Issue: Health/Medical; Children
Program: FOX43 Morning News
Anchor: Heather Warner & Ashley Palutis; Melanie Orlins, reporter
Date/Time: October 1, 2013 – 5:00pm
Length: 1:35
Description: A rally was held in Harrisburg to discuss the legalization of marijuana in PA. Parents of children with medical issues called upon lawmakers to legalize medicinal marijuana that could help their kids. One local coroner added that while he is conservative in his decisions, he's for legalizing medicinal marijuana if it would save lives.

Issue: Volunteerism; Crime/Safety
Program: FOX43 Morning News
Anchor: Jeff Jumper
Date/Time: October 8, 2013 – 8:00am
Length: 2:05
Description: A large majority of PA is protected by volunteer firefighters but fewer people are answering the call to help. The number of volunteer firefighters in PA has dropped from 300,000 in the 1970's to near 50,000 today due to budget cuts. For now, departments across the state are leaning on each other to find ways to supplement reduced staffing but unless more volunteers step up, that may not be enough in a few years.

Issue: Children; Education
Program: FOX43 News at Ten
Anchor: Evan Forrester & Amy Lutz; Michael Hyland, reporter
Date/Time: October 14, 2013 – 10:00pm
Length: 1:50
Description: For many in the Harrisburg School District, finding an unexpected $12 million in the budget was infuriating. That's because there have been salary cuts and tax hikes and as it turns out, some of the cuts may not have been necessary. The district recently hired a new financial officer and she found a problem in last year's budget. The financial plan will be re-done and many want to give the teachers their money back or give them a better deal next year.

Issue: Education; Teens/Youth
Program: FOX43 Weekend News
Anchor: Jaime Garland
Date/Time: October 20, 2013 – 10:00pm
Length: 2:15
Description: It's that time of year, many high school seniors are searching for the perfect college and stressing out about their future plans. But one website is adding to the stress, thanks to technical problems with a popular applications website. Commonapp.org is a site used to simplify the application process by allowing students to use the same form to apply to several schools at once. Last year the site processed hundreds of thousands of applications. But this year, it's been plagued with technical glitches that have kept kids from sending their applications to schools. Several universities changed their early deadlines after receiving hundreds of calls from concerned students. The website says a spike in activity caused the glitches and they are working to fix the issues as soon as possible.

Issue: Children; Education; Teens/Youth
Program: FOX43 News at Five
Anchor: Michael Hyland; Melissa Nardo, reporter
Date/Time: October 25, 2013 – 5:00pm
Length: 1:30
Description: Some kids won't get to celebrate Halloween in the classroom this year. A Cumberland County school cancelled all Halloween activities and told parents that students could not wear their costumes to school this year. The school says the change is for the safety of the students. The district says costumes can potentially be harmful or scary to others.

Issue: Economy/Finance; Family Issues
Program: FOX43 News at Five
Anchor: Even Forrester & Amy Lutz; Melissa Nardo, reporter
Date/Time: November 4, 2013 – 5:00pm
Length: 1:15
Description: LIHEAP, PA's Low Income Home, Energy Assistance Program, helps keep families warm during the winter months. The application process has begun for those looking for help paying those heating bills. If you either rent or own a home you do not have to be on public assistance to apply for LIHEAP. If chosen, the grant payment is sent directly to your utility company or fuel provider and is credited to your bill. Proof on income for the entire household and a recent heating bill are required to apply for assistance.

Issue: Crime/Safety
Program: FOX43 Morning News
Anchor: Heather Warner & Ashley Palutis; Melanie Orlins, reporter
Date/Time: November 7, 2013 – 5:00am
Length: 2:20
Description: A 44-year-old man thought he was responding to an ad on Craigslist to buy a TV but was ambushed and beaten with a baseball bat in Lancaster County. Police are now warning other people of the dangers of doing business online. Police say Craigslist scams are the most common and on the rise across the country. And it's not just physical attacks, some people send fake forms of payment to try and trick sellers into giving them personal information. Police say the key is to remain vigilant and if something seems off, ask for assistance from law enforcement.

