Total running time: 29:30 (with optional exit at 24:00)

1. Jamie E. Wright, attorney, partner in the Los Angeles-based Millennial Government Affairs group

African Americans make up fewer than five percent of the lawyers in the U.S., and minorities and women are underrepresented in many career categories. Ms. Wright shared her story as an African American woman who broke through the barriers to become a successful millennial attorney. She offered suggestions for women and people of color who want to reach for their dreams.

3. Russ Martin, Senior Director of Policy and Government Relations at the Governors Highway Safety Association

Despite fewer drivers on the road this year due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Mr. Martin said states have tracked a disturbing uptick in many risky driving behaviors. He talked about the changing risks, including higher speeds on emptier roads, and an increasing trend of driving under the influence of a combination of alcohol and drugs like marijuana. He outlined efforts to increase drunk driving enforcement nationwide during the holiday season.
