

This is an addendum to the Fourth Quarter 2014 report compiled 1/6/15 with more specific details regarding the issues addressed and descriptions of the content of the public service programs that ran on this station.

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	GUEST	DATE
Public Health-correcting poor eating habits	How a local farmer's market is helping an underprivileged part of OKC learn to eat better	Barbara Loudermilk of Metro Tech and Joan Squir of OSU OKC	10/5/2014
Clean Water In Parts of the County that have none	St. Elijah Church's Water 4 Project drills water wells in under-developed parts of the state for pennies	Terry and Kick Greenly-chairpersons of the project	10/5/2014
Public Health-making neighborhoods self sufficient	A local farmer's market teaches gardening, which vegetables can be grown minimally, how to prepare, and how to sell them at the market.	Barbara Loudermilk of Metro Tech and Joan Squir of OSU OKC	10/12/2014
Clean Water and how it is tantamount to life and health	The Water 4 project has expanded to third world countries improving lives and economies much like it did in rural OK	Terry and Kick Greenly-chairpersons of the project	10/12/2014
Public Health-soil conservation.	Organizers of a local farmer's market teach inner city families how to better care for their soil protecting their property from erosion and soil depletion.	Barbara Loudermilk of Metro Tech and Joan Squir of OSU OKC	10/18/2014
Gun Control-Your 2nd Amendment Rights	With talk of changes in OK gun laws, just what are your rights?	Tim Gilespi-Oklahoma Second Amendment Association	10/18/2014
Public Health-dangers of pesticides	A local farmer's market instructs inner city OKC how to garden their meager properties without harsh chemicals or pesticides	Barbara Loudermilk of Metro Tech and Joan Squir of OSU OKC	10/25/2014
Gun Control-What your 2nd amendment doesn't cover	Changes in OK gun laws beg the question what CAN'T you do in regards to guns and self defense.	Tim Gilespi-Oklahoma Second Amendment Association	10/25/2014

Pulic Health-why good nutrition is important	Oklahoma has a long history of poor nutrition and land management. Lessons on how to keep the dust bowl from returning.	Barbara Loudermilk of Metro Tech and Joan Squir of OSU OKC	11/1/2014
Gun Control-New Laws taking effect	As of November one, many new gun laws take effect. Where you can carry your gun and where you cannot.	Tim Gilespi-Oklahoma Second Amendment Association	11/1/2014
Public Health-drought protetion	OSU OKC has many ways to survive the drought whether you have minimal or maximal acreage.	Barbara Loudermilk of Metro Tech and Joan Squir of OSU OKC	11/8/2014
Gun Control-unsafe gun range	In light of the little girl who accidently shot her instructor, safety warning signs when teaching your kids about guns	Tim Gilespi-Oklahoma Second Amendment Association	11/8/2014
Solving Congressional Gridlock	The Voice Of The People is sending out e-mails and pamphlets with a web sit containing instructions on how you can help end the gridlock in Washington.	Steven Kull-Executive Director of The Voice Of The People.	11/15/2014
Gun Control-Guns On Campus	OU President David Boren expressed his grave concern and disdain for allowing licensed owners to carry their guns on campus	Tim Gilespi-Oklahoma Second Amendment Association	11/15/2014
Solving Congressional Gridlock-the election	What effects the recent election will have on gridlock in Washington D.C. and how residents of Okalhoma City can do something about it.	Steven Kull-Executive Director of The Voice Of The People.	11/22/2014
Homelessness	The Salation Army works each year to help the homeless with their Red Kettle Drive which kicks off this weekend	Major Gargis of the OKC Salvation Army	11/22/2014
Solving Congressional Gridlock-new delegation	Oklahoma elected a new Senator and Congressman. What are their platforms	Steven Kull-Executive Director of The Voice Of The People.	11/30/2014
Feeding the Hungry	How the Salvation Army feeds thousands in their facility this time of the year and how you can help.	Major Gargis of the OKC Salvation Army	11/30/2014

Tourism-New Exhibit at Art Museum	A new exhibit just in time for the holidays is asking for you to participate and share photographs around the world.	Allison Amick- Curator of the OKC Museum of Art	12/7/2014
Providing for the Poor	Salvation Army's Angel tree program begins allowing you to adopt a family for Christmas	Major Gargis of the OKC Salvation Army	12/7/2014
Tourism-Real or Fake	OKC Art Museum presents workshop on how to spot a real masterpiece versus a fake	Allison Amick- Curator of the OKC Museum of Art	12/14/2014
Veterans Affairs-holiday PTSD	How non-profit Warriors for Freedom provides relief for returning VETS suffering from PTSD.	Amber Moulder- Exec, Director Warriors for Freedom	12/14/2014
Children's Health- Childhood Catastrophic Diseases	I Heart Radio presents a musical holiday spectacular to raise money for the Children's Miracle Network benefiting OU Children's Hospital	Jeff Stevens- I Heart Radio	12/21/2014
Children's Health- Childhood Catastrophic Diseases	An encore presentation of the fund raiser for the Children's Miracle Network, as donations are still being taken on line.	Jeff Stevens- I Heart Radio	12/28/2014