

QUARTERLY ISSUES

PROGRAM LIST

KATP-FM Sundays 6am, KMXJ-FM

Sundays 6am, KPRF-FM Sundays 6am,

KXSS-FM Sundays 6am, KIXZ-AM

Sundays 10am

The station has identified the following issues as significant issues facing our community in this quarter:

1. Education - Issues related to education in our area.
2. Literacy - issues related to reading and reading education in our area.
3. Fundraising - issues related to events helping to raise funds for non-profits in the community.
4. Domestic Violence - Issues relating to prevention and education about domestic violence in the community.
5. Community Events- Issues relating to different activities that bring our community together.

January 1, 2018 - March 31, 2018

Issue:	Program:	Description:	Date Aired:	Duration: fundraising, children's health, granting wishes for kids.	Amarillo's TownSquare	A fundraiser for the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Pam Matheson talked about the annual Tri-State Chili Championship. A chili cookoff benefiting the Make-A-Wish Foundation. The Interview included details on how to attend and how to be come a team.	1/6/2018	7:00
literacy, learning, reading, community events	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stacy Yates with the Amarillo Public Library spoke about the different events happening at the different branches in the month of January.	1/6/2018	8:00

education, history,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stephanie Price with the PPHM stopped in to talk about the new Pop Culture Exhibit. The exhibit covers events and fads over the years from the 50's to now.	1/6/2018	8:00
---------------------	-----------------------	---	----------	------

Issue:	Program:	Description:	Date Aired:	Duration:
grief, loss, suicide,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Fundraiser for the Hope and Healing Place, Emily Ellis talked about the Big Cheese Smackdown, a Mac and Cheese Cookoff, a fundraiser for the Hope and Healing place. She spoke about how to attend. She also addressed how the Hope and Healing place is a non-profit organization that helps those dealing with a loss of a loved one, including, death of a loved one, suicide, children dealing	1/13/2018	8:15 education, college, health, medical	Amarillo's TownSquare	Academic Event for High School students looking to enter the medical Field, Dr. Graves with Amarillo Oral and Maxillofacial, talked about the Academic Event. This is an event for high school students looking to begin a career in the medical field. Representatives from different practices and schools will be present at the event to speak and to showcase information for	1/13/2018	9:00 farming, ranching, education, livestock	Amarillo's TownSquare	A group of 4-H students ranging from elementary to High School Seniors talked about the Randall County Jr. Livestock Show. They talked about what goes into getting an animal ready for show. They talked about what happens after the show. Plus, they talked about how they were helping out a local non-profit, Snack Pack for Kids	1/13/2018	9:00

Issue:	Program:	Description:	Date Aired:	Duration:
legal, children, crime, sexual assault	Amarillo's TownSquare	Fundraiser for the Bridge Advocacy Center, Karen Roberts, owner of Get Fit, hosts a run each winter called the Cold as Ice run. The run benefits the Bridge Advocacy Center. She spoke about how to get signed up for the run. She also spoke about what the Bridge is, which is, the Bridge is able to go in and do one interview with a child who has been a witness or involved in a crime, i.e. sexual	1/22/2018	7:00 pro-life, religion,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Amarillo Diocese Event, Stephanie Frausto with the Amarillo Diocese and Respect for Life Ministries spoke about their Respect for Live Walk. It's a walk open to everyone, all religion, to bring awareness to Right for Life	1/22/2018	7:00
literacy, children, education,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Chandra Perkins, with Storybridge stopped in to talk about the non-profit organization. Storybridge is an organization to help put books in the hands of children in low income families. They accept book donations, and monetary donations. They regularly hand out books to these children.	1/22/2018	8:00
Blood Donation, sports, education	Amarillo's TownSquare	Suzanne Talley with the Coffee Memorial Blood Center talks about Kids Inc Donor Days. A event to let schools compete on who gets the most blood donations. The winning schools receive money for their school. High School seniors who donate have the opportunity to win College Scholarships.	1/27/2018	9:00

