Children's Television Act Certification

Dear Affiliate:

This letter is intended to assist you in satisfying your obligations under the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "CTA") and the FCC regulations relating thereto in connection with your carriage of our video programming services (the "Discovery Networks").

The attached schedule lists the Discovery Networks that aired children's programs (as defined in the CTA) last quarter and identifies the children's programs aired on each such network. The schedule excludes all networks distributed by Discovery that did not air children's programs last quarter (Discovery Channel, TLC, Animal Planet, Investigation Discovery, Destination America, Science, American Heroes Channel (formerly Military Channel), Discovery En Español, Discovery Life Channel (formerly Discovery Fit and Health) and Velocity).

This is in compliance with the CTA and the rules and regulations of the FCC.

We trust that this enables you to satisfy your obligations under the CTA and its regulations in connection with your carriage of the Discovery Networks. Please forward this letter (or copies) to any other appropriate individual(s) in your organization. As always, we appreciate your support.

Sincerely,

Re: Children's Programming Certification

Dear Nisha:

This letter is in connection with the Children's Television Act (the "Act") of 1990 and the requirement under FCC regulations that cable television systems maintain records sufficient to determine whether they are in compliance with the commercial content restrictions of the Act for "children's programming" which is defined as "programs originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and younger."

As requested, this will confirm that for the second quarter of 2017, Game Show Network, LLC certifies that the GSN Network is in compliance with the commercial content restrictions of the Act.

Viewers are introduced to a fantasy location called "Tiny Land" where a miniaturized environment of model trains and people encourage exploration as well as pro-social behaviors such as courtesy, compromise and patience. The program series proposes situations that require thoughtful choices and provides resolution geared to the unique concerns and abilities of young children.

Y
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming
Doki offers fun characters each with their own strengths and weaknesses (therefore offering a broad representation of possible at-home-viewers). The team is supportive of one another and the "world" of Doki and its characters reflects the media landscape of today's child. Although the most supportive programming involves the audience through presentation of material in a way that demands intellectual interaction on the part of the viewer (i.e., encouraging the viewer to assist on-screen characters to solve problems), and this series might benefit from this type of "interaction," Doki does offer enthusiastic characters, real questions, and an "arguably" realist presentation of discovery. Combined, these elements will keep children engaged and support their learning.

CARTOON NETWORK
CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COMMERCIAL LIMITS FOR CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

I, Toni Millner, in my capacity as Assistant General Counsel and Vice President – Kid Vid Compliance for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. ("Turner"), hereby certify to the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, that the following information is accurate for the period from April 1, 2017, to June 30, 2017:

- 1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial matter may be telecast during children's programming* on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).
- 2) Turner treated all of the programs telecast on Cartoon Network, a leading ad-supported cable television network, as "children's programming" for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act except for its telecast in the "Adult Swim" block of programming created for an adult audience that airs late night seven days a week. On a weekly basis, therefore, approximately 98 hours of television programming were treated as "children's programming" for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 3) Turner has, as a standard practice, formatted and telecast all of the programs carried on the Cartoon Network during the period noted above within the commercial limits set forth in the Act, to the extent applicable to the programming.
- 4) During this period, there was one incident in which the amount of commercial matter broadcast during children's programming exceeded the statutory limits by approximately 30 seconds due to an unintentional human error. A detailed account of the commercial matter "overage" occurring on Sunday, April 23, 2017, is included in Exhibit 1.
- 5) Turner regrets this incident, which we have proactively investigated and reported. Turner will continue to work to identify ways to improve our KidVid compliance procedures. Moreover, we urge that this incident be viewed in the context of the large amount of children's programming (approximately 98 hours per week) that Cartoon Network has telecast during this period in compliance with the KidVid rules and regulations.

Certified by me this 6th day of July, 2017.

Vice President - Kid Vid Compliance

* "Children's programming" for the purposes of the commercial limit means "programs originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years and under."

 During this period, the "Adult Swim" block of programming aired from 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. 7 nights a week. The Adult Swim block contains regular warnings to notify and remind viewers that the content is intended for an adult audience, and is not considered "children's programming" subject to the commercial limits set forth in the Act.

Exhibit 1

On Sunday, April 23, 2017, there was an incident in which an employee working within Turner's Broadcast Operations Center ("BOC") made an unintentional mistake that resulted in a 30-second time overage in the commercial time limits on Cartoon Network in the hour between 10-11 a.m.

A BOC employee was handling a weekend request from ad sales to change a previously scheduled commercial spot. Under normal procedures, the request to make the change to the scheduled on-air play list would be routed through a proprietary online ticketing system and process that helps ensure appropriate ad insertions and timing adjustments are made, but due to a software glitch, the BOC employee was forced to make a manual adjustment. The employee mistakenly inserted the newly requested 30-second commercial without removing another 30-second commercial. As a result, Cartoon Network inadvertently increased the amount of commercials to 11 minutes of advertising and exceeded the hour's commercial time limits by 30 seconds during this period.

Turner appreciates the importance of the KidVid rules and procedures, but the BOC operator simply made a mistake. In addition to the KidVid training materials made available to the BOC employees, Turner has provided the BOC employee a reminder to exercise care to ensure that any time adjustments during children's programming take into account the commercial time limits.

COMMERCIAL TIME – CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING
VIACOM MEDIA NETWORKS CERTIFICATION: 2nd Quarter 2017

The following certification is provided regarding compliance during the period of April 1, 2017 to June 30, 2017 (the "Current Quarter") with the commercial time limitations set forth in the FCC's April 12, 1991 Report and Order Implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the rules adopted therein.

NICKELODEON aired children's programming during the Current Quarter to the extent indicated by the attached program schedules. The children's programming NICKELODEON aired during the Current Quarter contained commercial matter in an amount that was not more than 12 minutes per hour on weekdays and 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends. NICKELODEON accordingly certifies that it is in compliance for the Current Quarter with the limitations set forth in the Act and FCC rules. However, between June 10, 2017 and June 14, 2017, NICKELODEON inadvertently aired commercial matter that exceeded the time limitations by approximately 207 seconds in the aggregate.

NICK JR., TEENNICK, NICKTOONS and NICK AT NITE aired children's programming during the Current Quarter as indicated by the attached program schedules for those services, but to the extent these services carried commercials, the amount of commercial matter was within the time limitations set forth in the Act. However, on April 5, 2017, during two approximately 22-minute programs entitled Power Rangers (the "Programs"), NICKTOONS inadvertently aired two commercials for a product related to the Programs, which may have caused the Programs to qualify as "program-length commercials", thereby causing the commercial matter to exceed the time limitations set forth in the Act and the FCC rules. As soon as the issue was discovered, it was remedied, and NICKTOONS promptly reviewed its policies and practices to ensure that the error would not reoccur.

Program services MTV, MTVU, MTV2, MTV LIVE, MTV CLASSIC, VH1, LOGO, CMT, CMT MUSIC, COMEDY CENTRAL, TR3S, SPIKE TV, TV LAND, BET SOUL, BET JAMS, BET, BET HIP HOP, BET GOSPEL, CENTRIC and NICK MUSIC did not air any children's programming subject to the requirements of the Act during the Current Quarter.
