3. Outdoor Adventures	Outdoor Idaho "Home on the Range" The real heyday of the American cowboy has come and gone; but in Idaho, the hard-scrabble hero of so many of our nation's legends can still be found riding the range on the West's public lands. It seems there will always be a place for cowboys, wherever there are cattle to be rounded up, and wild horses to be tamed, and wherever there are people who love the cowboy lifestyle. As cowboy poet Rudy Gonzales reminds us, "People want to be cowboys!" Outdoor Idaho "Winter Grit" Adventure and grit tie together this collection of cold-weather activities captured on camera across Idaho. From extreme back-country skiing and avalanche assessment to equestrian skijoring, ice climbing and heli-skiing, everything requires extra grit as well as specialized skills and a desire for adventure. Outdoor Idaho "Idaho's Middle Earth" Caves were home to our ancestors, providing shelter from the elements. Today, we're still drawn to the dark, the unknown, and even the beauty of what lies beneath our feet. The pitch black world of wild caves - deep and mysterious limestone caves, as well as the extensive lava tube caves - present a view of Idaho that is seldom seen. Outdoor Idaho "My Excellent Adventure" Is there an adventure that you've always wanted to experience? That's the question we posed to our Facebook friends. The result is an hour-long Special that features eight stories, including a family backpacking trip into the wilderness; a raft trip down the Middle Fork of the Salmon River; an expedition to the top of Idaho's tallest mountain; an elk bugling adventure; and "cat-skiing" in knee-deep powder. The program also features a grandmother-granddaughter mountain bike excursion, a trip into	1/1/17 7 p.m. 30 minutes 1/12/17 8 p.m. 30 minutes 2/9/17 8 p.m. 30 minutes 3/5/17 6:30 p.m. 1 hour

The Outdoor Idaho crew brings home stories from some of Idaho’s out-of-the-way places.	3/9/17 8 p.m. 1 hour
4. Health	Second Opinion “Lead Poisoning” Even small amounts of lead can cause serious health problems - particularly in young children. While the national media focuses on Flint, Michigan, patient Yvette Reynolds shares her personal story, taking viewers behind the headlines of what some have called a national epidemic. Alzheimer’s: Every Minute Counts The national public health threat posed by Alzheimer’s disease is revealed. Explore an urgent wake-up call about the national threat posed by Alzheimer’s disease. This powerful documentary illuminates the impending social and economic crisis for America unless a cure for Alzheimer’s is found. Second Opinion “Opioids to Heroin Addiction” Experts say the heroin epidemic, which is a growing problem nationwide, is largely spurred by people who first become addicted to prescribed opiate pain medications. As the pills become more expensive and harder to obtain, people move on to the cheaper and more potent high that heroin can provide. Cynthia Scudo, grandmother of twenty, shares the story of hip pain that ended with a nine-year addiction to heroin. Second Opinion “Broken Heart Syndrome” Can you really die of a broken heart? Research says that indeed you can die from Broken Heart Syndrome, also known as Takotsubo and Stress Cardiomyopathy. But with quick medical intervention, the condition can be completely reversed. Maryann Murray shares her story of how stress suddenly turned her into a cardiac patient. Second Opinion “Mystery Diagnosis IV” In any given year, nearly 21 million American adults are diagnosed with a mood disorder. Patient Brittany DiCapua shares her story of mental and physical symptoms that appeared suddenly and inexplicably in a very special “mystery diagnosis.” Second Opinion “Lupus” Lupus is a chronic autoimmune disease that is known as the “great imitator” because many of its symptoms can mask	1/7/17 7/6 a.m. MT/PT 30 minutes 1/25/17 9 p.m. 1 hour 1/28/17 7/6 a.m. MT/PT 30 minutes 2/18/17 7/6 a.m. MT/PT 30 minutes 3/4/17 7/6 a.m. MT/PT 30 minutes 3/25/17 7/6 a.m. MT/PT 30 minutes

Much of the footage has never been seen publicly before. The Conquest of the Snake For generations Idaho’s Snake River Plain was known as a dry and inhospitable desert. Though the mighty Snake River cuts its way through this plain, everything surrounding it was notable for its lack of water. By the late 19th century the westward expansion of the United States had brought people from all parts of the country who were looking to make these dry expanses home. To do so would require taming The Mighty Snake and putting it to work irrigating this treeless expanse. The Conquest of the Snake reveals the story of how people in south central Idaho labored together to build towns, plow land, and build an irrigation system that would draw thousands to the desert and transform it into an agricultural powerhouse.	2/3/17 7:30 p.m. 30 minutes 2/7/17 9 p.m. 2 hours 2/26/17 8 p.m. 90 minutes 3/14/17 7 p.m. 1 hour