Issue:	Program:	Description:	Date Aired:	Duration:
arts, education	Amarillo's TownSquare	King Hill talks about a Retrospective Art Show involving Native American Art from his late father, Jack Hill. The show takes place at the Kwahadi Indian Museum. He also spoke about the Lonestar Ballets performance of Lonestar Legends and Love stories.	27-Jan	8:30
literacy, children, education,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Chandra Perkins, with Storybridge stopped in to talk about the non-profit organization. Storybridge is an organization to help put books in the hands of children in low income families. They accept book donations, and monetary donations. They regularly hand out books to these children.	1/27/2018	8:00
domestic violence, sexual assault, veteran services	Amarillo's Townsquare	Amy talked about the annual Mardi Gras Party to benefit Family Support Services. Family Support Services offers counseling for individuals and/or families, they also deal with domestic violence and have a domestic violence hotlines as well as advocates, they also offer Veteran's Services and more	3-Feb	9:00 transportation, tourism, travel	Amarillo's TownSquare	Daphne with the Texas Department of Transportation and Visitors Center talked about Palo Duro Canyon being featured on the Texas State Travel Guide. She also spoke about Caprock Canyon being featured on the Texas State Travel Map. She spoke about how you could get a travel guide and about our awesome Visitors Center in Amarillo	2/3/2018	7:00

Issue:	Program:	Description:	Date Aired:	Duration:
children, children's organizations, entrepreneurship	Amarillo's TownSquare	Marsha Gobel with the local Girl Scouts stopped by to talk about their annual cookie sales and described all the cookie flavors and how to purchase them. She also spoke about how cookie sales help our local Girl Scout troops	2/3/2018	8:00 animals, wildlife, family,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Megan with the Amarillo Zoo, talked about their volunteer training for the Zoo Crew. All volunteers must attend training to become members of the Zoo Crew and must be willing to devote 2 hours a week to the zoo.	2/10/2018	8:00
education, history	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stephanie Price with the PPHM stopped in to talk about the new Pop Culture Exhibit. The exhibit covers events and fads over the years from the 50's to now.	2/10/2018	8:00
literacy, learning, reading, community events	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stacy Yates with the Amarillo Public Library spoke about the different events happening at the different branches in the month of February.	2/10/2018	8:00

Issue:	Program:	Description:	Date Aired:	Duration:
community events	Amarillo's TownSquare	Braden Smith with 101.9 the Bull stopped in to talk about the HillBilly Hoedown. A Fun event for the community with food, music, and games.	2/17/2018	7:00 pro-life, religion	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stephanie Frausto with the Amarillo Diocese and Respect for Life Ministries spoke about their Respect for Live Walk. It's a walk open to everyone, all religion, to bring awareness to Right for Life	2/17/2018	7:00 travel, tourism, transportation	Amarillo's TownSquare	Daphne with the Texas Department of Transportation and Visitors Center talked about Palo Duro Canyon being featured on the Texas State Travel Guide. She also spoke about Caprock Canyon being featured on the Texas State Travel Map. She spoke about how you could get a travel guide and about our awesome Visitors Center in Amarillo	2/17/2018	7:00 community event, food, fundraising, education	Amarillo's TownSquare	Monika Barbee with the Panhandle Restaurant Association talks about Restaurant Round Up and Food and wine event. The event benefits the PRA scholarship fund and other local charities including Snack Pack for Kids,	2/24/2018	9:00

---	-----------------------	---	-----------	------

Issue:	Program:	Description:	Date Aired:	Duration:
Education, history, learning, alcohol	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stephanie Price talks about the Crafts and Drafts event at the museum. The event is a craft beer event for adults with crafts and entertainment. The proceeds benefit the museum.	2/24/2018 fundraising, children's charities, community events,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Barry Henson with the Panhandle Council of Car Clubs talks about the Make-A-Wish Car Show. The car show is one of the largest fundraisers for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.	2/24/2018	8:00 fundraising, community events, incarceration, women incarceration, religion	Amarillo's TownSquare	Steavi Scott with Sharing Hope Ministries talks about Hope Fest. Hope Fest invites our community to come together to learn how Sharing Hope Ministry affects change within the Texas Panhandle and nationwide. Sharing Hope Ministries assists women who are incarcerated.	3/3/2018	7:00

alcoholism, rehabilitation, religion, fundraising,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Daniel Spitzer with Life Challenge stops by to talk about their No More Chains Banquet. He also spoke of their new Re-Vi-I-Fy Coffee Project.	3/3/2018	9:00
--	-----------------------	---	----------	------

