2. Education	Science Trek “Salmon” Salmon are a keystone species. They play a very important role in the health of an ecosystem. Some swim as much as 900 miles to return to the stream in which they were born to spawn. Why they do it remains a mystery. Guest scientists Jeff Heindel, fish hatcheries supervisor, and Adare Evans, wildlife educator, both from Idaho Department of Fish and Game, answer students’ questions about salmon. Science Trek “Simple Machines” Simple machines include the lever, inclined plane, wedge, pulley, wheel and axle, and screw. Combine these simple machines and you can create almost anything that makes work easier. Woody Sobey of the Discovery Center of Boise will do a special demonstration of simple machines. Science Trek “Birds of Prey” Bill Heinrich from the World Center for Birds of Prey and Greg Kaltenecker from the Intermountain Bird Observatory discuss birds of prey. Science Trek “The Earth” Guest scientists, Virginia Gillerman, a geologist with the Idaho Geological Survey and Jeffrey Johnson, an assistant research professor of geophysics at Boise State University, will answer students’ questions about the Earth. Science Trek “Garbage” When you toss something into the trash, science takes over. Scientists find ways to dispose of trash and not ruin the environment. They can even turn garbage into electricity. 	Hutchinson, deputy solid waste director for the Ada County Solid Waste Management, and Megan Durrell, trash and recycling coordinator for the City of Boise, answer students' questions about garbage.
3. Outdoor Adventures	Outdoor Idaho "Winter Play" Idahoans participate in a historic Scottish game on ice; team up with a dog for unusual cross-country ski contests; fly above the snow with a snowkite; drive 4x4s across the snow; and take the plunge for a polar bear swim. Outdoor Idaho "Winter Grit" Adventure and grit tie together this collection of cold-weather activities captured on camera across Idaho. From extreme back-country skiing and avalanche assessment, to equestrian skijoring, ice climbing and heli-skiing, everything requires extra grit as well as specialized skills and a desire for adventure. Outdoor Idaho "Seeking Refuge" Nature's scenes and sounds are captured on film in Idaho's six natural wildlife refuges. Hundreds of thousands of migrating birds, plus more who find nesting sites in the refuges, also attract birdwatchers, scientists and others to these special places. Outdoor Idaho "The Outfitters" Idaho's outfitting industry has always attracted colorful characters: the ones completely at home leading a pack string down a mountain trail, or piloting a raft through one of the state's many Class IV rapids. This is an industry with a major impact on Idaho's economy, its image, and its outdoor resources. "The Outfitters" profiles some of these men and women, tasked with connecting us to the natural world; and in the process we discover why Idaho is a national leader in the licensing and regulating of this important industry. Outdoor Idaho "Into the Pioneers" Positioned between glamorous Sun Valley and desolate Craters of the Moon, the Pioneer Mountains are, for many, just a blank spot on the map. But this year the Outdoor Idaho crew set out to change that, exploring the low lands and the highest peaks, and along the way interviewing ranchers and geologists, outfitters and miners, biologists and explorers. This is Idaho's second highest mountain range, with a rich history and diverse wildlife that will both inspire and intrigue.	1/3/19 8 p.m. 30 minutes 1/10/19 8 p.m. 30 minutes 1/17/19 8 p.m. 30 minutes 2/28/19 8 p.m. 30 minutes 3/14/19 8 p.m. 1 hour
4. Health	Second Opinion "Caregiving Through Alzheimer's Disease" 5.7 million people are living with Alzheimer's disease today. Caring for a family member with Alzheimer's is a cause for stress,	1/19/19 7 a.m. 30 minutes

	exhaustion, depression, caregiver burnout, and other health problems for the caregiver. Our three guests share the journeys they have lived while caring for their loved ones. Second Opinion “Teen Suicide” Suicide is the second leading cause of death for 10-24 year olds. The tragedy of a young person dying by suicide is devastating to their family, their friends and their community. On this episode, Pat and Christina courageously share the story of their daughter and all the ways they worked to try to help her, and how they are working to help others moving forward. Second Opinion “Menopause” The average life span of a woman in the United States is 84 years. That means that many women will spend a full half of their lives as post-menopausal. It’s easy to feel overwhelmed by symptoms and unsure about how to deal with them. Aging Backwards 2 With Miranda Esmonde-White Many people think that how they age - if they remain mobile, healthy, and pain free throughout their entire lives - is simply the result of luck. As though there’s a randomness to it, or it’s a lottery in which only a few winners enjoy golden years of youthful vitality. But did you know that you actually have a choice in how you age? Former professional ballerina Miranda Esmonde-White uses new and groundbreaking science to help put an end to this defeatist attitude towards aging. Stronger Bones, Longer Life Discover why healthy bones are the key to remaining mobile, engaged and independent. Bone health expert Lani Simpson guides viewers in understanding how to keep their bones strong and prevent or lessen the impact of osteoporosis. Memory Rescue With Daniel Amen, M.D. Dr. Amen talks about how you can improve your memory and even rescue it if you think it’s headed for trouble. This very simple idea to strengthen a person’s memory is based on treating the 11 major risk factors that destroy brain function. Most of these risk factors are either preventable or treatable.	2/16/19 7 a.m. 30 minutes 2/23/19 7 a.m. 30 minutes 3/9/19 8 a.m. 30 minutes 3/9/19 11 a.m. 1 hour 3/9/18 12:30 p.m. 1 hour
5. Local Community Interest	Outdoor Idaho “Winter Carnival” The McCall area appears to be a winter paradise. But the short days and the long, frigid nights take their toll on even the most enthusiastic recreationalist. So what does an entire community do to fight cabin fever? They throw the biggest winter party in the state. This production showcases some of the interesting and offbeat events of this 10-day party and finds unique side trips.	1/24/19 8 p.m. 30 minutes

	Outdoor Idaho “Off The Grid” Idaho and the Northwest have gained a reputation for attracting survivalists who are prepping for a societal breakdown. But the vast majority of those who go off the grid do so because they want a simpler life. Outdoor Idaho explores why many Idahoans choose to disconnect from the power company and unplug from city life. Idaho Experience “Some Lived: An Idaho POW’s Story” Second Lieutenant Mark Brooks Calnon recalls memories of World War II as a pilot for the 8th Air Force, 384th Bomb Group. He recounts experiences of being shot down, captured and interned as a prisoner of war at Stalag Luft III where he witnessed “the great escape” and at Stalag VII-A where he was eventually liberated. Outdoor Idaho “Pend Oreille Country” Lake Pend Oreille is the most impressive body of water in the Northwest. The lake and the surrounding area draw tourists in all seasons, to swim, sail, hike and fish, and in the winter to ski the slopes at Schweitzer Mountain Resort.	2/14/19 8 p.m. 30 minutes 2/14/19 8:30 p.m. 30 minutes 3/7/19 8 p.m. 1 hour
