

KCLV AM, KCLV FM and KTQM FM - 3 rd Quarter Issues and Answers
2023

7-10- Issue Heritage Days for producers and residents of Portales and Roosevelt County, with Carl Terry Executive Director of the Roosevelt County Chamber of Commerce. He spoke on new music, and events for this year. Large Attendance planned- 8 minutes

7-25 Issue Local Healthcare spoke with the Plains Regional Interim Nursing Director Kim Barnes (Hospital) about numbers of patients in our hospital, and our needs locally in healthcare, and new providers arriving to serve our area. Urging residents get flu shots to keep in patient numbers low this fall and winter. 12 minutes

7-27- Issue- law enforcement in our community conducting national night out.

Inviting residents to meet officers, and see equipment they use and also recruiting of officers . Sgt. Parker also spoke on holiday package safety for months coming up, lock car ect. 8 minutes

8-03- Issue Childrens school supplies needed. Jeff Gentry a member of the Clovis Curry County Chamber of C Board of Directors. Yearly area has a stuff the bus event in several Clovis and Portales locations taking school supplies to fill a school bus. Many financially poor students here and need all the help we can give them to succeed. 8 minutes

8-08- Issue local health care options- Guest Dave Bersinio from La Casa this areas need based state agency providing care for many local residents dental, physical and mental health as well. 3 events are underway this week locally to assist in your good health. Blood pressure screenings and more. 10 Minutes

8-15- Issue entertainment, musical group Brandon Oliver and Company 3 members including leader Brandon Oliver were in studio speaking on what they'll perform at this years Battle of the Bands at the Curry County Fair. The group was one of 8 to perform for free at the Fair. Excellent attendance for event. 9 Minutes

8-17- Issue Entertainment and information, Carl Terry Executive Director of the Roosevelt County Chamber of Commerce spoke on midway rides, farm exhibits, Classic tractors and more all in Portales next week at the Roosevelt County Fair August 19-26. 8 Minutes

8-18- Issue- Entertainment, K C Messick, manager of the Curry County Fair spoke on this weeks fair, battle of the bands, Ag Sale and displays, music events, rides and more. 12 Minutes

8-18 Issue to raise funds for United Way yearly needs. Kirsten from United Way spoke on this years MOVE IT TRUCK PULL. Area teams gather at Curry County Fair and attempt to drag a full milk truck a set distance. Teams join in yearly to win the big block of cheese from Southwest Cheese. 9 Minutes

8-21 Issue Statewide breakdown in ability of parents to participate in students direction in life. New Mexico passed gender bills, abortion and other issues to keep parents out of their childs business even as minors. Huge state overreach not desired locally. Speaker Rebecca Dow from Truth Or Consequenses covered issues and parents right to know about students (minors) even at school. Socialism pushing forward here as well as state wide. 14 minutes

8-22- Issue Live Music needed locally, Lee and Lance 2 local musicians have set up a night for anyone to go on stage and be heard. Uncle Mikes in Portales is the venue, open to all musicians at no cost. Come and play. 7 minutes

9-13 Issue Seniors need to volunteer to help in area events and city wide needs. Guest Susan from Curry County RSVP program hosting a silent auction, in need of funds to help in their community work. RSVP will be having a silent auction and are seeking items to auction and inviting listeners to purchase them to help our seniors. 8 minutes

9-15 Issue- Food delivery to senior homes and for shut in's. Curry Resident Senior Meals Association director T J Decker spoke on folks who deliver meals daily to many in our community. Also spoke on city's Senior Meal site and it's hours and requirements. They help out many in need everyday, a good program. 8 minutes

9-15-Issue- Childrens Gun Safety, 2 safety teachers Eric Gutkowski and Greg Southhard spoke on courses for different ages to learn how to handle a firearm safely. 9 minutes

Calibers a local shooting range is providing the training for youth for state certification. Good for young hunters to learn how to do it right.

9-18- Issue Childrens special care needed- Kristiana of the Hope Childrens home was in to speak about them taking in more children here in Clovis. Their specific needs and how residents can help prepare these youth to be good citizens. Volunteers are needed along with supplies. 10 minutes