Issue:	Program:	Description:	Date Aired:	Duration:
learning, reading, literacy, education, community events	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stacy Yates with the Amarillo Public Library spoke about the different events happening at the different branches in the month of March.	3/3/2018	9:00
community event, business relations, networking,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Jason Harrison with the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce talks about Mega Market. A event that is speed dating for business. About 75 business persons get to give 2-minute presentations about their business then move on to the next group.	3/10/2018	7:00 animals, wildlife, volunteering	Amarillo's TownSquare	Megan with the Amarillo Zoo, talked about their volunteer training for the Zoo Crew. All volunteers must attend training to become members of the Zoo Crew and must be willing to devote 2 hours a week to the zoo.	3/10/2018	8:00

education, history	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stephanie Price with the PPHM stopped in to talk about the new Pop Culture Exhibit. The exhibit covers events and fads over the years from the 50's to now.	3/10/2018	8:00
community event, business relations, networking,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Jason Harrison with the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce talks about Mega Market. A event that is speed dating for business. About 75 business persons get to give 2-minute presentations about their business then move on to the next group.	3/17/2018	7:00
education, history	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stephanie Price with the PPHM stopped in to talk about the new Pop Culture Exhibit. The exhibit covers events and fads over the years from the 50's to now.	3/17/2018	8:00
literacy, children, education,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Chandra Perkins, with Storybridge stopped in to talk about the non-profit organization. Storybridge is an organization to help put books in the hands of children in low income families. They accept book donations, and monetary donations. They regularly hand out books to these children.	3/17/2018	8:00 community events, animals, wildlife, education	Amarillo's TownSquare	Mike Boley talks about the annual Easter Eggcitement at the Zoo. An event where kids and families get to tour the zoo and get Easter Egg Treats. Lots of learning. Lots of crafts.	3/24/2018	7:00 history, education, education event, psychology	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stephanie Price stops in to talk about an education event called the Psychology of Superheroes. Travis Langley, PhD. addresses the psychology of superheroes in support of our Pop Culture exhibitions. He is a psychology professor at Henderson State University, the author of Batman and Psychology, and the volume editor of The Walking Dead Psychology , Star Wars Psychology, Game of Thrones Psychology, and the rest of the Popular Culture Psychology series. He speaks regularly on media and heroism at universities, conferences, and popular-culture conventions including San Diego Comic-Con, New York Comic Con, and others throughout the world.	3/24/2018	7:00

education, community events, Hispanic community	Amarillo's TownSquare	Lisa, president of Lulac stops in to talk about their Cinco De Mayo 5k. One of the largest fundraisers for Lulac and the scholarships they will provide with the proceeds.	3/24/2018 domestic violence, sexual assault, community events	Amarillo's TownSquare	Jackie with Family Support Services talks about Domestic Violence Awareness Month. FSS will be hosting several events to bring awareness in the month of may. Amarillo leads the State of Texas for Sexual Assaults per capita	3/31/2018	8:00
learning, reading, literacy, education, community events	Amarillo's TownSquare	Stacy Yates with the Amarillo Public Library spoke about the different events happening at the different branches in the month of March.	3/31/2018	9:00
Education, community events, Hispanic community,	Amarillo's TownSquare	Lisa, president of Lulac stops in to talk about their Cinco De Mayo 5k. One of the largest fundraisers for Lulac and the scholarships they will provide with the proceeds.	3/31/2018	7:00