January 2023

1/10/23 Randy Fox with national gospel music group, the Primitive Quartet, based out of Candler, NC, was our guest. The Primitive Quartet is celebrating 50 years of traveling across America. They are retiring in May of 2023. Randy discussed plans for the group members after retirement. The group has traveled to over 45 states in their career and have performed with many other groups and witnessed to countless numbers of people. The Primitive Quartet has had an affect on gospel music, not only here in western North Carolina, but around the world.