Issue: Health/Medical
Program: FOX43 News First at Four
Anchor: Evan Forrester; Rebecca Solomon, reporter
Date/Time: November 13, 2013 – 4:00pm
Length: 3:00
Description: According to new studies, sitting is the new smoking. But medical experts say by altering our work area, we could add years to our lives and save hundreds on medical bills. And to kick it up more, some workplaces have desks attached to treadmills so employee can keep moving while working. Even walking for just an hour a day can make a big difference. Raising your desk at work and standing would improve your health and help cut down on some medical bills in the long run.

Issue: Volunteerism; Military; Non-Profit
Program: FOX43 News First at Four
Anchor: Amy Lutz; Rebecca Solomon, reporter
Date/Time: December 3, 2013 – 4:00pm
Length: 2:20
Description: Attorneys in Dauphin County volunteered their time to help disabled veterans who are being denied claims for medical assistance. Those benefits are crucial for those who've served our country. The Dauphin County Bar Association launched a free program to help veterans get the help they need to fight for their benefits. 22 lawyers will donate their time and expertise to help those who fought bravely for our country. Members of the bar association help to correct any errors veteran face when it comes to denied claims which may happen when paperwork is submitted incorrectly.

Issue: Crime/Safety; Volunteerism; Health/Medical
Program: FOX43 News at Five
Anchor: Evan Forrester & Amy Lutz; Melissa Nardo, reporter
Date/Time: December 5, 2013 – 5:00pm
Length: 2:05
Description: In an emergency, 911 dispatchers are a lifeline between victims and emergency responders but some say they are being forced to work too many hours, which could affect your safety. York County dispatchers sometimes put in 16 hour day and work 12 days at a time which can lead to problems with alertness and put people's safety at risk. Workers want the county to cut down on dispatcher's overtime, increase their pay and give them a schedule that guarantees day off.

Issue: Children
Program: FOX43 News First at Four
Anchor: Evan Forrester & Amy Lutz; Heather Warner, reporting
Date/Time: December 19, 2013 – 4:00pm
Length: 1:35
Description: Governor Tom Corbett signed 10 bills into law that protect children against child abuse. The new laws strengthen existing laws and change the way someone is required to report suspected abuse. If you suspect abuse in the workplace, not only should you tell a supervisor, you also will have to report it to the Department of Public Welfare. These laws are part of a recommendation from a report issued last year by the PA Task Force on child protection.

Issue: Crime/Safety
Program: FOX43 News First at Four
Anchor: Amy Lutz
Date/Time: November 11, 2013 – 4:00pm
Length: 1:15
Description: Chrysler is recalling more than one million Dodge trucks. The models include the Dodge Ram 2500 and 3500 trucks from model years 2003 – 2008 and some from 2008 – 2012. A series of accidents related to problems in the steering systems on the vehicles prompted the recall. Truck owners will be notified of the recall by mail next month with instructions for making free repair appointments.

Issue: Crime/Safety
Program: FOX43 News at 10
Anchor: Heather Warner
Date/Time: November 4, 2013 – 10:00pm
Length: 1:15
Description: Honda is recalling 344,000 odyssey Minivans for a sensor issue. The automaker says the problem can cause the vehicle to brake on its own. The recall includes minivans from 2007 and 2008 model years. The fix involves installing a new sensor, but the new batch won't be available until the spring of 2013. Until then, Honda is offering advice to deal with the issue, including asking drivers to start their minivans with wheels facing straight ahead. The company says the issue has not led to any crashes or injuries.

Issue: Crime/Safety
Program: FOX43 Morning News
Anchor: Heather Warner
Date/Time: October 16, 2013
Length: 1:15
Description: Conair is recalling 570,000 of its Infiniti Pro Hair Dryers sold between 2010 and 2013. The company says some of the heater coils could short circuit, causing a fire. Conair says it has received nearly 20 reports of problems with the hair dryers, including three people who suffered minor burns.
