapture of the church and in that he says that we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. And so, we shall ever be with the Lord, wherefore comfort one another with these words. So, there's a great comfort in knowing that you're going to one day see your loved one.

Pastor Brandon Hollis, Pastor Tim Schulte, Pastor Mark Galambos, Pastor Jeff Haygood, Pastor Melvin Steed. What scripture is appropriate to share with someone who is dying? One of my go-to verses that offers reassurance to that and comfort is John 4:14. Let not your heart be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house there are many rooms. I go to tell you I prepare a place for you. If I go to prepare a place for you. I'll come and take you there myself that where I am, you may be also and you know where I'm going. Those are great words of encouragement and something that every believer can be reassured of their salvation and their eternal destiny with Jesus.

Pastor Samuel Vicente, Pastor Tim Neal, Bishop Samuel Hampton II, Pastor Mark Galambos, Dr. Melvin Steed. If someone is suffering from deep depression due to the passing of a spouse and is contemplating suicide, will they go to Heaven? We have to deal with this by faith. The word of God can break this depression. The loved one has moved on, but your perspective has to be rejoicing that this one you loved is now in the arms of the Lord. Regarding suicide, God is the only one that knows the heart of the individual. But God loves you and wants to help you.

Dr. Faron Cole, Pastor David Gray, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor Mark Galambos, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio. Does it offend God if we celebrate our earthly birthdays? I would say absolutely not. I believe that we have two birthdays. I think we have a birthday when we're born into the natural and God has created us, he is the light of men and we celebrate our birth as a result. We give God all the glory, we celebrate the fact that he's given us life and then the second thing we need to celebrate more when we're born again because that's the most important birthday we would have, if we can call it that.

Pastor Brandon Hollis, Pastor Jeff Haygood, Pastor Melvin Steed, Pastor Mark Galambos, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio. Is Christmas a pagan holiday? I don't believe so. I believe that if you start to talk about Easter versus Resurrection Sunday, you know, Christmas is a standalone when we see the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. And that's when we celebrated, do we have the date, right? I don't even know if that's so important. What's important is that we give glory and praise and honor to God's plan of salvation through his son, Jesus Christ. We honor that, we celebrate it, it's great.
