4. Federal Government	FRONTLINE “Inside Obama’s Presidency” Former Idahoan and producer Michael Kirk takes a probing look at the first four years of Barak Obama’s presidency. With inside accounts from his battles with his Republic opponents over health care and the economy to his dramatic expansion of target killings of enemies, this program examines the president’s key decisions and the experiences that will inform his second term. THE MCCLURE CENTER SYMPOSIUM ON FEDERAL FISCAL ISSUES This program provided highlights of a two-hour live event that provided local and national focus on our nation’s fiscal condition and possible solutions. It included a panel discussion by some of the nation’s most prominent leaders: U.S. Sen. Mike Crapo of Idaho, Rep. Mike Simpson, Sen, Mark Warner of Virginia, retired Sen. Alan Simpson of Wyoming, and the President of the Committee for a Responsible Fiscal Budget, Maya MacGuineas. PBS NEWSHOUR STATE OF THE UNION: SPECIAL REPORT President Barack Obama delivers the State of the Union speech to a joint session of Congress in the house chamber, presenting his plan and solutions for issues facing the nation. FRONTLINE “Cliffhanger” Drawing on interviews with key players in Congress and the White House, this program goes behind the scenes to show how a clash of politics and personalities has taken the nation’s economy to the edge of the “fiscal cliff,” and now to a second round of standoffs over the debt ceiling and sequestration.	1/15/13 10:00 p.m. MT/PT 1 hour 2/22/13 9:00 p.m. MT/PT 1 hour 2/12/13 7:00 p.m. MT/6:00 p.m. PT 2 hours 2/12/13 9:00 p.m. MT/8:00 p.m. PT 1 hour

5. History	ANTIQUES ROADSHOW “Spokane, Washington” Some 15 of the 45 guests featured on-camera during the stop adjacent to the Panhandle are from Idaho. CAPITOL OF LIGHT Idaho’s treasured Statehouse shines with light following its major refurbishing and upgrading of all utility systems, plus the addition of underground facilities. IdahoPTV has documented its return to splendor and the difficulties encountered along the way, while exploring the history of the People’s House. ASSASSINATION: IDAHO’S TRIAL OF THE CENTURY A dream team of famous attorneys converge on an Idaho courtroom in 1907. Idaho’s best lawyers – James Hawley and William Borah – match wits with Chicago’s Clarence Darrow and Denver’s Edmund Richardson. Re-enactment actors and extras, researchers, crew and others bring more than 200 Idahoans into the project to chronicle the trial of “Big Bill” Haywood, accused of masterminding former Gov. Frank Steunenberg’s assassination.	3/4/13, 3/11/13, 3/18/13 7:00 p.m. MT/PT 3 hours total 3/10/13 11:30 p.m. MT/PT 30 minutes 3/24/13 6:00 p.m. MT/5:00 p.m. PT 1 hour
6. Health	D4K “Nutrition” Guest scientists, including Ruth Schneider, a registered dietitian with Idaho State University, answer students’ questions about nutrition. Three students try to find the healthiest meal at Boise State University’s Boise River Café. An executive chef rates the students’ choices and explains how to find nutritional meals. SECOND OPINION “Breast Cancer in Young Women” Young women can and do get breast cancer. While breast cancer in young women accounts for a small percentage of all breast cancer cases, the impact of this disease is widespread. Breast cancer is the leading cause of cancer death in women ages 15 to 54. There are more than 250,000 women living in the U.S. who were diagnosed with breast cancer at the age of 40 or under, and approximately 10,000 young women will be diagnosed in the next year. SECOND OPINION “Lyme Disease” Lyme disease is caused by the bacterium Borrelia burgdorferi and is transmitted to humans through the bite of infected blacklegged ticks. Typical symptoms include fever, headache, fatigue, and a characteristic skin rash called erythema migraines. If left untreated, infection can spread to joints, the heart, and the nervous system.
