Date: 7/4/2022

Program Name: Family Life Today

Issue: Hospitality, Christian Living

Time Aired: 5:30 AM, 12:30 PM

Duration: 30:00

Description: Hospitality sounds exhausting. But author Carolyn Lacey knows hospitality can be extraordinary and oh-so-ordinary, welcoming people as God welcomes us.

Date: 7/4/2022

Program Name: Family Talk

Issue: History, Religion

Time Aired: 7 AM

Duration: 27:00

Description: On today's Independence Day edition of Family Talk, author Dan Fisher describes the 18th century black-robed pastors who courageously led their men onto the battlefield against the British during the Revolutionary War. In his book, Bringing Back the Black Robed Regiment, he urges today's clergymen to emulate the patriot pastors of America's birth. Our pulpits desperately need biblical conviction once again to rally a new "black-robed regiment" of clergymen to arm Americans with the Word to uphold the Judeo-Christian principles on which this country was based.

Date: 7/5/2022

Program Name: Focus on the Family

Issue: Marriage

Time Aired: 5 AM, 12 PM

Duration: 30:00

Description: Chris and Jenni Graebe both grew up with very strong opinions on how marriage should look. They eventually went to other couples who were years ahead of them, and compiled a list of biblical lifestyles of "rhythms" that married couples can create in their lives. In this interview, they'll focus on the important rhythms that have helped them through the years.

Date: 7/6/2022

Program Name: Washington Watch

Issue: Education, Economy, Abortion, Bible

Time Aired: 4 PM

Duration: 60:00

Description:

Dan Bishop, U.S. Representative for the 9th District of North Carolina, comments on the misguided woke priorities of the Biden administration while Americans are growing increasingly concerned about the economy and record inflation.

Meg Kilgannon, FRC's Senior Fellow for Education Studies, discusses how the Biden administration is pushing woke ideologies in public schools.

Melissa Ohden, saline abortion survivor, highlights Kansas' Value Them Both referendum.

Dr. Owen Strachan, FRC's Senior Fellow at the Center for Biblical Worldview, offers his analysis on why a recent Gallup poll found that fewer and fewer Americans now see the Bible as the literal word of God.

Date: 7/6/2022

Program Name: Family Life Today

Issue: Christian Living, Restoration

Time Aired: 5:30 AM, 12:30 PM

Duration: 30:00

Description: "My life is over." That's what Herman Mendoza thought as he raised his arms in surrender. The police had his house surrounded. His kids were in bed while his wife tried to defend him. He tried to run, but it was useless. A once powerful drug lord, Herman now faced life in prison. And "life" is exactly what he found there.

Date: 7/7/2022

Program Name: Family Talk

Issue: Parenting Girls

Time Aired: 7 AM

Duration: 27:00

Description: Sissy Goff, a counselor and author of Raising Worry-Free Girls, says anxiety always involves an overestimation of the problem, and an underestimation of self. On today's edition of Family Talk, she warns parents not to rescue their daughter, which only serves to validate her anxiety. In essence, a parent might say, "You're right, sweetheart, your concern is too big and you're too small. You can't do it." Instead, it's critical to tell her, "You are capable. And I believe in you!" That will build her confidence, empowering her to become more resilient and independent.

Date: 7/8/2022

Program Name: Moneywise Live

Issue: Living Paycheck to Paycheck

Time Aired: 3 PM

Duration: 60:00

Time Aired: 4 PM

Duration: 60:00

Description:

Chris Mitchell, CBN News Middle East Bureau Chief, offers his analysis of President Biden's Middle East trip.

Warren Davidson, U.S. Representative for the 8th District of Ohio, comments on the Consumer Price Index hitting a new record high of 9.1 percent as well as the latest news on the National Defense Authorization Act.

Brenda Lebsack, a teacher and former school board member who writes at "Brenda4Kids," shares what she witnessed at the National Education Association's recent convention.

