Top Medical Innovations	1/2/2020 at 5:00pm 2:02	The new year holds promise and hope for many -- especially those fighting illness and disease. 13 On Your Side Health Reporter, Val Lego has more on the top ten, up-and-coming medical break throughs, which are expected to impact the "future" of healthcare.
How to Fight the Flu at Home	1/3/2020 at 6:00pm 1:18	As the holidays wrap up, flu season often starts to pick up. Children are going back to school and people are headed back to work. And while Michigan is still on the low activity level, there are more states in the red or high activity levels than a month ago. The C-D-C estimates that so far this season there have been at least six-point-four million flu illnesses. We know about washing your hands and getting the flu shot. But now you can get help fighting the flu from the comfort of your own home. 13 On Your Side reporter, Nina Desarro show us how your smartphone is playing a part.
Michigan Flu	1/6/2020 at 6:00pm :30	Now to a health alert... on the spread of the flu in Michigan. The C-D-C now says there is widespread flu activity in our state. As a result, some hospitals are restricting visitors. Mercy Health is asking people not to visit if they have fever, cough, sore throat, runny nose, nausea, vomiting, body aches or diarrhea. Meanwhile, Ascension... which runs 14 hospitals in Michigan, also has restrictions on visitors. You can find more information about these restrictions, by visiting our website 13 on your side-dot-com.
Kids & Edibles	1/6/2020 at 6:00pm 1:40	"It's very concerning as a healthcare provider, this is a public health threat and problem, nationally" According to Spectrum Health, several adults a day are coming in to the E-R after consuming marijuana. And with children, it's a whole different story. Within the last five to seven years, doctors in West Michigan say there's been a significant increase in the number of children who are admitted because of accidental exposure to pot. 13 On Your Side's, Nina Desarro spoke to A Spectrum Health E-R doctor "and" medical toxicologist about the dangers of "children" and marijuana.
Michigan Flu Season	1/7/2020 at 5:00am 1:45	The number of flu cases continue to mount across Michigan, this morning. Medical experts are forecasting one of the worst flu seasons in years, causing some hospitals to take-action. 13 Angela Cunningham is live and on your side, this morning, with a closer look at the situation.

Behavioral Health Forums	1/7/2020 at 5:00am :25	This week, you'll have a chance to weigh in on how the state can strengthen its behavioral health system. A forum is scheduled this Thursday at the Eberhard Center on Grand Valley's Grand Rapids Campus. The Department of Health and Human Services wants to better meet the needs of the people by hearing directly from them. There will also be a virtual forum on February 6th.
Flu Restrictions	1/9/2020 at 5:00am :25	The flu season is hitting West Michigan and hospitals across our area are asking visitors who aren't feeling well to stay away! According to the C-D-C... Michigan is among the hardest hit states, for respiratory illnesses this season. Visitor restrictions apply to Mercy Health, "Metro Health - University of Michigan", and all Spectrum Health hospitals until further notice. Health officials also suggest that if you "do" have any of the symptoms - seek medical treatment.
FFL Genetic Testing	1/13/2020 at 6:00pm 1:10	It's 13 Friends For Life day. Marijuana & Heart Disease	1/21/2020 at 5:00am :40	The marijuana business is growing...AND pot shops are on the rise here in West Michigan. However, a new study published Monday, in the Journal of the American College of Cardiology, has doctors questioning weed's effects on the heart. More than 2 million Americans, with heart conditions use marijuana, and we now know...the drug can interact with common heart medications, like and blood thinners. When combined with marijuana ...these drugs cause complications leading to possible drops in blood pressure. Health officials are also warning users to pay attention to how...marijuana affects the heartbeat...as this is dangerous for those with existing conditions. As of now...doctors are not stopping you from enjoying the plant...they're just asking you to run it by your pharmacist first.
Body Temperature Changes	1/21/2020 at 5:00am :30	For over a century... 98-point-6 degrees has been the accepted standard temperature for the human body. But a new study says that number is dropping. According to the Stanford University School of Medicine... the average human body temperature has dropped about one degree to about 97-point-5. The current standard was established by a German physician 150 years ago. New research has found that number was correct at the time but is no longer accurate because the human body has changed over time.

What's the Crud	1/22/2020 at 5:00pm 2:30	If you look on social media-- you'll see a lot of people complaining about feeling sick. Up next, I'll ask a doctor-- What's the Crud?
Literacy: Your Brain on Books	1/29/2020 at 5:00pm 1:45	This week we launched our 13 on your side literacy campaign, 13 reads." Michigan is behind when it comes to reading rates. we're committed to making sure that every child has an opportunity to read a book of their own. Reading makes a difference. And as 13 on your side Health Reporter Val Lego reports, reading can actually physically change a child's brain.

Stress and Anxiety Coronavirus	3/17/2020 at 5:00am 1:05	There is a lot of information out there about the coronavirus... and you might be feeling overwhelmed. You also might be wondering how to explain to your children what's going on -- especially since they will be out of school for at least the next several weeks. The C-D-C recommends taking time to talk to your child or teenager about the CO-VID 19 pandemic in a way they can understand. Also, reassure them they are safe... but let them know it's ok to be upset. Limit your family's exposure to news coverage about the event -- including social media, because children may get scared about something they don't understand. When they're out of school -- try and keep up with regular routines. Finally -- be a role model. You can support yourself during this time of anxiety by taking breaks from watching, reading or listening to news stories. Take care of your body. Try to eat healthy, exercise regularly, get plenty of sleep and avoid drugs and alcohol. Make time to unwind. And connect with others -- talk with people you trust about how you're feeling.
Easter Seals and Mental Health	3/18/2020 at 5:00pm 3:00	While we're all practicing social distancing, washing our hands -- trying to take care of our *physical health... it's also important to take care of your "mental health". It's something "we've" been "talking" about a lot. As you can see, we are social distancing from our guest -- "Shanita {TILE} Theil", who is a "Behavioral Health Clinician and Clinical Supervisor" at Easter-Seals in West Michigan. Thank you for being here.
