BRIEF OUTLINE OF NEWS STORY: ELECTRIC BILLS

LIKELY TO INCREASE BY 14% NEXT
YEAR (WIS Public Service Corp)

EXHIBIT, IF AVAILABLE:

11/2/2022

You may want to prepare yourself to spend more on your electric bills next year. Wisconsin Public Service is proposing an energy rate hike of 14 percent for the average residential customer, which is around $14 per month. This means the average customer could be spending roughly $170 extra on their electric bill.

Customers and residents of Green Bay spoke out against WPS's proposed 14 percent energy bill hike during a public hearing at the Neville Public Museum on Tuesday.

BRIEF OUTLINE OF NEWS STORY: HOUSE FIRE
IN KIEL. ONE PERSON TREATED FOR SMOKE INHALATION.

EXHIBIT, IF AVAILABLE:

WLAK -One person was treated for possible smoke inhalation and taken to a local hospital after a house fire in Kiel on Tuesday.

Around 2:06 p.m. the Kiel Fire Department responded to a house on Linden Street for a report of the back of a house on fire with three people and pets possibly still inside.

While responding, the department requested additional fire departments to the scene.

Upon arrival, heavy smoke and flames were visible from the rear of the house.

One person in the home was able to evacuate prior to the arrival of firefighters and confirmed they were the only one inside. Fire crews immediately began fire suppression and search efforts. During a primary search of the home, two pets were rescued by Kiel Fire personnel. The fire was knocked down in about ten minutes.
