Time: 10:00 AM

Duration: 25 min

Brief Description: Parents who try to instill modesty and purity into their teens can sometimes have a really hard time of it. How can parents teach their kids about healthy relationships in a society that's bombarded with sex? On this Parenting Today's Teens, Mark Gregston has some tactics and strategies for fighting against the sex-crazed culture to promote purity.

Public Issue: Understanding Animals

Program: Issues in Education

Date: 01/03/15

Time: 7:30 AM

Duration: 26 min

Brief Description: Do animals have feelings and emotions? Can we learn anything from our furry friends? Why were they created? Austin Miles was a circus ringmaster for 50 years. On this edition of Issues in Education, Miles will tell some touching stories of his time with animals. These include an elephant that loved a small dog, how a pregnant chimp had a baby and handed her offspring off to a trainer just before she died, and how animals grieve at the passing of their owners.

Public Issue: Tech Dangers for Teens

Program: Parenting Today's Teens

Date: 01/17/15

Time: 10:00 AM

Duration: 25 min

Brief Description: In today's society, people are checking their phones or looking through their emails constantly. Technology can bring many good things into our lives, but it can also come with some problems. On this Parenting Today's Teens, Mark Gregston will give parents some tips on protecting their kids from the dangers of technology.

Public Issue: Disconnected Teens

Program: Parenting Today's Teens

Date: 01/24/15

Time: 10:00 AM

Duration: 25 min

Brief Description: Zaya appeared to be an angry, negative, and disconnected teenager. All she really wanted, though, was for her parents to approve of her. On this Parenting Today's Teens, Mark Gregston talks to Zaya and other students. They'll tell the stories about why they "shut down" and what it was that brought them out of it.

Public Issue: Connecting with Teens

Program: Parenting Today's Teens

Date: 01/31/15

Time: 10:00 AM

Duration: 25 min

Brief Description: When parents get busy, exhausted, or hurt, they can sometimes feel like disengaging from their families. However, it's extremely important to stay involved with their families when their kids are teenagers. On this Parenting Today's Teens, Mark Gregston and special guest Sean Meade discuss becoming connected and staying connected with kids.

Public Issue: Speaking in Love

Program: Walk in the Word

Date: 02/03/15

Time: 1:00, 7:30 AM

Duration: 26 min

Brief Description: Once something insensitive or careless leaves our mouths, we can no longer take it back. On this edition of Walk in the Word, James MacDonald explains why love should be at the center of everything we say and every conversation we have.

Public Issue: Educating Boys
Program: Issues in Education
Date: 02/07/15
Time: 7:30 AM
Duration: 26 min

Brief Description: Why do boys receive 66% of Ds and Fs? Why is it that girls do better in school? The system can be biased against boys, and their desire to learn can be snuffed out by a system that doesn't always understand how boys learn. On this Issues in Education, Dr. Michael Gurian, who has written 26 books, will explain some of his research in brain science. He will help parents and educators better understand boys and help lead them to academic success.

Public Issue: Communication with Teens
Program: Parenting Today's Teens
Date: 02/07/15
Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 25 min

Brief Description: When you have talks with your teenager, does it seem more like you're yammering on than actually having a give and take conversation? On this Parenting Today's Teens, Mark Gregston gives some tips and rules for opening up communication between parent and child. He'll help you learn how to talk to your teen.

Public Issue: Improving Your Marriage
Program: Walk in the Word