Bruce Friedman, father of a student in Florida's Clay County School District, shares what he experienced at his local school board meeting.

Meg Kilgannon, FRC's Senior Fellow for Education Studies, reacts to a recent American Federation of Teachers-commissioned poll showing voters fed up with woke education.

Date: 7/14/2022

Program Name: Focus on the Family

Issue: Marriage, Sexuality

Time Aired: 5 AM, 12 PM

Duration: 30:00

Description: Dr. Juli Slattery recognizes that many couples possess a poor foundation for understanding God's design for intimacy — that our sexual relationship is a metaphor for the intimacy God longs to have with each one of us. Therefore, God is very interested in our sexuality and, in fact, designed sex for our pleasure. She encourages married couples to have “covenant love” rather than contractual love.

Date: 7/15/2022

Program Name: Family Talk

Issue: Education

Time Aired: 7 AM

Duration: 27:00

Description: According to Betsy DeVos, “Every single child in America deserves the freedom to pursue a great education, and every parent deserves to have their voice heard.” For the past 35 years, the former U.S Secretary of Education has advocated for school choice for K through 12th grade students across the nation. On today's edition of Family Talk, Dr. Tim Clinton and Secretary DeVos discuss the possibilities and future of our education system, along with her new book, Hostages No More: The Fight for Education Freedom and the Future of the American Child.

Date: 7/20/2022

Program Name: Family Talk

Issue: Religion

Time Aired: 7 AM

Duration: 27:00

Description: Lee Strobel was once a narcissistic drunk, desperately lacking as a father to his kids and as a model husband to his wife, Leslie. Ironically, after she became a believer, Lee came to know the Lord after he tried to disprove the Resurrection for over two years. The avalanche of evidence pointing to our salvation was irrefutable. On today's edition of Family Talk, Dr. James Dobson and his good friend, renowned apologist and scholar Lee Strobel discuss his faith walk and the role of apologetics in evangelism. They also highlight the parallel of famous atheists of history – Nietzsche (KNEE-chee), Freud (FROYD), Voltaire, and O'Haire – who were either fatherless or had bad relationships with their fathers.

Date: 7/22/2022

Program Name: Family Talk

Issue: Media, Christian Living

Time Aired: 7 AM

Duration: 27:00

Description: Shannon Bream grew up memorizing Scripture while enrolled in Awana. Her mother first taught her Philippians 2:3, which says, "Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility, value others above yourselves." With God's providence, after graduating from college and law school, and then struggling as a young lawyer, Shannon persevered in her quest to 'value others above herself,' culminating in her landing a plum job as host of Fox News @ Night. In this public forum, Shannon engages viewers and the culture each night to defend truth and righteousness. On today's edition of Family Talk, she talks to Dr. Tim Clinton about her previous stage fright, her husband's brain tumor, and her new book, The Mothers and Daughters of the Bible Speak, highlighting life lessons from mothers and daughters in Scripture.

Program Name: Family Talk

Issue: Prayer, Parenting

Time Aired: 7 AM

Duration: 27:00

Description: In 1984, Fern Nichols was fearful about sending her two eldest children off to junior high. Realizing that the spiritual warfare would be intense, she asked another mother to pray with her for their kids' protection. That was the humble beginning of Moms in Prayer International, a ministry which now has groups in all 50 states and 140 countries worldwide. On today's edition of Family Talk, Fern compares the efforts of the four friends in the book of Mark, chapter two, who opened a hole in the roof to get a paralyzed man to Jesus. With the heart behind Moms in Prayer, mothers have a similar desperation and determination to bring their children before

Time Aired: 6:30 AM, 3 PM

Duration: 30:00

Description: In response to a recent op-ed at Christianity Today, Maria and John insist that Christians can and should be involved in the public square, particularly in the schools. One clear reason is the proposed regulations reinterpreting Title IX. These regulations would remove parental rights from parents whose kids are drawn to radical gender ideology, making the schools conduits to transgender treatments. Maria and John then move to a discussion of the “why” behind a new stat showing that women are leaving the Church.

