3rd Annual Burns Night at the Library Thursday, January 23 @ 5:00

Do you have a love of music, poetry, being entertained, and all things Scottish? Then you should attend the third annual Burns Night at the Library. Caven Clark will be celebrating his own Scottish Heritage with his performance of Scottish tunes and recitations of poems by Burns.

Robert Burns is widely hailed as the National Poet of Scotland and as a pioneer of the Romantic period of English literature. Celebrations of his life and work began during the 19th Century and has spread worldwide, particularly among those of Scottish descent.

Born January 25, 1759 in the village of Alloway, to his tenant farmer parents, Burns' life was cut short by his death at the age of 37 in 1796. In his short lifetime he was a prolific writer with some of his most famous works being "A Red, Red Rose", "A Man's a Man for A' That", "To a Mouse", "The Battle of Sherramuir", "Tam O' Shanter" and "Auld Lang Syne".

The selection of Burn's work and words will cover as much ground as possible in the hour long program with Clark playing Scottish smallpipes, Scottish border pipes, pennywhistles and perhaps a harp. Traditional refreshments of shortbread and tea will be served beginning at 5:00 with the program following at 5:30. It will be a fun-filled evening for all.

"Take Care of Your Stuff" Program

presented by Michael Loggains, Managing Attorney of Legal Aid of Arkansas &
Past President of the Boone
County Bar Association
January 8 @ 1:30

It's the subject no one wants to talk about and the conversation that everyone needs to have with their loved ones. What will happen when I die? Who will inherit my property and my belongings? Who will have access to the passwords to my bank accounts, credit cards, and online accounts? Who will become guardian to my dependent children? Who will determine if and when life support should cease? Estate Planning may seem like a pain, but imagine the mess you leave to those managing your affairs if you don't draw up a will. When a loved one dies, grief can overwhelm you. Envision dealing with grief while at the same time trying to untangle the labyrinth of questions about legal stuff and costs because no will or other documents exist.

Patrons of all ages are invited to attend this very important program. Whether you are a young parent with small children, a middle aged professional at the height of a career, a baby boomer getting ready for retirement or a senior citizen facing end of life issues, this program should prove to be beneficial.

Michael is the Managing Attorney for the Ozark Region of Legal Aid of Arkansas, who provides legal assistance in civil cases for residents who cannot afford an attorney and are at or below the 125 % poverty level. He received his law license in 1992 and has served as a public defender for seven years.

Spotlight on Library Staff

A new feature for the 2014 newsletter is an introduction to our staff. We think our patrons will appreciate getting to know more about the people who make our library thrive. We will begin with our interim director - Ginger Schoenenberger.

Born in Seattle, Washington and reared in southern California, Ginger and her husband have lived in the Ozarks for almost seven years. She grew up a middle child in a large family, having four brothers and one sister. She currently lives in the country and thoroughly enjoys the daily viewing of wildlife that roams on her property. She is pleased that her two younger brothers, her sister and her father all live in the Harrison area.

Ginger came to work at the Boone County Library in 2007 as the Children's Librarian. She served in that position until asked to become the interim librarian in 2012, a position she accepted with great excitement. She is in the process of completing her Bachelor's Degree in Library Science from Clarion University and will begin work on obtaining her Masters of Library Science in 2014.

When asked, what is her favorite thing about working at the Boone County Library, she enthusiastically replied, "I love dealing with the public and getting to know our diverse patrons." The next time you visit the library, take the time to meet or visit with Ginger Schoenenberger, our interim director.

You don't have to burn books to destroy a culture. Just get people to stop reading them.