Program Name: Family Talk

Issue: Divorce

Time Aired: 7 AM

Duration: 27:00

Description: To any outside observer, Larry Wright was a success. The Phoenix rock 'n roll disc jockey had paid for an upscale home, nice cars, and provided a comfortable life for his wife, Sue, and their three kids. But on today's edition of Family Talk, you'll hear how Larry and Sue's marriage almost ended in divorce. After Sue became a Christian, she exemplified 1 Peter 3:1, which challenges wives to win their husbands to Christ by their selfless conduct. Larry's hardened heart was miraculously softened to God's redemption, and the once-harsh disciplinarian was transformed into a loving father whose relationship with his children was restored.

Larry & Sue Wright

Larry Wright was a popular radio "disc jockey" in the 1960s, serving Phoenix and a wide area of Arizona under the name "Lucky Lawrence." After receiving Jesus Christ as his personal Savior, Larry began leading Bible studies at Bethany Bible Church. In June of 1979, Larry and his wife, Sue, founded the ministry Abundant Life, which focused on unchurched businessmen. The ministry evolved to help couples work to improve their marriages. Larry and his wife expanded their outreach by speaking on the topic of God's plan for marriage across the country. In addition, they worked with Pro Athletes Outreach, helping athletes work to keep their families together. Larry passed away in 2001.

Sue Wright served alongside her husband and led Bible Studies and encouraged women in their faith for over 35 years. She was also a talented artist and loved to draw and paint with oils. In addition, Sue had a passion for horses and competed in many rodeos as a barrel racer. She was a rodeo princess and participated in many parades with her horses. Sue and Larry were married 46 years before his passing in 2001. She joined her husband in Heaven when she went home to be with the Lord in 2019. They are survived by their three daughters, nine grandchildren, and 25 great-grandchildren.

Program Name: Family Talk

Issue: Evangelism

Time Aired: 7 AM

Duration: 27:00

Description: Did you know that there are over half a million Americans who are homeless? Can you imagine what it's like to live on the streets? No bed or shower. No easy way to get food or a job. On today's classic edition of Family Talk, Mike Yankoski, the author of Under the Overpass, shares with Dr. James Dobson his experience of going undercover to learn how the homeless community lives. Throughout his five-month journey, he lost 25 pounds, grew his hair and beard, and eventually repelled people by his body odor. As Mike ate out of the trash, was ignored, and even witnessed a violent encounter, he felt dehumanized and disgusting. His experience gave him increased Christ-life compassion for those who really are homeless.

Chad Robichaux (pronounced Ro-ba-show) is a highly decorated former U.S. Marine and Department of Defense contractor with eight deployments to Afghanistan as part of a Joint Special Operations Command Task Force. After overcoming his personal battles with PTSD and nearly becoming a veteran suicide statistic, Chad founded the Mighty Oaks Foundation, a non-profit serving the active duty, military veteran, and first responder communities around the world with faith-based combat trauma and resiliency programs. He is also the co-founder of Save Our Allies, a non-profit organization that focuses on the evacuation and recovery of Americans, our allies, and vulnerable people trapped in Afghanistan. Chad is a best-selling author and has written a number of books related to veteran care and overcoming life's challenges. He has been featured on national news outlets and his biography, An Unfair Advantage, will soon be developed into a screenplay for a major motion picture. In addition to Chad's military service, he has served our nation as a special agent with the U.S. Federal Air Marshal Service and the U.S. State Department as a surveillance detection senior program manager. Chad is a Medal of Valor recipient for his bravery beyond the call of duty in law enforcement. He has earned an MBA from New York Institute of Technology (NYIT), and is a board-certified pastoral counselor with a focus on PTSD. Chad is married to Kathy, and they have one daughter, two sons and two granddaughters.
